Home Extension Units Study Color In Home

MALIN UNIT
Malin Home Extension Unit met Tuesday, Oct. 8, at the home of Mrs. Gerald Brown for the lesson, color in the home. This topic was made interesting with the use of color slides and magazine pictures shown by Mrs. Ethan Whitman with descriptions by Mrs. Francis Street.

Reports from ACWW chairman, Mrs. Emmet Laboda, and publicity chairman, Mrs. Ernest Gray, were given. Mrs. Arnold Scott asked for volunteers for the craft fair.

The next meeting will be in the community hall for an all-day session of foreign cookery. Leaders will be Mrs. Mary McAuliffe and Mrs. Willmer Albers. A special guest will be Peggy Setzler, county agent.

MIDLAND UNIT
A nature display and slides with commentary by the leaders, Mabel McCusker and Dorothy Sharp, made color in the home an enjoyable lesson for Midland Unit. The meeting Oct. 10 was held in Joan's Kitchen. Helen Chapman and Lois Halvorsen were introduced as new members.

A work day was set for the craft fair. A potluck lunch completed the meeting.

ALTAMONT UNIT
The Altamont Unit met at the fairgrounds for its meeting on color in the home. Project leaders were Ann Kuntz and Grace Lester.

BUENA VISTA UNIT
Mrs. Everett Van Meter, vice chairman, presided at the Buena Vista Unit meeting Oct. 2 at Joan's Kitchen. The lesson on color in the home was followed by a discussion period. The November topic will be foreign cookery.

The unit will feature fancy baked goods at the craft fair. They will be accompanied by recipes and instructions for making.

FAIRHAVEN UNIT
The Fairhaven Unit met Oct. 16 at the home of Mrs. Vi Roberts. Mrs. Carol Klipper was a guest.

The lesson on color in the home was given by Mrs. Margaret Brandon, followed by a potluck luncheon.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Brandon, who with Mrs. Vi Roberts will lead the lesson on foreign cookery.

CONGER-FAIRHAVEN UNIT
Mrs. Irene Thompson and Mrs. Shirley Downs gave the lesson on color in the home at the Conger-Fairview Unit meeting Oct. 4 at Joan's Kitchen. Color slides were shown to illustrate the lesson.

Mrs. Ruth Hull and Mrs. Neva Hayes represented the unit at the Community Lounge meeting and made their reports. Mrs. Millie Ballantyne reported on the publicity meeting.

Offices vacated by Mrs. Fran Hayes, vice chairman, Mrs. Ruby Beaver, OTI chairman, and Mrs. Beulah Kloiber, tea chairman, were filled by Mrs. Laura Moore, Mrs. Mary Klem and Mrs. Ann Federhart, respectively.

Anyone wishing to join the unit is invited to call Mrs. Ruth Hull, TU 4-3532, Mrs. Babe Foote, TU 2-1964, or Mrs. Millie Ballantyne, TU 4-9810.

BONANZA UNIT
There were 17 members present on Oct. 8 when the Bonanza Unit met at the library for a lesson on color in the home led by Mrs. Pat Murphy and Mrs. Wanda Braker.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Mildred Kelson, chairman, to discuss the craft fair and the Christmas party.

A decorated cake was served to honor those with birthdays in May, June, July, August and September.

The next meeting at the library will feature foreign cookery.

HENLEY UNIT
Color in the home was the subject for the Oct. 17 meeting of Henley Unit at Joan's Kitchen. Beth Williams and Dorothy Bidwell led the lesson using slides, magazine pictures and nature's own colors in leaves and flowers. A discussion period followed.

During the business meeting it was decided to meet twice a month. Mrs. Pat Anderson will be the next hostess. A Christmas auction will be held at the regular meeting and the lesson will be on foreign cookery.

Two new members, Joan Colvin and Carol Keesling, were welcomed.

LINDLEY HEIGHTS UNIT
The meeting of the Lindley Heights Unit was called to order by Mrs. M. E. Barrett, vice chairman, in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. D. G. Johnson. Mrs. Barrett and Mrs. Ray Billings presented the lesson of color in the home, in which colors were discussed and evaluated.

A potluck luncheon was served.

KENO UNIT
Keno Unit met Oct. 9 at the home of Mrs. Elmer Erlei for the lesson on color in the home. Mrs. Erlei was assisted in the presentation by Mrs. Jack Brandon of the Fairhaven

HONORED — Thelma Bender has been named Dunsuir's Woman of the Year by that community's Business and Professional Women's Club.

BPW Makes Year Award

DUNSMUIR—Thelma Bender has been announced as Dunsuir's Woman of the Year. The choice was told by Grace Pickthorn, president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, at a tea at the home of Eleanor Harrison. The honored recipient is currently vacationing in Colorado and Missouri and was unable to receive the recognition in person.

Mrs. Bender recently retired as manager of the California Department of Employment office in Dunsuir after serving 27 years.

Mrs. Pickthorn also praised Mrs. Bender for her work as secretary-treasurer of the Dunsuir Recreation District since its beginning in 1946.

Mrs. Bender is active in many other community and church activities which she will continue during her retirement. She is the mother of two daughters and has eight grandchildren.
