

AT THE RECEPTION — Mr. and Mrs. David Richards Cooper cut the wedding cake following their recent marriage in Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Cooper is the former Karen Elizabeth Jensen of that city. They will reside in Medford.

Cooper-Jensen Vows Exchanged In Vancouver

The marriage of Karen Elizabeth Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving A. Jensen, Vancouver, Wash., and David Richards Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. L. Cooper, Klamath Falls, was solemnized Sept. 7 at the First Presbyterian Church in Vancouver. The Rev. John F. Phipps officiated.

Mrs. L. C. Barton was the organist and Laura Howells, Portland, sorority sister of the bride, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of French faille designed with fitted, scoop-necked bodice and belted skirt. A band of crystal embroidery encircled the waist and another extended from the waist to the hemline. Unpressed back pleats formed a full, chapel train. A pillbox hat topped by a bow of French faille encrusted with crystals held the bouffant shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was a teardrop arrangement of gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Murlin F. Weibel, Portland, was matron of honor for her sister and Sharon Louise Walker was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Katherine Cooper and Mary Carol Cooper, Klamath Falls, sisters of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Raymond W. Stephens and Mrs. Thomas Mears, both of Seattle.

They were dressed alike in bell-skirted frocks of tangerine delustered satin fashioned with elbow sleeves and bateau necklines coming to V's in back. All wore matching tangerine beaded necklaces of tulle caught by flat bows and carried semi-casades of white Fuji chrysanthemums and ferns.

Best man was Robert Backstrom, Portland, fraternity brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Donald Ebert, Willard Mears and Monty Vincent, also fraternity brothers. Murlin F. Weibel, all of Portland, and Charles P. Ochs, Klamath Falls. The wedding reception was held at Royal Oaks Country

Givan-McNicholas Vows Are Recited

BONANZA — St. Philip Neri Catholic Church in Portland was the setting for a Nuptial Mass Saturday, Oct. 12, at 9:30 a.m., that united in marriage Kathleen McNicholas and Patrick Givan.

The bride is a graduate of the Sisters of Charity School of Nursing in Helena, Mont., and will receive her bachelor of science degree from the University of Oregon in December. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin McNicholas of Anacosta, Mont. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Givan, Bonanza, are parents of the bridegroom, who is a graduate of Bonanza High School, former student at Oregon State University and present manager of National Car Rentals, Eugene.

The Rev. James Barry, officiated at the Nuptial Mass. The bride was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her father.

The soloist was William McNicholas, cousin of the bride. In the background of the altar were baskets of yellow and bronze colored fall flowers, illuminated with candlelight from white tapers in the altar candelabra.

The wedding party included the matron of honor, Mrs. Timothy Murphy, and bridesmaids Julie McNicholas, sister of the bride, and Patricia Beatty. Flower girls were Cynthia Quane and Charmaine McNicholas.

Gordon Givan, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Groomsman were Arthur McFadden, Corvallis, and Vernon Haley, Portland. Ushers were Martin Sells, Prineville, and Gregory and Bryan McNicholas, brothers of the bride, Anacosta.

For her going away outfit the new Mrs. Givan chose a royal blue suit, with matching accessories and a white corsage. After a wedding trip to San Francisco, the couple's first home will be at 306 Willamette Street, Eugene.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie, with a bouffant bell-shaped skirt and fitted bodice. Her circular veil was waist length, attached to a lace cap set with pearls. The bridal bouquet was an arrangement of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor wore a floor length bronze colored taffeta dress. The bridesmaids' gowns were of pink brown taffeta and the flower girls wore full length amber taffeta dresses. All attendants carried bouquets of gold and bronze fall flowers.

The bride's mother chose a wool suit of medium blue with gold accessories and a gold orchid corsage. Mrs. Givan wore a suit of royal blue with matching accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

At a reception at the Mayfair Restaurant, classmates of the bride assisted. Peggy Zacha served the champagne punch and Patricia Buxton the wedding cake. Mrs. Philip D. Davidson poured coffee and Connamara McNicholas passed the guest book.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Quane and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Q. Hogan, Richland, Wash., Mrs. Philip D. Davidson and Mary Anne, Bellevue, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. William Cannon, Missoula, Mont., Mr. and Mrs. Larry Friar, Sutter, Calif., Joanne Hynes, Chico State College.

Among those serving at the reception were the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Delaine L. Luft of Santa Clara, Calif.

The new Mrs. Cooper chose for her going away outfit a camel boucle suit with brown trim topped with a camel's hair coat. Her accessories were candy brown and at her shoulder was the stephanotis corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Cooper was graduated last spring from University of Oregon where she was a member of Delta Gamma sorority. The bridegroom, a 1962 graduate of Lewis and Clark College, is affiliated with Theta Chi fraternity.

The newlyweds will make their home in Medford.

Present for the marriage of his grandson was James G. Cooper of Klamath Falls.

Czech Club

MALIN — The Czech Ladies Club met Oct. 17, at the home of Mrs. Mildred Rajnus.

The afternoon was spent playing games and visiting. Prize recipients were Ann Hartlerode, Rose Baley, Emma Wilde and Mildred Dobry.

Others enjoying the afternoon affair were Anna Polivka, Ella Halousek, Elizabeth Paygr, Blanche Oliva, Agnes Drazil, Martha Brothunek and Elizabeth Slezak.

There will be no party in the month of November. Rose Baley and Elizabeth Slezak will host the Christmas party Dec. 8, at the Malin Community Hall.

RECENTLY WED — Mr. and Mrs. Larry R. Phillips were married in Calvary Baptist Church in Los Gatos, the home of the bride, the former Darali Sue Gibson.

Couple Wed In Los Gatos

In a recent double ring ceremony in Los Gatos, Calif., Darali Sue Gibson of that city became the bride of Larry R. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo D. Phillips of Klamath Falls.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riley R. Gibson. The Rev. Blaine Bishop officiated in the Calvary Baptist Church.

The bride wore a traditional wedding gown styled with a Chantilly lace bodice, Sabrina neckline and bouffant organza skirt and chapel train enhanced with appliques of large lace roses with organza bows at the stems. A mantilla-type veil bordered with Chantilly lace was secured by a crown of seed pearls and crystals. Gayle Winters, San Jose, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Carolyn Drum, El Centro, and Peggy McKee, Los Gatos.

Jim Phillips was best man for his brother. Ushers were Carl Whitaker, Steven King, Douglas Walker and Mark Jennings. Before leaving on their wedding trip, the young couple greeted their guests at a reception in the Brown social room of the church.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are now making their home at Siloam Springs, Ark., where they will continue their studies at John Brown University. Mrs. Phillips is majoring in primary education and her husband in business and radio production.

Attending the wedding from Klamath Falls were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Phillips and daughter, Shirley, and Mrs. Ruth Barnwell and daughters, Doris and Donna. A former Klamath Falls resident now living in San Jose, Mrs. Carl Whitaker, was also present.

Decorating for the carnival party were Jess Miles, Mrs. Sid Munnerlyn and upper grade pupils. Mrs. McAllister headed food concession arrangements and was assisted by Mrs. Floyd Branch, Mrs. Bill Hamilton, Mrs. G. R. Boatwright and Mrs. Bud Parks.

Entertainment booths were cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cater, Coy Amacker, Ora Dutcher, Marion Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rice, Mrs. Charles Bantier, Mrs. Rolland Mallory, Mrs. Freda Thayer, Mrs. Jack Gillette, Mrs. Bob Bruce and Mrs. Virgil Hall.

Bill Parks served as banker, with Jeanne Webber assisting. Merchants from Lakeview, Bend, Silver Lake and Christmas Valley provided prizes for the occasion.
