

Tulelake Honkers Raise Record With 19-0 Win

The Tulelake Honkers extended their record to 5-3 Friday night at home by downing Butte Valley of Dorris, 19-0.

The Honkers tallied in the second period and added single touchdowns in the third and fourth chapters to insure the victory.

Butte Valley punts as the visitors ended with a 15-yard punt average and had one blocked by Robert Duran.

Next weekend the Honkers end the season hosting Etna.

Scoring (by quarters):

Butte Valley 0 0 0 0-0
Tulelake 0 6 6 7-19

Tulelake TDs: Tatum (27-yard pass from Slezak); Kreizenbeck (1-yard sneak); Mauch (3-yard run); PAT: Kreizenbeck (run).

Weed Takes Win Over Mt. Shasta

Weed fought off a determined Mount Shasta eleven Friday night to post an 18-13 triumph.

The visitors tallied first in the contest as a 65-yard drive was capped when Richard Van Dyke scored from the one.

It was Hildreth going on the longest gainer of the drive—a 20-yard scamper.

Weed close out its scoring in the fourth period as Hildreth rambled 45 yards to set up the score, with Ira Fair scoring from the eight.

Weed came back in the first quarter to knot the score, when an 80-yard drive in 13 plays was climaxed as Omri Hildreth scored from the one-yard line.

Mount Shasta tallied its final score in the last period also as Charley Berinassa ended a 40-yard drive by scoring from the six.

It was a pass from Larry Blankenship to Hildreth good for 20 yards setting up the score on the Mount Shasta 20.

Scoring (by quarters):
Mount Shasta 6 0 0 7-13
Weed 6 6 0 6-18

Mount Shasta TDs: Van Dyke (1-yard run); Berinassa (6-yard run); PAT: Van Dyke (run).

Weed TDs: Omri Hildreth 2 (3 and 1-yard runs); Ira Fair (8-yard run).

San Diego, Western leader, met the Jets in a game at New York Saturday night. A Jet victory could make the races in both divisions tighter than the laces on a paratrooper's boots.

Oakland Tries Chiefs In AFL; Boston Routs Houston, 45-3

By United Press International
Oakland's sputtering offense, newly generated by crashing Clem Daniels, has an ironman task of moving down Kansas City twice in six days to close ranks in the Western Division race in the American Football League.

Division. Each club has won five and lost four.

Quarterback Babe Parilli's tv touchdown scampers and his 76-yard scoring strike to Larry Garrison dried up Oiler chances of retaining sole possession of the section lead.

Oakland won its first two games and then suddenly slumped by losing the next four.

But with Daniels recovered from a leg bruise which limited his action during the slide, the Raiders thrust their way past New York and San Diego to even their record at 4-4.

Daniels penetrated the Red defense for 200 yards on the ground and added 125 in the Charger upset to take over the league rushing lead with 522 yards.

Denver (2-4-1) relies on Big Billy Joe and Donnie Stone for its ground work and a Mickey Slaughter to Lionel Taylor combo for aerial yardage.

Unbeaten Pendleton and Parkrose scored their eighth wins of the season to win league titles and berths in the Oregon high school Class A-1 football playoffs Friday night.

The Generals from Portland walked off with the Class A-1 title despite an individual victory by Kishpaugh. Reedsport and its top runner, Gene Faircloth, each collected their consecutive titles.

Pendleton, ranked fourth in the Oregon Journal poll, rolled over Baker 46-14 at Baker to capture the Intermountain League championship. Parkrose rated ninth, walloped Scappoose 40-0 at Parkrose to gain the Wilco League title.

Kishpaugh finished about 15 yards in front of Steve Hetzler of Wilson. Gerald Brown of Ashland was third, followed by Mike Crunican, Roseburg; Steve Bingham, Marshall, and Lou Sugere, Marshall.

Fifth-ranked Grant gained a tie for the Portland Interscholastic League championship and a berth in the playoffs by defeating Madison 14-7 at Madison in Portland. Eighth-rated Beaverton clinched a tie for the Metropolitan League crown and a probable spot in the playoffs by topping Clackamas 14-6 at Clackamas.

Grant's top man was Ron Byers, who finished 10th.

never weak." And few could dispute that.

SENIOR VETERAN — Returning from last year's Pelican cage squad is Lanny Guyer, a 5-9 backcourt man who is expected to be one of the mainstays of the Pel basketball club in the upcoming year. Guyer and 6-4 Terry Ash are the lone returning lettermen for the Pels.

The initial turnout—minus the football and cross-country athletes—numbered six seniors, 15 juniors and 37 sophomores.

Counted to push these players for spots on the varsity are three juniors with size in 6-0 Jim Drew, 6-1 Jack Bauer, 6-1 Jim Patzke and 6-2 John Jendzejewski.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

PA System Brings Shudders... And while speaking of Oregon Tech, the public address problem at the Owl-Oregon College homecoming game cannot be overlooked.

While the candidates for queen and their escorts were assembled on the 60-yard line the PA system went into action. While it did, Oregon Tech people shuddered.

It wasn't working properly, the volume was way low and no one could hear.

Certainly not an endorsement for the school's radio technical division.

However, the school was taken off the hook by KU officials: The faulty system belonged to KU...
