

YOUTH HONORED — The Klamath Falls Kiwanis Club honored two KUHS girls at its Thursday noon luncheon, naming them for "youth of the month" honors. Left to right, Rev. Warren Pechman, Hope Lutheran Church, who introduced Mary Voss as "Church Youth of the Month," and Vicki Lake was introduced by Frank Tomjic as "Youth of the Month." Both are monthly awards by the club, recognizing community youth for their activities.

G. Milligan Selected By Alumni

Gene Milligan of Klamath Falls has been elected president of the Oregon Technical Institute Alumni Association.

His election came during the association's annual business meeting in connection with the OTI Homecoming.

All of the other officers are also from Klamath Falls. They are David Molatore, vice president; Mary Milligan, secretary-treasurer; and Roger Thompson and Pele Benham, directors. Bill Glodowski of Klamath Falls is the past president.

Don and Judy Prather of Palo Alto, Calif., won the prize for coming the longest distance to the meeting. Mrs. Prather is the former Judy Ferrell of Klamath Falls.

Sen. Engle Better Now

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Clair Engle, D-Calif., under treatment at the Bethesda, Md., Navy medical center for a brain tumor, has recovered sufficiently to spend weekends at home.

Sen. Stephen M. Young, a personal friend, said Engle had spent last weekend at his Washington home and also expected him to go there this weekend. At the Navy hospital, officials declined either to confirm or deny that Engle had either been released or allowed to go home for the weekend.

The Ohio Democrat said Engle's doctors had been "extremely pleased" with his progress.

Kiwanians Honor Two KU Students

A freshman and a senior at KUHS, both girls, were honored Thursday noon by the Klamath Falls Kiwanis Club.

Vicki Lake, a freshman and fourth vice president of the KUHS class, was named as "Youth of the Month." Her father, C. R. Lake, is an instructor at OTI.

Guilty Plea Entered By Hoover

Raymond Hoover pleaded guilty Friday morning in circuit court to a charge of auto theft and will be sentenced Monday.

Hoover was apprehended in Reno, Nev., last February on a warrant from Klamath County. He attempted to commit suicide while being held in Reno.

After his original arrest on the auto theft charge he jumped bail and wasn't apprehended again until Reno.

Hoover, 36, is from Chiloquin. Also to be sentenced Monday is John Wesley Dean who was convicted Thursday of second-degree murder in the stabbing of his brother.

In other court action Friday, Judge Donald A. W. Piper sentenced Clayton Spencer Schultz to a term of not more than three years in the state penitentiary. He was convicted Tuesday of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Famed Party Hostess Elsa Maxwell Dies Of Heart Ailment At Age Of 80

NEW YORK (UPI) — Elsa Maxwell, 80, one of the most colorful figures in international society and among the world's best-known party givers for four decades, died in a hospital late Friday of an apparent heart ailment.

Miss Maxwell, a short, round woman, made her last public appearance a week ago in a wheelchair at the April in Paris Ball, an annual society affair in Manhattan which she founded in 1951.

She was taken from her suite in the Hotel Delmonico to the hospital on Thursday for treatment of heart disease. Death came at 5:40 p.m. EST.

Miss Maxwell was born in Keokuk, Iowa, on May 24, 1883, to an insurance salesman of moderate means and his wife.

She was reared in San Francisco, where she quit school at age 14.

Her rise to society heights was something of a mystery.

A spinster, Miss Maxwell became society's most prominent chronicler who counted among her friends and intimates royalty, statesmen and the famed from many other walks of life.

In her autobiography, she wrote: "I am recognized as the arbiter of international society and the most famous hostess in the world. I have entertained more royalty than any other untitled hostess."

And she once said: "I have more friends than any other living person. They are my riches."

Miss Maxwell, a controversial person whose social judgments won her as many enemies as friends, was not without rivals as "the" party thrower for society.

But the rivals respected her, and one of them, "the hostess with the mostest," mourned her death. In Washington, Perle Mesta, the famous party giver, said:

"I think she was a great hostess. There won't be another Elsa Maxwell in this era. She was a type of her own. She was amusing and a good friend."

Accidents Kill Four

By United Press International Accidents claimed four lives in Oregon Friday. There were two traffic deaths, a hunting fatality and a logging death.

Madge Laney, 44, Klamath Falls, was struck and killed by a car on State Highway 29 about 10 miles south of Klamath Falls.

State police said she was crossing the highway when she was hit by a vehicle driven by Elmer Frisvold, 32, Tulelake, Calif.

Michael Latendresse, 17, Medford, died in a one-car accident in Medford. City police said the St. Mary's High School student was a passenger in a car driven by Stephen Erb, 17, Medford, which went out of control, hit several mail boxes and struck a utility pole. Erb was injured.

Sanford Nance, 51, Portland, was shot and killed while elk hunting about 40 miles northeast of John Day near the community of Granite. He was the state's 18th hunting season fatality.

State police were investigating but have been unable to determine who fired the fatal shot.

Floyd Ferguson of John Day, an employee of the San Juan Lumber Co., died when a falling tree struck the eab of a truck he was operating about 20 miles north of John Day near the community of Tinker Creek.

In addition, Grace A. Drump, 55, Grants Pass, died of a heart attack Thursday after hunting elk 35 miles east of John Day.

Unemployment Rate Here Slightly Over State Mark

The unemployment rate in the Klamath Falls area stood at 2.6 per cent for the week ending Oct. 24, the state Department of Employment has reported.

This was two-tenths of one per cent over the state average of 2.4 per cent. The state rate was up compared to a month previous, but down 26 per cent over the same period last year. The 2.6 per cent rate in Klamath Falls is down 30.2 per cent over the same period last year.

The lowest rate in the state was noted in Baker, with one per cent, and the highest was in The Dalles, with 6.3 per cent.

Lakeview had one of the biggest declines in unemployment over the same period last year, having dropped by 72.7 per cent. This was topped only by Ontario with a 74.7 per cent drop.
