'Losingest' Mets Hurler Roger Craig Goes To St. Louis Cards For Altman, Wakefield

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Roger Craig, "losingest" pitcher with the New York Mets, was in the St. Louis Cardinal camp today with the chance of a lifetime to hit the win column with regularity.

"It's one of the best things to happen to me since I've been in baseball," said the 32-year-old 190-pound Craig.

The Mets and the Cards Monday announced the trade which will put Craig in a Red Bird uniform and send disappointing 29-year-old outfielder George Altman, and rookie pitcher Bill Wakefield to New York.

The big trade gives General Manager Bing Devine a come-back try from the sour trade involving Altman one year ago.

Devine brought the lefthanded power-hitter Altman to St. Louis from the Chicago Cubs, giving up pitchers Larry Jackson and Lindy McDaniel. As the season progressed the Cards showed they needed pitchers, not outfielders.

Had 93 Strikeouts

Altman had 93 strikeouts against him. He had 18 doubles and seven triples and nine home runs, hitting .242 against lefthanders and .282 against righthanders.

Devine said big George "had an off-year. . .but it wasn't that bad."

"I want to stress that disposing of Altman in no way reflects dissatisfaction with his contribution to the club," Devine said.

Even with Stan (The Man) Musial gone as a player, Manager Johnny Keane and Devine agreed that the club found it more "desirable" to add a pitcher and give one of the many young Cardinal outfielders on the roster a crack at Musial's job, and the one now vacated by Altman.

The Mets apparently took a good look at 22-year-old right-hander Wakefield who had signed with the Cards for a $35,000 bonus. Wakefield, of Kansas City, is a student at Stanford. He had a 3-7 record at Tulsa and a 1-3 mark at Atlanta the past season.

The Cardinals had tried to get Craig during the past baseball season, but when the two clubs couldn't come to terms, Devine worked a trade with the Milwaukee Braves for Lew Burdette.

Seek Stability

"Craig gives us stability and maneuverability in our pitching," said Devine.

Craig showed a 49-38 record with the Dodgers before moving to the Mets in the 1961 expansion draft. He turned in a 10-24 mark in 1962, and dropped to a 5-22 record in 1963, including the near-record losing streak of 18 games. In eight of Craig's losses, New York was whitewashed, and he lost four 1-0 decisions.

Craig, at his Lakewood, Calif., home said, "This gives me an opportunity to show I can still be a winning pitcher with a little more support.

"I got a little worried about my ability along the way last season when I lost so many in a row," he said. "I know I'm a better pitcher than that."

COAST FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — Coach Jim Owens of the University of Washington Huskies doesn't believe in letting his team, which upset Southern California last week, rest on its laurels.

He had the Huskies concentrating on offense during a light workout inside the pavilion Monday night. The Washington team, now tabbed as favorite to win the Big Six championship, plays the University of California Bears Saturday.

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI) — The Washington State Cougars, fresh from a victory over highly-rated Idaho, put in 90 minutes of drill and contact work Monday in preparation for Saturday's game against the University of Oregon.

Coach Jim Sutherland said his troops should work out their sore muscles and stiff arms in time to be at full strength for the homecoming encounter with the Ducks.

MOSCOW, Idaho (UPI)—Coach Dee Andros of the University of Idaho Vandals says his team will be "more reckless" in its encounter with the University of Arizona this weekend.

Andros, who ran his team through dummy drills Monday, said Idaho's 14-10 loss to Washington State last weekend was a result of being "overly cautious in the first half."

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—The Oregon State Beavers return to full-scale practice today, with concentration on defense in preparation for Saturday's battle with Indiana at Bloomington.

Coach Tommy Prothro said defensive halfback Dan Seig was a doubtful starter against the Hoosiers, but halfback Cliff Watkins, end Scott Miller and guard Ron Dowman should be ready for action. All four were injured in last week's 10-7 victory over Stanford.

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Coach Len Casanova expects a tough battle when he takes his University of Oregon Ducks to Pullman Saturday to face the Washington State Cougars, because both teams have something in common.

Both teams lost close decisions to San Jose State, but Casanova warned his troops that time is on the side of the Cougars. They lost to the Spartans early this season and bounced back to beat highly-rated Idaho last week, while the Ducks were losing to San Jose.

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — The University of California Bears returned to full-scale practice today, confident that they can knock the Washington Huskies off the top rung in the Big Six standings when the two teams meet Saturday.

The Bears walloped UCLA 25-0 last weekend, and coach Marv Levy figures they'll be able to carry their momentum against the Huskies.

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI)—The San Jose State Spartans held a rugged practice session today in preparation for what they think will be their fourth "upset" of the season—this time against Arizona State University.

Coach Bob Titchenal's troops have been underdogs in every game this season, but hold victories over Washington State, Kansas State and the University of Oregon.

Huskies' Guard Tops

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Koll Hagen, a recently naturalized native of Norway who excels in both skiing and football at the University of Washington, was named Big Six "Lineman of the Week" today for his part in the Huskies' victory over Southern California last Saturday.

Hagen, who has been injured part of the season, made seven tackles from his right guard position and blocked a Trojan punt and recovered it in the end zone for the first score of Washington's 22-7 upset victory.

Top Honors To Hergert

PORTLAND (UPI) — The Portland Linebackers Monday named Lewis and Clark's Mickey Hergert as "Player of the Week."

Hergert was cited by Oregon's sportswriters and sportscasters for his ground play and standout defensive performance in last weekend's clash with Whitman.

The Pioneer's rolled over the Walla Walla school 40-0.

Receiving honorable mention were Dave Quinlan of Lewis and Clark, Dan Sieg, Dick Ruhl, Len Frketich and Ron Doman of Oregon State, and Lu Bain of Oregon.

BULL TO RETURN

CHICAGO (UPI) — Halfback Ronnie Bull, who bruised his leg against Baltimore Sunday, is expected to be back in the lineup next Sunday when the Chicago Bears play Los Angeles. X-rays taken Monday showed that there was no fracture.

SEEKS DEFENSIVE BOOST

NEW YORK (UPI) — Coach Weeb Ewbank will hope to give his New York Jets' defensive unit a boost by elevating linebacker Ted Bates and corner back Marshall Starks to starting roles for next Sunday's game against the Houston Oilers.

Ewbank was outspokenly critical of the Jets' pass defense in their 53-7 American Football League loss to San Diego last Saturday.

Tribe 'Defeats' USC Trojans On Ralston's Arithmetic Work

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Now that the University of Southern California Trojans are down, everybody wants to kick them.

Coach John Ralston of Stanford, ever optimistic even in defeat, went out on the limb today to say that his club could lick the Trojans.

The two teams tangle Saturday in Los Angeles—USC fresh from a 22-7 lacing at the hands of Washington; the Indians just crawling out from under a 10-7 stinging from Oregon State.

"We are in good condition," said Ralston. "And I feel we can win from the Trojans.

Blames Himself

"Our boys will be up mentally for that game, I'm sure. I feel that we were not in the proper mental frame of mind for the Oregon State game. And that was my fault.

"I was extremely disappointed in the loss. We just couldn't seem to get a drive going that carried past their 30 yard line.

"But we could bounce back. Our letdown after the victory over Notre Dame possibly was natural. We'll have no trouble getting 'up' for Southern California."

Even with the loss of quarterback Pete Beathard, USC is expected to be favored by a touchdown over the Indians. However, on comparative scores, that doesn't stand up.

Some Arithmetic

Notre Dame beat USC by three points, and Stanford beat the Irish by 10. So on that basis, the Indians should be 13 points better. Or — Washington beat USC by 15 points and whipped Stanford by "only" eight — a difference of seven points in favor of the Indians.

Despite his belief the Indians can win, Ralston still thinks the Trojans have quite a football team.

"Against Ohio State, whom they beat 32-3, USC was as fine a football team as ever assembled," said Ralston. "We catch them after a disappointing game. So we don't know how they will rebound."

Ralston said that the Oregon State team that defeated his club was real quick and tough.

"Our Steve Thurlow continues to improve and played an exceptional game from his half-back position," said Ralston. "And our line was strong in the second half. We came out of the game with no injuries. We'll be ready for the Trojans."

Defense Attention For 49ers

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UPI) — Coach Jack Christiansen of the San Francisco Forty Niners said today he would concentrate on pass rush and pass defense this week as his team prepared to host Dallas this Sunday.

These were the major weaknesses last Sunday when Detroit ran roughshod over the local eleven, 45-7.

Defensive back Kermit Alexander, who futilely attempted to guard Detroit's Terry Barr, sustained an ankle sprain for his efforts but is expected to be ready by next Sunday.

Alexander was repeatedly outfaked by Barr and the rest of the secondary also looked sieve-like as the hot-and-cold Detroit quarterback Earl Morrall hit 24 passes for 330 yards.

But Christiansen said today that the defensive line must share in the blame for failing to put enough pressure on the passer. As the young coach said about rushing a quarterback, "You've got to worry him, knock him down once in a while, and cause him to throw before he's ready. We'll work on that."
