Art Memberships Offer Advantages

The Klamath Falls Art Association is currently conducting its membership drive and this year encourages young artists in the city to join so that some of their outstanding work may be exhibited at Maple Park Gallery.

A better and larger cultural art center for Klamath Falls is the aim of the Klamath Falls Art Association. Through membership in the association, members will be in touch with the well known artists, local or visiting.

PINOCHLE PARTY

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Mae Gale entertained with a pinochle party at her home the afternoon of Oct. 17. Guests were Mrs. Don Rice and Mrs. Lester Jones, Dairy; Mrs. Florence Horn, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Bonanza; Mrs. Amy Johnson of Carmichael, Mrs. Sanford Jones, Mrs. Eeva Adams, Mrs. Wes Dearborn and Mrs. John Sullivan, Langell Valley.

Memberships for a student or child are now available for $5 and a regular membership for $7.50. Donor memberships are $10 and for patrons, $25. A life membership for $125 may be given by anyone interested in helping the Klamath Art Association but not wishing to participate actively.

Members emphasize that it is not necessary to be an artist to join the association. Anyone wishing a membership or further information may contact Doris Johnson, TU 4-3570 or write Klamath Art Association, Box 935.

WINDOW PANES

If the northwind makes your window rattle late at night and awakens you, stuff a cleansing tissue into the loose spot with a hairpin. First thing in the morning, get the window fixed properly.

Mrs. M. B. Fenton and Mrs. Gene Ramsey.

Following the installation, refreshments were served in the dining room which was decorated with yellow and bronze flowers by Joan and Joyce Mullanix with yellow and bronze flowers grown in their 4-H gardens.

A four tiered white cake was trimmed with yellow roses, gold and silver leaves. A small white dove and open Bible topped the confection which was made and decorated by Mrs. Paul Mullanix.

Dancing followed refreshments.

SF Couple Greet Son

Receiving congratulations on the birth of their first child are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meyers of San Francisco. Their son was born Oct. 30 in the Bay city. He weighed six pounds, three ounces and has been named Eric.

The young man's mother is the former Elise Nitschelm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A.

Nitschelm, Klamath Falls, who now count four grandchildren.

Mrs. Helen Meyers of Salem is the paternal grandmother to the new arrival.

Medford Play Season Opens

The Broadway Theater League of Medford will present the first play of the season Wednesday, Nov. 13, when John Ireland will appear in the starring role in "A Thousand Clowns."

The well-known movie actor will play the role of an oddball TV writer who is uninhibited, undisciplined and unemployed, and who sees the world as a circus with a thousand clowns.

Also appearing will be Donald Barry, Nancy Douglas, Robert Alvin, Gregg Weir and Sidney Rayder.

The comedy, which ran on Broadway for 33 weeks and 429 performances, is directed by Porter Van Zandt, with settings, costumes and lighting by Philip Rosenberg.

"The Thousand Clowns" will be presented in the Holly Theater with curtain time at 8:15 p.m.

The remaining plays of the season are "A Man For All Seasons" on Dec. 6; "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" on March 6, and "Lady Audley's Secret" on March 23.

Memberships for the season of plays are still available. Those interested should call Mrs. Lon Skinner, 772-8913 in Medford.
