Liston Faces License Problems If California Ring Site Sought

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A California boxing official warned Los Angeles promoters Wednesday they may be wasting their time in attempting to obtain the Sonny Liston-Cassius Clay heavyweight fight.

Sol Silverman, chairman of the Governor's Committee for Safeguards in Professional Boxing, pointed out that Liston does not have a license to fight in either California or New York — and that both states "are as one" in their opposition to mismatches.

And Liston may have trouble getting a license in California, Silverman said he recently received a letter from Chairman Hayward Plumadore of the New York Joint Legislative Committee stating that his group would "like to hear Mr. Liston state under oath that he has severed all connections with criminal elements."

Fears Grave Injuries

"And I'm sure our California Athletic Commission, with a fine sensitivity to its responsibilities, and the desire to promote safeguards in boxing, shares New York's urge," he said.

Silverman also expressed doubt about the wisdom of matching the cocky, talkative Clay against the heavy weight champion, who does his talking with hamlike fists in a cold, crushing style.

"If Liston displays the same ferocity against Clay as he did against (former champion Floyd) Patterson, the fight could result in their meeting," he said.

And if the champion "carries" Clay, Silverman said boxing would be "further degraded and the public disgustingly defrauded."

"Boxing cannot stand a setback like this . . ." he said. "Promoters should be aware of the long range pull and not take shortcuts to big gates."

Silverman said no boxing critic or pugilistic expert has commended the Clay-Liston match as a contest of equal gladiators — and many have spoken out against it.

Says Clay Not Ready

"Let Clay or Liston or their promoters name one former heavyweight champion among the eleven now living, who regards Clay as being ready for Liston, despite Clay's potential as a champion," Silverman said.

"Not even Joe Louis, now negotiating for the promotion of the match in Los Angeles, thinks Clay has any chance against Liston," he added.

Louis and promoter George Parnassus both have made bids to stage the bout in Los Angeles.

Silverman said that Clay, already listed as a 4¹/₂ underdog, might well point to the Jimmy Braddock-Max Baer fight of 1935. Braddock won the title, although Baer was a 10 to 1 favorite.

"But Clay should be reminded that Sonny Liston is a 'bear' — an only bear, as he (Clay) says — and not a clown in the ring," Silverman said.

Fight Backers Toy With Large Offers

DENVER (UPI) — Backers of world heavyweight champion Sonny Liston and challenger Cassius Clay were weighing offers today ranging up to $12 million to stage their title fight next February.

Denver promoter and restaurant owner Milt Willner announced Wednesday he had formed a syndicate to offer $12 million to hold the bout "in Denver or other places." Earlier, three $1 million offers were made — two from Los Angeles interests and one from Miami Lesser bids have been made from Chicago, Las Vegas and Minneapolis.

Willner said Sheldon Wolfman, owner of Pal Joe's restaurant in New York, was a principal member of the syndicate. He did not name any others.

"We mean business and are prepared to put a half million dollars on deposit right now," Willner said.

Liston and Clay signed Tuesday for a 15-round fight, to be held tentatively in February. The site and exact date were not determined.

The Name's The Thing In New All-American Team Selections

By ALEX KAHN
UPI Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — How would the Weathermen's All America team fare against the Pedestrians' eleven or could the Birdwatchers' squad defeat the Epicures?

At this time of the year when attention is focused on selection of candidates for All America honors, the Helms Athletic Foundation in a spirit of fun today came up with 22 teams picked only because of name associations.

The Weathermen's team is composed of Fair of Syracuse and Sprinkle of Cornell at ends, Frost of Oklahoma and Clear of Virginia Tech at tackles, Cool of La Verne and Freeze of Indiana State at guards and Blizzard of Western Maryland at center. The backfield is made up of Rains of Oklahoma at quarterback, Winter of New Hampshire and Snow of Cal Poly at halfbacks and Storm of San Fernando State at fullback. The coach is Cooley of Leligh.

The Pedestrians' team: Ends, Tramp of South Dakota State and Pace of Detroit; tackles, Walk of Connecticut and Stepp of Kansas; guards, Rush of Purdue and March of Lafayette; center, Chase of Purdue; quarterback, Budge of Utah State; halfbacks, Running of Oklahoma and Wade of North Texas State. Coach, Walker, Central State.

If the Birdwatchers team met the Epicures squad the lineup might be:

Birdwatchers: E. Eagle, Frank & Marsh; E. Bandy, Redlands; T. Wing, Colo St.

Coll: T. Crane, Cal Poly (Pom.); G. Bird, Alabama; G. Falcon, Columbia; C. Stock, Cal Poly (So.); QB, Craven, Pasadena Coll.; HB, Peacock, Richmond; HB, Crow, Southern Calif.; FB, Tweet, California; Coach: Dove, Hiram.

Epicures: E. Egge, Puget Sound; E. Bean, Utah; T. Trout, Miami (Ohio); T. Limas, Omaha; G. Rice, LSU; G. Ham, S. W. Texas St.; C. Chew, Dayton; QB, Custardo, Illinois; HB, Meats, Kansas St.; HB, Lamb, Rutgers; FB, Bacon, Kansas; Coach: Rice, Eau Claire St.

Lead Held By Germans

NEW YORK (UPI) — Germany has opened a 10-point lead over Canada after three international jumping events in the New York National Horse Show.

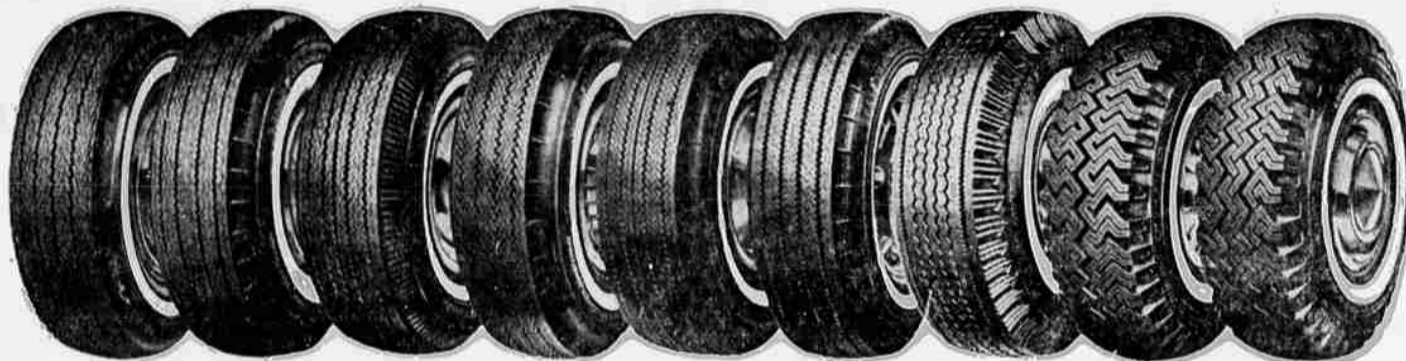

The Germans increased their point total to 35 by winning the Murray Trophy Wednesday night, Canada, which finished second, now has 25, followed by Argentina (8), Ireland (7) and the United States, which dominated the previous two indoor shows this season, 1 a s t with 2.

In Wednesday night's event, Germany's three riders — Kurt Jarsinski, Hermann Schridde and Alvin Schockemoesle — turned in perfect rides over the nine-obstacle course. So did Canada's three riders — Gail Ross, Mel Stone and Tom Gayford.
