

Local Wrestling Card Bills 601-Pound Haystack Calhoun

He's not from Cut 'n' Shoot, Tex., and he's not a boxer. The hometown is Morgan's Corner, Ark., and he's billed as the world's largest wrestler. He goes under the name of Haystack Calhoun and the first name appears more than appears. His 6-4 frame is compounded with a weight of 601 pounds—give or take—and Klamath Falls mat fans will see him in action locally Wednesday night, Nov. 13, at the auditorium. Haystack lays claim to being the world's largest wrestler and to date no one has come forward to dispute this. The appearance of this giant in the local ring highlights a night of mat activity which will include a big "over-the-top" battle royal and three supporting bouts. In the battle royal, Haystack will place his 600-plus pounds in the ring against Soldat Gorky Gil Ane, Nick Kozak, Abe Jacobs and popular longtime Klamath Falls wrestler Buck Davidson. A $300 purse awaits the winner of this action.

In the top preliminary bout, the bearded Russian Gorky will tangle with the classy Canadian Nick Kozak. Both men are well-known in the Klamath Falls area. Kozak wrestled main events in the recently returned to the Northwest. Kozak is an airplane spin artist, while Gorky is the ruffian who uses the back-breaker to good advantage. In another prelim Haystack will try big Gil Ane, the former college and professional football star. In the opener Davidson and the flashy Jacobs, who hail from New Zealand, will clash. The opening match is slated for 8:30 p.m. and regular prices will be in effect. Tickets for the big night of wrestling are available at Dick Reeder's Men's Store in Klamath Falls.

OSU Rooks Try Pups

SEATTLE (UPI) — The University of Washington freshman football team will be seeking its first victory here today when it clashes with the Oregon State University freshmen. Washington has lost a 22-18 decision to Idaho and was beaten by Oregon 30-6. Oregon State topped the Washington State 14-6 and lost to Oregon's yearlings 8-7. Paul Brothers will call the signals for the OSU Rooks while Jeff Cushman of Everett will direct the Husky Pups.

ON MAT CARD — Haystack Calhoun, at the world's largest wrestling, will highlight the matches slated for the Klamath Falls Auditorium Wednesday night, Nov. 13. Calhoun stands 6-4 and weighs 601 pounds and will be seen in a special "over-the-top" battle royal. The huge wrestler has drawn overflow crowds in each appearance.

"Feed Chamberlain" may soon be the new battle cry of San Francisco's opponents in the National Basketball Association. Until this season, Wilt Chamberlain had been the perennial scoring champion of the NBA, and the Warriors had been perennial also-rans. Now Chamberlain has turned playmaker and San Francisco is suddenly winning with consistency. Take Thursday night, for example. The Warriors coasted to a 110-83 victory over the New York Knicks with Chamberlain scoring just 23 points. That was better than any other player on the team, but only about half of his per-game average of past seasons. The victory was San Francisco's 10th in seven starts this season and moved the Warrior to within a game of pace-setting St. Louis in the Western Division. The Warriors moved into the lead midway through the second period and held a 51-44 halftime advantage. Then, with Chamberlain accounting for six points, the Warriors outscored the Knicks 20-8 during a five-and-one-half-minute burst to open the second half. Guy Rodgers, who generally specializes in assists, had a big night for the Warriors with 17 points. Al Butler and Bill McGill shared scoring honors for the Knicks with 13 each.

San Francisco 49ers Send Same Lineup Against Dallas Cowboys

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UPI) — Coach Jack Christiansen of the San Francisco Forty Niners plans to start exactly the same lineup against Dallas this Sunday that opened last week's debacle against Detroit. The Cowboys, now 2-6 for the season and coming off a 35-20 win over Washington, are four-point favorites over the Forty Niners, who are 1-7 for the campaign.

Christiansen says that Don Meredith of the Cowboys seems much-improved after being handed the starting role. "Meredith had only three touchdown passes in the first six games, but he's thrown seven in the last two." The Forty Niner head man said that he thought the Cowboys might use the shotgun, triple wing, and double wing along with the more standard formations. But he added that with Meredith going most of the way himself, the offense probably will be more simplified than when the coaching staff calls the plays and Meredith and Eddie LeBaron alternate. Hockey League action. Pike had told the Blades to stiffen their defense or face a low shake-ups and they responded with one of their sharpest efforts. Goalie Jack Norris of the Blades blocked 15 tries the first period, but had to block only 22 shots in the final two stanzas. Nevertheless, the game almost went into overtime when Art Jones fired a hard shot with 35 seconds to go and Norris barely made the save. Leo Lalbine scored the other Los Angeles goal.

Chualo Favored

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Left-hooking George Chualo and left-jabbing Tony Alongi, both trying to take a big step along the comeback road, meet tonight in a nationally televised 10-round match at the Miami Beach Convention Hall. Chualo, from Toronto and Detroit and the former Canadian heavyweight champ, was a slight (6-5) favorite before the fight but the odds were shifting closer to even for the 10 p.m. EST bout.
