Memorial Scheduled At Kingsley

Personnel at Kingsley Field and throughout the Air Defense Command will pause this weekend to honor those aircrew members who gave their lives in the past year in maintaining the air defense of the nation. Kingsley Field will observe regular services in the Base Chapel this Sunday, Nov. 10. Father David J. Hazen will conduct Catholic mass at 9 a.m. and Chaplain William A. Thorsen will observe the Protestant service at 11 a.m. The 1963 observance will honor 36 ADC aircrew members lost in aircraft accidents. This includes eight casualties in the 25th Air Division of which one was assigned to Kingsley Field. This was Capt. Harold H. Smith, 322nd Fighter Interceptor Squadron, who died in an aircraft accident on June 17.
