SPEED UP DRESSING
A well-organized closet can help get you out to the office faster on weekday mornings. Have accessories handy in transparent or clearly labeled boxes, and hang your clothes in transparent plastic bags so that they can be easily seen.

PARENTS AND PATRONS

BONANZA—The Bonanza Parents and Patrons met Oct. 23 with Maxine Brown, president, conducting the meeting. Members voted to raise the student loan fund to $200. This fund is available to any Bonanza graduate.

The next meeting is set for Dec. 4 and will be a combination of the November and December sessions. After the short business meeting Francis Skinner presented the 4-H awards. Dorothy Smith and her committee served refreshments.

Engagement Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. David R. Baker, Grants Pass, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sylvia Dee Ann, to John W. McLoughlin, Medford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McLoughlin, Bloomfield, N.J. The future bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Migliaccio of Klamath Falls. She is a graduate of Medford High School and Southern Oregon College and is teaching in Grants Pass in the junior high school.

Her fiancé, graduate of Rutgers University, is an agricultural extension agent for Jackson County. The wedding will take place Dec. 28 in Medford.

MALIN GARDEN CLUB
MALIN—Malin Garden Club met Oct. 23 at the home of Mrs. Joe Halousek, who was assisted by Mrs. Joe Micka. Arrangements of rocks and flowers brought by the members decorated for the meeting. Mrs. M. A. Bowman, Merrill, was a guest.

President Mrs. J. Walter Browning reported on the recent district meeting in Lakeview and Mrs. Robert Holl announced a workshop for Della Robia wreath making on Nov. 13 at the Malin Community Hall. The session will start at 10 a.m. Members are asked to bring a sack lunch.

The first of a series of landscape bulletins issued by Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, district chairman of landscape design, was read.

Other business included an announcement that rules for conservation essays and posters have been placed in schools, and that Mrs. Joe Micka, book chairman, will conduct a sales drive to promote the magazine, "Horticulture." Mrs. Karl Kujac was appointed club representative to attend the local library meeting. Mrs. Harold Kniskern will act as observer for the newly organized Malin Camp Fire group.

Answers Your Insurance Questions

QUESTION: If I drive a borrowed car does my medical payments insurance apply to the people who ride with me?

ANSWER: Yes, if you are driving a car which, under terms of your policy, gives you personal and property damage protection, your medical payments coverage is in force. Take your own policy to a good agent for clarification.
