Peugh - Moore Rites Performed In Glide

The marriage of Helen Ann Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moore, Glide, and Dean Albert Peugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern R. Peugh, this city, was an event of Sept. 14 in the Glide Christian Church, home church of the bride. Loy K. Antrim, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 130 relatives and friends of the couple.

Background for the ceremony was an ivy-covered trellis. In the foreground were sprays of fall leaves and baskets of apricot, yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Guests were seated by George Walker, Klamath Falls, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Jim Smith. Incidental music preceding the ceremony and the wedding marches were played by Mrs. Harold Clawson, Klamath Falls, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Cecil Harris, accompanied by Mrs. Ronald Huff, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was escorted by her brother - in - law, Frank Hayes, to the altar where her father was waiting to give his daughter in marriage. The bridal gown was of white nylon net over white taffeta with an all-over lace bodice and wrist length sleeves. The fingertip veil was held by a rhinestone and pearl tiara. She carried a white Bible topped with white and yellow carnations. For something old and borrowed, she wore a three-strand heirloom pearl necklace. In each slipper was a penny for luck.

Maid of honor for her sister was Fern Moore, dressed in beige satin with organza, ballerina-length overskirt and lace bodice. She carried a nosegay of bronze chrysanthemums. Jane Prowell, cousin of the bride, and Erica Olson, bridesmaids, were dressed the same in apricot shade and carried nosegays of apricot chrysanthemums. All wore white velvet bandeaux with nylon net.

Candlelighters Kathy Walker, niece of the bridegroom, and Ruth Prowell wore yellow frocks made like the bridal attendants. Manfred Lutz, Macdoel, was best man.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Moore, who wore a dress of blue lace over taffeta, matching shoes and sapphire blue hat. Mrs. Peugh chose a blue linen dress with brown accessories. Both mothers had corsages of white orchids.

Decorations in the autumn theme were in charge of Mrs. Ft. P. Blakely, aunt of the bride. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth, crocheted by the bride's father. The four tiered wedding cake was trimmed with white roses and gold leaves. Mrs. Ernest Prowell, aunt of the bride, baked and decorated the cake which she and Mrs. Keith Ireland served.

Assisting were Mrs. Elbert Cellers, Mrs. Ray Holmes, Sharon Medlar, Mrs. Carl Messing, Iona McCord and Janet Anderson. Mrs. Frank Hayes, sister of the bride, attended the guest book.

The new Mrs. Peugh's going away outfit was a beige tweed suit with matching accessories and the yellow carnations from her bridal bouquet. Following a honeymoon to the coast the newlyweds are at home at 5156 Harlan Drive in Klamath Falls, where the bridegroom operates his machine and welding shop.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vern R. Peugh, Mr. and Mrs. George Walker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kaylor, Mrs. Harold Clawson and family and Mrs. Eileen Roberts and daughter, all of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lutz, Mt. Hebron, and Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Lutz, Macdoel.

New Club Is Formed

Faculty wives and women teachers of Henley schools have organized a social group and held two meetings, the second on Oct. 23 in the home economics room of the high school. Hostesses were Marilyn Alter, Mrs. Juliette Robinette, Mrs. Geneva Duncan and Mrs. John Gintner.

Plans for the Christmas party on Dec. 4 were discussed.

TIME TO PLAN — This Juniper Garden Club committee is busy planning the table decorations display scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 16, at the Shasta Grange Hall. All garden clubs of the Klamath District are invited to participate. The committee includes Mrs. W. A. North, seated left, and Mrs. Scott McKendree, right. Standing, same order, Mrs. Dick Cary, Mrs. Jack Holt, Mrs. Lola Van Scoyk, Mrs. Del Malone and Mrs. R. L. Carlson.

Table Decor To Be Shown

With the holiday season fast approaching, the Juniper Garden Club is one of the first groups to stage an affair designed to interest those planning holiday entertaining.

A table decoration display will be shown Saturday, Nov. 16, at the Shasta Grange Hall, Shasta Way and Madison Street. Hours are from 1 to 5 p.m. The public is invited. There is no admission charge, but a silver tea will be served during the afternoon.

The entries are divided into two classes. Section A, for any garden club of the Klamath District, will feature Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner tables.

Section B, for individual entries by garden club members, will also be in a festive mood for a setting of a dinner table, buffet, tea table, breakfast or brunch. Junior displays are to be classed as a teenage buffet or tots party.

Entries are to be sent to Mrs. Jack Holt, 920 Loma Linda Drive.

Rules governing the show are: 1. Advanced entries required by Nov. 14; 2. Entries received from 9 to 11 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 16; 3. One entry in a class; 4. A free hand may be used in the choice of material; 5. The club does not assume responsibility for loss of broken articles, but will exercise utmost care for their protection; 6. Tables will be furnished; 7. One place setting; 8. No flat ware; 9. Table cloth and accessories to be furnished by exhibitor.

Lodge Meets

Neighbors of Woodcraft met in regular form Oct. 7 with Thelma Roller conducting the session in the KC Hall.

It was voted to accept the invitation of the Ashland lodge to join them in a get together. Those attending from Klamath Falls were Neva Hayes, Ellen Green, Iva Weaver and Susie Harris.

Mabel Mathney was a special guest from Eugene.

Refreshments were served by the committee of Susie Harris, Beulah Hibbard, Babe Foote and Cecile Sheen.

At the Oct. 21 meeting initiation was conducted for Christine Williams and Katherine Edme.

The social committee for this meeting was Evelyn Carlson, Juanita Carlson, Elva Weaver and Willa Morache.

HOME LEARNIN' — The National Home Study Council, which conducted the survey, estimated 3,500,000 Americans were home study students in 1962, nearly 100 or 40 per cent more than in the total college and university enrollment of the United States in 1960 when the last survey was conducted.

POI FOR BABIES
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI) — A little known product of the newest state may help solve dietary problems of allergic infants, a recent University of Rochester study pointed out.

Pediatrics experts at the University found that babies allergic to cereals and other foods thrive on poi, a starchy carbohydrate made from the root of the Hawaiian taro plant.
