

HOSTS — Commodore Cliff Evans waits while Mrs. Evans pins on boutonniere just before they greeted the first guests at the recent past commodores ball at the Yacht Club. — Yacht Club Photos by Bob Anderson

HONORED GUESTS — The first event of the fall season for the Yacht Club is the ball honoring past commodores. This year's well attended event was staged in a setting of autumn decor highlighted with red and blue glass candles on the tables and multi-colored mobiles hung from the ceiling. This group of past commodores was present. Left to right are Orth Sisemore, Larry Brown, Lewis Kandra, Larry Whytal, Maury Clark, Howard Pernell, Ray Byrnes and Gene Byrnes.

PARTY-GOERS — Howard Pernell, Lloyd Prock and Larry Brown visit during Yacht Club festivities. At right, Evelyn Evans pins corsage on Pauline Pernell while Ann Prock, back to camera, looks on. Past commodores and wives received corsages and boutonnieres as they arrived at the party.

SURPRISE — The Yacht Club party was also the birthdate of the club's financial secretary, Dick Bowers, and as a surprise a gaily decorated cake was presented to him at intermission time. Here he is coached in cutting the cake by Mrs. Bowers. Mrs. Bowers also assisted the Evans with dance decorations.

After your hair has been set professionally a few simple night curls will keep it looking trim. Here are a few tips . . .

Wetting hair at bedtime is a mistake, for slept-on wet hair will produce an uncontrolled set, also frizzled locks.

Put in a few large curls to hold the line from your previous setting . . . wet your hands and press to your head. To be a sleeping beauty use colored clips and bind curls in a silk or chiffon scarf.

Phone TU 4-3316 for your appointment with beauty. HOUSTON BEAUTY SALON, 500 Main St., upstairs over old Town Shop location. Use our 5th St. entrance.
