Style Wise Women Await Fashion Event

A high fashion wardrobe combining the newest in '63 styles with the latest retail cotton fabrics will be presented in a fashion show at the Winema Hotel on Saturday, Nov. 16, at 7 p.m. by Beta Sigma Phi.

The tea and style show is an annual event and this year sorority members are sponsoring something new in fashion reviews for the pleasure of women of the Klamath Basin.

The fashion collection, known as "Cavalcade of Fashions," consists of 24 "round the clock," round the calendar garments especially created by the National Cotton Council and McCall's Patterns.

Among new fashion trends to be featured are the shift dress, drawstring waist, skinny coat and Western-style sportswear. New cotton satin print, embroidered organza double knit, and seersucker with multi-color border are among the latest developments in cotton fabrics city schools, in a group of spirited folk songs.

Credit for the lovely autumn bouquets of chrysanthemums and crimson and gold streamers which graced the tables goes to Mrs. Alma Garrison, Mrs. Elda Fletcher, Mrs. Vera Ochs, Mrs. Elsie Mock, Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, Mrs. Myrtle Caldwell and Mrs. Beulah Elliott.
