

Women Of Reames Country Club Close Year Of Activities With Luncheon

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News November 10, 1963

Top golf winners in the 18-hole tournaments are shown above, left to right, Pauline Purnell, medalist, spring handicap; Rose Chapman, spring handicap, first flight winner; Lynn Starbuck, club champion and runnerup first flight spring handicap; Coral Renick, runnerup championship flight, spring handicap; Arlene Cary, medalist and runnerup in the championship flight of championship tournament and winner of championship flight, spring handicap.

Nine-hole spring handicap winners were Britta Franz, medalist; championship flight, Pat Bradshaw, winner, Martha Bartlett, runnerup; first flight, Eva Ashley, winner, Wilma Wiley, runnerup.

At right are the winners of bridge played each Friday afternoon in the clubhouse. Seated are Lucille Honzel, left, and Margaret Larkin. Standing, left to right, Pat Tarr, Edna Bartholomew, Melba Gotshall, Frances Bennet and Katherine Stonecypher.

The annual fall luncheon for the women of Reames Country Club highlights two important features, awarding of trophies and election of auxiliary officers. A record attendance was present for this year's affair on Friday, Nov. 1, presided over by Mrs. Richard Beane. Luncheon arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Lowell Jones, vice president.

Shown above are the new officers elected at Friday's luncheon. Left to right are Agnes Beane, outgoing president who will serve as director; Britta Franz, vice president; Melba Gotshall, director; Cecil Peyton, president. Standing, same order, Arlene Cary, secretary; Pat Bradshaw, treasurer, and Lynn Starbuck, director.

Luncheon guests included Mrs. Kenneth Thomas, Tulelake, left, Mrs. J. Martin Adams, center, and Mrs. Al Schmeck.

Pictured above, left to right, are Mrs. Burge Mason, Mrs. Dick Reeder and Mrs. Bruce Wirth.

At right are Mrs. Bob Cheyne, left, Mrs. Delos Mills, center, and Mrs. Jerry Rejus.

Agnes Beane, on behalf of the auxiliary, presents check to Jim Warner, Reames golf pro, in appreciation of his assistance with the season's tournaments.

— Photos by Guderian