

Older Brother Offers Gridiron Lesson, Slows Rose Bowl Possibilities

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI)—When Bump and Pete Elliott played together for Michigan in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1948, Bump never dreamed that one day he would throw a roadblock to his younger brother's path to the post-season classic.

The Packers and Bears share But that's exactly what happened last Saturday when Bump piloted Michigan to a stunning 14-8 triumph over the Illinois club coached by Pete to earn the United Press International "coach of the week" honors.

Illinois went into the game ranked as the nation's No. 2 team with an excellent chance of going to the Rose Bowl.

But Michigan, a young team that is suddenly jelling, had different ideas.

Michigan had a sorry 1-3-1 record after five games and seemed in jeopardy of sinking below last year's 2-7 mark and finishing in the Big Ten basement for the second straight season.

But the Wolverines upset Northwestern, 27-6 two weeks ago and then utilized a tough defense and capitalized on a fumbled pitchout recovery in the last seven minutes to nip

Illinois and even their mark at 3-3-1 for the season and 2-2-1 in the Big Ten.

Now the odds are against the Illini. They would have to win their final two games against Wisconsin and frontrunner Michigan State while Ohio State would have to lose to either Northwestern or Michigan for Pete to go to the Rose Bowl.

Bump, 38, now has whipped brother Pete, 37, in the only four games that they've coached against each other—but Bump refuses to believe that he has a jinx or a hex over Pete.

"I don't believe in those things and I'm sure that Pete doesn't either. It's been four separate occasions and it's just happened that way.

"I'm certain that the kids on the field don't feel there's a jinx," he added. "The ball takes a lot of funny bounces."

about Iowa this week, that's the only game on our mind," he said.

Ducks Sixth In Offense

NEW YORK (UPI)—Oregon ranked sixth in total offense and ninth in passing offense in NCAA football team statistics released here Tuesday.

The Ducks have averaged 355.9 yards per game in eight contests in total offense and have averaged 173.5 yards per game in passing offense.

But he neatly sidesteps the point that he could still help Pete to go to Pasadena by knocking off Ohio State in two weeks.

"Right now, we're concerned

Bevos Lose Old Hand

PORTLAND (UPI)—Rocky Benevento, veteran Portland Beaver baseball groundskeeper, has been hospitalized here.

Benevento was taken to St. Vincent Hospital Tuesday after collapsing while working at Multnomah Stadium. He was reported in satisfactory condition. Cause of his collapse was not determined immediately.

Giants' Experience Worries 49er Boss

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (UPI)—Coach Jack Christiansen of the San Francisco Forty Niners respects the New York Giants' experience even more than their muscle.

The Forty Niners must battle the defending Eastern Division champions Sunday in the Polo

Grounds and Christiansen says his team will do nothing tricky or unusual.

He pointed out that the middle six of the Giants' defense has a total of 56 years of experience. He said fancy stuff against veterans like these

"tends to defeat your own purpose."

"They're so smart they know every move you're going to make," he continued. "They read you like a book."

He said he was going to try to beat the Giants by telling his men to "muscle up and play it nose to nose or be run out of the park."

He indicated that he thought his boys would have a chance if they matched their performance against the Chicago Bears or the last half of the Dallas battle last Sunday.

Halas Sees Chances Against Packers Slim

CHICAGO (UPI)—George Halas' view of his Chicago Bears game against the Green Bay Packers Sunday was bleak today from every angle except the final result.

"We can win," he said, "but the odds are against us."

"We must play our best game of the season, and much better than we did in our first game with them, when we played our best game previously this year. We've got to have an even greater effort Sunday."

first place in the Western Division of the National Football League, each with an 8-1 record, but the Packers have an eight-game winning streak following their 10-3 defeat by the Bears in the season opener.

"They're a better ball club than they were at the beginning of the season," Halas said. "We've seen films of their last two ball games, but I expect them to come up with something new, and I don't know what it will be."

Halas shunned comment on whether the Bears were a better team now than for their first meeting with Green Bay, but he said that with Ronnie Bull, Willie Galimore and Charlie Bivins all ready for action at the running halfback spot, the Bears might have some opportunities for surprise too.

"Let's not build up our great strength," he said. "The Packers have the edge on past performance. They've won two straight championships. They've beaten us five of the last six games. That's an indication of their over-all strength."

"And psychologically, they'll be primed emotionally for their best performance of the season because they want to prove that our beating them the first time was a mistake."

Washington Paces Stats

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—University of Washington's Rose Bowl-bound football team leads latest Big Six statistics in three out of six departments, according to league figures.

The Huskies top the loop in total offense, averaging 344 yards per game; in rushing, with 232 yards; and in rushing defense, 139 yards.

Southern California leads in total defense, allowing 234 yards, and pass defense, 72 yards.

California has the top pass offense, gaining 162 yards through the air per contest.
