BRIDE-TO-BE — The marriage of Connie Lee Hall and Paul O. Melsness will be an event of Nov. 23 in St. James the Apostle Catholic Church in Bly. Parents of the future bride are Mr. and Mrs. Franklin R. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Martin O. Melsness, all of Bly. Both young people are graduates of Bly High School. He is presently stationed with the Army at Camp Irwin, Calif.

DATE SET — Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robbins announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Ruth Ann, to E. W. (Bill) Woodcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Woodcock, Selma, Ore. Their wedding will take place Nov. 30. The bride-elect is a graduate of Klamath Union High School. Her fiance is a graduate of Illinois Valley High School in Cave Junction. He is presently employed by Southern Pacific Railroad.

AAUW Slate Kingsley Date

Members and guests of the AAUW will gather at Kingsley Field on Saturday, Nov. 16, for the regular November meeting. This meeting will begin at the Kingsley Field officers' mess at 2 p.m. with coffee and a short business meeting. There will be a charge of 50 cents for refreshments.

At 2:30, Col. Edwin J. Witzemberger will speak to the women and explain the tremendous effort it takes to coordinate an Air Force base and keep it running smoothly.

Following Colonel Witzemberger's talk, a tour of the base will be conducted. If conditions are favorable it will be possible to inspect one of the Kingsley Field jets.

The October AAUW meeting at the Klamath Art Gallery was well attended and a great success with credit going to Lyle Matoush, John Giboney and the Klamath Art Association.

The November meeting promises to be equally interesting. It is expected a large number of AAUW members and guests will be present on Nov. 16 to hear Colonel Witzemberger speak and to tour the Kingsley Field.

ABBREVIATED ITEM

A new length slip has been designed to wear with the abbreviated fall chemises. It's a wonderful item for under long evening dresses, too, when they are slit high above the knee.

GREENSPRINGS CLUB
The Greensprings Garden Club met for a workshop Nov. 7. Mrs. Elmo Anderson read the horticulture study on classes of chrysanthemums, written by Mrs. Alfred Hammond.

Christmas, or by a card given to the garden therapy chairman, Mrs. Guy Moore.

Mrs. Ray Billings won the special prize, which was a pine needle basket donated by Mrs. Crystal Cheyne.

The new year books were distributed by Mrs. Charles Sandusky.

SNEAKER APPEAL

Latest news from a fashion-minded maker of sneakers — wool sneakers in checks, plaids and herringbones, coordinated to match wool skirts made by sportswear manufacturers.

A new member, Mrs. Charles Mallow, was welcomed to the group. The rest of the day was spent in making pine needle baskets which was taught by Mrs. Crystal Cheyne.

The Dec. 5 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Norman J. Briggs for a Christmas party and gift exchange.

HAPPY PAIR — Terry and Sherri, 6½-month-old twins, are children of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown of Boise. Their mother, the former Marilyn Dearborn, was born in Klamath Falls and attended schools in Bonanza before moving to Idaho. Their grandfather is Albert Dearborn, former Langell Valley rancher.

GUESS WHO — Guests at the VFW Club Halloween costume ball entered into the spirit of the affair and came up with an assortment of costumes, some weird, some pretty. Judges settled on the three couples shown as winners. Left to right are Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Smith, first; a name-shy mystery guest and Myrtle Haynes, second, and Mr. and Mrs. Vada Kirby, third.

Party Fetes Future Bride

BLY—A pretty bridal shower was given at the Gearhart Elementary School on Oct. 17 to honor Connie Hall, bride-elect of Paul Melsness of Bly.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Herbert Hadley, Mrs. Gerald Dillavou and Mrs. Melvin Brooks.

The gift table was decorated with an umbrella and miniature bridal pair. The refreshment table held a bouquet of fall flowers and a white cake trimmed with pink roses and wedding bells. Mrs. Hadley served coffee and Mrs. V. L. Rente poured punch.

Among the more than 50 guests were the honoree's grandmother, Mrs. Belle Morgan of Paisley and her sister, Mrs. Dayton Dumont, Klamath Falls.

BONANZA GARDEN CLUB

BONANZA—The Bonanza Garden Club met Oct. 23 at the home of Elsa Clark. During the business session conducted by the president, Irene Hartley, it was decided to again sponsor the annual outdoor Christmas decorating and lighting contest.

On Nov. 12 at 3 p.m. Polly Pacific of Medford Pacific Power and Light Company will give a talk and show slides on decorating and lighting. Everyone is urged to attend this meeting.

TISSUE PUFFS
Bath powder in a shaker-top dispenser is a better traveler than a box of dusting powder which is easily upset in the suitcase. Better pack the shaker-top variety and make your own disposable dusting powder puffs en route.
Just open two cleansing tissues, pleat and gather together in a soft rosette. Sprinkle bath powder into the folds of the tissue, dust on powder and discard.
