SNOWBOUND HUNT PARTY IS RESCUED

LA GRANDE (UPI)—A group of elk hunters, stranded by snow for nearly a week in the rugged Minam River area east of here, was flown out of the area Tuesday after walking to a lodge.

They were reported in good condition. They said they had had plenty to eat but were glad to get out of the area.

Pilot Bob Waltermeir of La Grande flew them here from where they were taken to their cars.

The group was trapped by a snowstorm last Thursday on the Minam Lake side of a 6,000-foot pass. The storm caused drifts as high as 20 feet.

The party flown out Tuesday included nine hunters, two cooks and a cowboy. Guide Bob Blank of Baker and three others had left the group after the snowstorm to blaze a trail out.

Blank said the horses on the trip were worse off than the hunting party, because of lack of food.

CHAIRMAN JOHN L. McCLELLAN, D-Ark., did not press Estes with warnings of possible contempt action. He explained that Estes, still in deep legal trouble, would not be placed in a position where he might prejudice his cause in court actions against him.

McClellan said no further witnesses would be called in the inquiry which filled the headlines a little more than a year ago.

Cambodia Plans To Drop U.S. Aid By End Of '63

P.N.O.M.P.E.H.N., Cambodia (UPI)—Prince Norodon Sihanouk Tuesday announced Cambodia will renounce U.S. aid by the end of 1963.

He said American troops will be withdrawn, but they will not be replaced by other foreign troops.

Prince Norodon told a newsconference that "by this measure we will be poorer but more independent."

The prince announced Monday the nationalization of import and export businesses here and the nationalization of Cambodian banks by the end of next June.

He said the big French plantations for the time being, but he could not guarantee the same for the future.

"Without aid, and not rich in foreign reserves, Cambodia will have to increase her production agriculturally and industrially," he said.

He said he had reflected a long time before promoting this form of "advanced socialism" and that this decision had been taken essentially with the aim under current developments of saving the regime and the monarchy and avoiding a big swing to the left.

Snowbound Hunt Party Is Rescued

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate hearings into the get-rich-quick career of farm financier Billie Sol Estes were marked "complete" today and investigators began working on a formal report.

The dark-haired West Texas farm boy, who built—and lost—a $150 million empire, moved briefly into the public spotlight Tuesday. He quickly bowed out again, however, after invoking the Fifth Amendment against possible self-incrimination and refusing to answer questions for the Senate investigations subcommittee.

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., did not press Estes with warnings of possible contempt action. He explained that Estes, still in deep legal trouble, would not be placed in a position where he might prejudice his cause in court actions against him.

McClellan said no further witnesses would be called in the inquiry which filled the headlines a little more than a year ago.

Senate Hearings On Billie Sol Estes End In Hurry Without Any Answers

LANCASTER, Calif. (UPI)—Sheriff's detectives said a man identified as John Birmingham, 32, tried to commit suicide Tuesday by jumping in front of a train near his desert community northeast of Los Angeles.

A 17-year-old boy who had picked Birmingham up as a hitchhiker said Birmingham saw a train approaching and yelled: "Stop the car! I want to jump in front of the train."

The boy tried to persuade Birmingham to stay in the car, but he said the man jumped from the moving auto and hurled himself into the path of the Southern Pacific freight train.

The train's wheels severed his body.

Youth Cited In Accident

Two autos—both driven by 19-year-old youths—collided at Division Street and Union Avenue Monday afternoon, resulting in one driver being cited for failure to yield right-of-way.

Johnnie Marvin Summers, 220 Marion Lane, was given the citation after the crash which damaged his 1954 sedan and the other 1957 sedan moderately.

Police said Summers' car struck the one driven by Curtis Phillip Langer, 2660 Shasta Way. Summers was eastbound on Union and Langer was southbound on Division. The crash occurred at 5:30 p.m.

Officers Seek Vehicle Parts

Oregon State Police are seeking a Model T roadster body and frame that has been reported stolen from the Lewis Matney ranch, Rte. 2, Box 625, Klamath Falls, police disclosed Tuesday.

Matney said that the car frame had been removed from behind his barn sometime during the past month. Anyone having information as to the location of the Model T is urged to contact state police.
