

Bonanza Seniors Prepare Annual Play

BONANZA — The senior class of Bonanza High School has begun production of the annual senior play. Tryouts for parts began Oct. 17, and rehearsals began Oct. 21.

The play, "You're Only Once" by Glenn Hughes, will be given Nov. 22 in the Bonanza Elementary gym.

High comedy in the play is provided by the school principal, the battle-ax English teacher, the "ladies man," the ball star, and the delightfully obnoxious characters who seem to be in every school.

The play involves 20 senior students. Mike Clark, the stage manager, plays the part of Mr. Birch, the stern principal, and Fred Dearborn, Bonanza's student body president, plays Speed Miller, a lover of football.

Robin Brett has the role of a pretty girl's adviser, and Lorna McFall characterizes the English teacher, Miss Spencer. Ernest Vinson is Chuck Biggs, an "all-brain - no brain" football player; Benny Brown is Mr. Pettit, a popular high school student.

The role of the domineering PTA president is played by Virginia Harris, with Gene Spillane, a cross-country team member, as Mr. Bell, a math teacher, and Tom Rogers as an inexperienced camera salesman.

Maria Burnett, a Bonanza cheerleader, has the role of Jean, a nose-y, bubbly newspaper girl, and yell queen Janice Burk plays Bernice, an unpopular busy-body who chases Ron Dayton. The role of Ron Dayton, a football star and ladies' man, belongs to Ernest Nichols, a Bonanza football player.

Another Bonanza football player, Neil Tofel, has the role of Pop, a football coach; and Earl Lee, a member of the cross-country team, has the role of Paul, a studious bashful boy who is willing to do anything to be popular. Danny Thompson plays Miss Chandler, the principal's secretary, and Barbara Reid, one of Bonanza's highest honor students, has the role of Paul's mother, Mrs. Chapman.

Eddie Fernlund plays the part of Gabby, a talkative boy who tries to help others but ends up in trouble himself. Shirley Walker, a quiet shy girl who "saves Gabby's neck," is played by Jean Fernlund.

Potato Festival Queen Non-dice McFall, has the role of Mona, a glamor girl who wears too much make-up.

Dr. Babitz Sets Dunsuir Talk

DUNSMUIR — Dr. Milton Babitz, Sacramento, consultant in adult education for the state department of education, will be the guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the 25th district, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, at the Weed Elementary School on Nov. 29.

Arrangements for Dr. Babitz' appearance were made by Mrs. C. L. Gustafson, Weed, district parent education chairman. Dr. Babitz will also speak to the Weed PTA at 2:30 p.m., Nov. 20. Both meetings are open to the public. Dinner reservations should be made with the Weed PTA unit.

IN TRAINING — Two registered nurses, Peggy Williams, left, and Jacqueline Shirley, are qualifying for public health work in the schools with the Klamath County Health Office. Mrs. Williams, a resident of Klamath Falls for 25 years, will serve in Falcon Heights, Conger, Roosevelt and Shasta schools. Mrs. Shirley will serve in Henley, Ferguson, Peterson and Stearns. She is a recent graduate of the University of Oregon School of Nursing. She came with her husband Gary, Thomas Dodge employe, from Portland.

Dad-Daughter Dinners Attract More Than 1,300

Some 1,300 people attended the annual Camp Fire Dad-Daughter Dinners held Nov. 4, 5 and 7, with Mrs. A. E. Fitzgerald as general chairman for the Klamath Falls District and Mrs. Robert Rutter for the South Klamath Falls District.

Two dinners were staged in the Altamont School cafeteria by the South Klamath Falls District and included Stearns, Falcon Heights, Peterson, Ferguson, Shasta and Altamont schools. Mrs. Rutter and Mrs. Cliff Nelson were chairmen.

In the Klamath Falls District, three dinners were held in the KUH's cafeteria, with Mrs. Virginia Manning, Mrs. Don Hurd and Mrs. Robert Mezger as chairmen. The schools participating were Riverside, Conger, Sacred Heart Academy, Roosevelt, Pelican, Fairview, Mills, O'Neill and Fairhaven.

At these dinners, the duties of mistress of ceremony were shared by Mrs. Naomi French and Mrs. Carol Baird, who introduced the many Camp Fire board members attending as guests. Following the potluck supper, the dads and daughters joined in group singing.

Mrs. Pete Stride provided informative entertainment with a series of slides entitled "My Favorite Camp Fire Girls," depicting the life of a Camp Fire Girl from her Blue Bird days through the program to Horizon Club.

The South Klamath Falls District enjoyed skits put on by various groups, and group singing was led by Christine Dodge, a Horizon Club member.

Other areas are planning dinners in the near future. Dorris will hold a family dinner on Nov. 21, and Chiloquin has scheduled a Dad-Daughter Dinner on Dec. 3. The Merrill area has not yet set the date for its annual dinner.

School Rejected
GLADSTONE, Ore. (UPI) — Voters in the Gladstone School District Wednesday voted 723 to 644 against building their own high school.

Candidates Find Jersey 'Off Limits'

TRENTON (UPI) — New Jersey is off limits to a presidential primary fight for delegates between Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

State GOP Chairman Webster B. Todd revealed Wednesday he had told both men to "stay the hell out of the state."

"I told them to leave us alone," Todd said. He delivered his message to lieutenants of Rockefeller and Goldwater.

Todd said the two leading contenders for the Republican presidential nomination could visit the state.

And he said the state party would tolerate a preferential primary between the two which would serve merely as a popularity contest.

But he said the party would not stand for a presidential primary that pulled a list of delegates pledged to support Rockefeller against a list pledged to support Goldwater against a list backed by the state party.

Todd said the state Republican leadership wanted only one list of approved delegates to the Republican national convention in San Francisco next summer on the primary ballot.

Those delegates, he said, would go to the convention uncommitted. The New Jersey GOP delegation to national conventions has never had a formal commitment to a presidential nominee.

Turner Snares Speech Honors

MALIN — The Malin FAA Chapter held its speech contest Thursday, Nov. 7, with Larry Turner taking first place honors. Philip Petrasek was second.

Other members participating were Dan Duncan, John Greene, Richard Tackacs, and Riley Wilson.

A team of boys from the Malin chapter will attend the District Public Speaking Parliamentary meeting in Bend on Dec. 9. Turner will serve as the public speaker for the chapter.

Fitzhugh Joins Langell Board

LANGELL VALLEY — Cole Fitzhugh was elected to the Langell Valley Irrigation District board at an election held Nov. 12. He will serve a three-year term.

Other members of the board are Arthur Monroe, chairman, and Dick Smith, Don Lucas is manager of the district.

Moon Reported Hard, Porous

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet scientists reported today that the surface of the moon is "hard and extremely porous," according to Tass, the official news agency. It said the report was based on radio soundings conducted by physicists at Gorky.

Other theories have stated that the moon is covered with a thick powdery substance that could hamper spaceship landings.

Legion Split By Dispute

PORTLAND (UPI) — A dispute has broken out at the leadership level of the American Legion in Oregon, according to the department's publication, Oregon Legionnaire.

It was adopted by the department executive committee Oct. 27 at Lebanon by a vote of 7 to 5 with two members abstaining.

It has led to a request asking for the resignation of Karl Wagner as national executive committee member, the publication said. The request has support of Department Commander William R. Stevens, it said.

The Legionnaire said Wagner has refused to resign and has asked for a bill of particulars stating reasons for the request. The publication said the controversy was over the manner in which recommendations were made to national Legion headquarters for selection of certain Oregon members for national appointments.

Stevens was reported to have said Wagner disregarded recommendations he made. Wagner said the criticism was unjustified.

The Legionnaire said a resolution asking Wagner to resign was adopted by the department executive committee Oct. 27 at Lebanon by a vote of 7 to 5 with two members abstaining.

Fun Night Scheduled

DUNSMUIR — Newcomers and regulars to square dancing are invited to a "fun night" square dance sponsored by the Pepper Steppers at the VFW Hall in Dunsuir on Saturday night.

No previous square dancing experiences will be required, according to Mr. and Mrs. Vail Hickey, callers for this local group. There will be dancing, demonstrations, games and refreshments.

A fingerfood buffet will conclude the evening, and all participants are asked to bring contributions.

Small Industry Thrives

MOUNT SHASTA — A new small-scale industry was introduced to Mount Shasta last spring, and proving itself profitable throughout the year continues to grow.

Mrs. Aileen Simmers, then a Mount Shasta resident who now lives near Bend, began sketching local scenes on china plates for sale to visitors. Mt. Shasta was the principal subject, although other attractions were also incorporated as subjects.

When the originator of the idea moved, the venture was carried on by other local artists. Among these, Mrs. Melba Crispi and Mrs. Arliss Tracy have a thriving business in painted chinaware.

The business has proven popular with members of the community as it helps to advertise the region as well as giving the local art group an incentive to practice without dead-end expense for materials.
