

Klamath Symphony To Present Concert

The Klamath Community Symphony will be presented in concert on Dec. 3 at 8 p.m. in the Mills School auditorium. Under the direction of Normand Poulshock, the group of musicians has rehearsed since early fall to bring to the Klamath Basin residents, a program which includes parts of Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite and the Overture to Mozart's opera, Don Giovanni. Also on the program will be works by Bizet, Hindemith and German. The Hindemith piece, "In Praise of Music," will also feature a small chorus.

The orchestra group is sponsored by various service clubs and professional groups of the Klamath Area. The board of directors is made up of representatives from these various groups.

Tickets will be sold through the AAUW, Quota Club, Soroptimist Club, Business and Professional Women's Club, Woman's Library Club, Klamath Falls Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club and the Linkville Kiwanis Club.

The Woman's Library Club is handling ticket sales and ushering on the night of the performance.

Tickets for the concert will be the same as last year, $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Tickets are also available downtown at Derby's Music Store, Bowden's Music Store, the chamber of commerce and from Mary Bothwell at the First Federal Savings and Loan.

Annual memberships are available by a donation of five dollars per season. This includes a pass for one adult. Subscription memberships are available for business and individuals for $10 a year. These will be listed in the concert program, and the membership will include two adult passes for the concert season.

Since the symphony is solely an amateur group, musicians are always welcome at the rehearsals each Thursday evening at 7:30 in the music room of Klamath Union High School. Openings are available in several of the horn and woodwind sections and in all of the string sections.

Sponsors are still being sought from the outlying communities to help keep this project underway. Sponsors help with the recruiting of new members, ticket sales and general organization. No financial help is needed from the sponsors since the symphony has been self-supporting.

Another concert is being planned for the early spring which probably will include the Vivaldi Oboe Concerto and the Second Beethoven Symphony.

TRAVEL TRICK

Don't throw away the slivers of soap which remain when the bar is almost used. Let soap ends dry and wrap each in several cleansing tissues. Tuck the soap-and-tissue packets in the glove compartment of your car for on-the-road cleanups.

You may like your own soap better than the liquids provided by most public washrooms, and the soft, strong tissues will come in handy for facial cleanups.

NOVEMBER BRIDE — Mrs. Richard Alvin Colson is the former Betty Jean Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Foley of Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Colson, Klamath Falls, are parents of the bridegroom. They were married Nov. 2 in Albany and will reside in Cornelius.

Colson-Foley Nuptials Solemnized In Albany

The marriage of Betty Jean Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Foley, Albany, and Richard Alvin Colson of Cornelius was an event of Nov. 2 in Westminster United Presbyterian Church, Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Colson of Klamath Falls are parents of the bridegroom.

Baskets of red carnations, white chrysanthemums and stock, tied with red bows, set the color theme of the ceremony. Red satin bows were tied to the candelabra holding tall white tapers which were lighted prior to the service by Eddy and Claude Colson, twin brothers of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Willard Graber, aunt of the bride, was organist for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony performed by Dr. Morton Booth.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of Chantilly lace with scalloped neckline and skirt of tiered lace and pleated organza with a short train. The elbow length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a small jeweled crown. She carried a bouquet of red and white satin roses and lily of the valley.

The bridal bouquet and corsages and boutonnières for the wedding party were made by Mrs. Clay Henshaw.

Mrs. John Goodhouse was matron of honor and Diana Clough and Beverly Colson, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in red satin brocade red velvet headbands. Each carried a white fur muff with red rosebuds and red ribbon streamers.

Flower girls were Bonnie Casebier and Maureen Richards, cousins of the bride, who were dressed like the bridal attendants and carried white flower baskets.

Another cousin of the bride, Linn Graber, was ring bearer. Crystal and Sharolyn Graber, the bride's cousins, were vocalists.

Robert Peterson was best man and ushers were Harold Diehl and Jim Johnson.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors which were decorated in the red and white theme. Approximately 150 wedding guests were greeted by the bridal couple and their mothers. Mrs. Foley wore for the occasion a light beige satin brocade dress and jacket with brown accessories and corsage of bronze satin rosebuds. Mrs. Colson chose a maroon knit dress with matching accessories and corsage of white satin rosebuds.

The four tiered white wedding cake, encircled with red roses, was served by Mrs. Gail Graber, aunt of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Dave Miksch, the bridegroom's aunt. The bride's cousin, Mrs. Daniel Graber, poured coffee and Mrs. Harold Diehl and Millie Bowe served punch. Shawlene Holloway attended the guest book and Mrs. Floyd Zumwalt and Maria Graber, cousins of the bride, received gifts.

The new Mrs. Colson's going away outfit was a red three-piece knit suit with black accessories and corsage of red satin roses. The newlyweds motored through Nevada to Southern California on their honeymoon. They will make their home at 715 Rogerson Apartments in Cornelius where he is employed as an electronics salesman.

The bride is a graduate of Albany Union High School and attended Oregon College of Education. Her husband, graduate of Klamath Union High School, attended Oregon State University.

NOVEMBER NEWLYWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. Gary McGregor were married Nov. 2 in Hope Lutheran Church. The bride is the former Caroline J. Hurley. The couple will reside in Reno while he serves with the Air Force at Stead AFB.

Church Rites Unite Couple

White and yellow gladioli decorated Hope Lutheran Church on Nov. 2 for the double ring ceremony which united in marriage Caroline J. Hurley and Gary McGregor. Pastor Warren Peckman officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Bill Jarosak, this city, and Paul Hurley of Sacramento. She was given in marriage by her stepfather, Bill Jarosak. She wore a ballerina length gown made with lace bodice and full white satin skirt with lace insets in front. Her illusion veil was shoulder length. On a Bible she carried white and yellow rosebuds.

Cherry Robinett, Sacramento, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jim Christensen, Pacifica, Calif., sister of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Hurley, Macondo, sister-in-law of the bride.

The attendants were dressed alike in short frocks of turquoise satin with tiny hats of white chrysanthemums. Each carried a bouquet of yellow roses and chrysanthemums.

Cousins of the bride, Glenda and Gail Nealy, were flower girls. Michael Moore, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer and Dick Hagerman lighted the candles.

Nancy Hagerman was the organist and Patricia Iemsee, the soloist.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig McGregor

OVER THE GARDEN GATE

ALTURAS GARDEN CLUB
The Alturas Garden Club met for its regular meeting at the Jess Valley home of Mrs. P. C. Weber on Oct. 10. Mrs. Weber, assisted by Mrs. Charles Fitzpatrick, served a luncheon.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. W. Carstens.

Final plans were made for the Christmas Festival and committee chairmen were appointed by the president. The event will be Nov. 21, from 1 to 5 p.m. at the "Whistle Stop" club house located at 4th and East streets.

In September, a committee from the club decorated the tables and room for the P.P. and L. banquet held at the Niles Hotel.

Again in September, a flower arrangement school was sponsored by the Tulalake Garden Club in Klamath Falls. Two local members, Mrs. Russel Enderlin and Mrs. C. W. Carstens attended.

On Oct. 2, Mrs. Chester Main of the Tulalake Club was in Alturas, at which time she demonstrated her skill and artistry in flower arrangement. Tea was served at the conclusion of the program from a beautifully appointed tea table in the Fellowship Hall of the Federated Church.

On Oct. 9, Mrs. C. W. Carstens, Mrs. Russel Enderlin, Mrs. Mable Carey and Mrs. Merville Archer traveled to Lakeview to attend the regular meeting of Klamath District 12. The state vice president of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs, Mrs. Marvyn Ambal and state secretary, Mrs. A. H. Goeckner, were the speakers. It was announced that the National Federation of Garden Clubs convention will be in Portland, in June, 1965.

Mrs. Ralph Laird presented arrangements to illustrate the perpendicular line theory in flower arranging. She discussed the types of materials and containers which could be used in this particular style.

DAC Notes Birthday

Klamath Chapter, Daughters of the American Colonists, observed its sixth birthday at a luncheon Saturday, Oct. 26, in the Blue Room of the Winema Hotel. Mrs. Arch G. Proctor read her original poem as a blue candle for each past regent was lighted by Mrs. A. O. Roenicke. These were added to a centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums from the garden of Mrs. Raymond Tice. The past regents honored were Mrs. William D. Foster, Mrs. Arch G. Proctor, Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, Mrs. L. H. Stone, Mrs. George H. Proctor and Mrs. Charles K. Wells.

Mrs. Roenicke introduced the program chairman, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, who told the story of Gov. William Bradford after which Mrs. Raymond Hall related the story of Patrick Henry.

At the luncheon, beautiful handmade quilts were displayed. They were of various patterns, some having more than 5,000 pieces. Many were made over 200 years ago in the eastern part of the United States and were brought west in early days. Quilts were displayed by Mrs. Dick Hensel, Mrs. A. V. McVey, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. Guy Barton, Mrs. Charles Martin and Mrs. Robert O. Odell. The display was arranged by Mrs. Jack W. Wright.

Magazine subscriptions were reported as 100 per cent with each member subscribing to the DAC Courier.

Many cancelled stamps were turned in at the meeting. The Klamath club sends enough stamps to the Veterans Hospital to enable veterans to establish stamp clubs.

Luncheon guests introduced by the chapter regent, Mrs. Charles K. Wells, were Mrs. B. C. Johnson, Mrs. Jack Nixon, Mrs. Will Wood and Mrs. David Goehring.
