

DOLL CRAFT — Florence Horn shows Pixie dolls made by the Bonanza home extension unit. Unit members gave instructions for making the dolls to many of the more than 800 persons who attended the craft fair during the eight hour show at the fairgrounds. Co-chairmen of the fair were Mrs. Norman Knauss, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Jess Kersten, Gilchrist.

ARTISTS AT WORK — With Christmas just a head, women of the Poe Valley-Olene Unit, under the leadership of Mrs. Margaret Freyer, unit chairman, demonstrated the art of making sugar molds to decorate as tree ornaments, panoramic scenes or other holiday decor. Dorothy Snyder, left, and Eleanor Grant trim branch tree with finished bells and baubles.

GIFT IDEAS GALORE — Conger-Fairview Unit was one of the 17 community groups to participate in the third annual Craft Fair sponsored by the alumni of the Home Extension Advisory Committee. More than 92 people assisted in staging the successful affair. Laura Moore, left, and Mary Klem attended Conger-Fairview exhibit of handwork gift ideas.

Coward Play To Be Staged

Klamath Falls theatre-goers are looking forward to the first winter season production of the Klamath Civic Theatre, Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit." For the first time the opening performance on Nov. 22 in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel will be formal. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

The three-act farce, a modern ghost story, will be presented also in evening performances on Nov. 23 and 29. On Nov. 24, a matinee performance will begin at 2:30 p.m.

The play will be directed by William Hagerman. Nancy Hagerman is producer.

The cast members are Tom Mann, Laurie Woolschlager, Joyce Pryor, Sylvia Smith, Judith Stearn, Shirley Smith and Joe Broda.

Rolfe Landgreen will be the organist.

Pete Landgreen will be in charge of lights; Roger Cote, sets, and Sylvia East, costumes.

Pat Bradshaw and her hostesses will serve refreshments following Act I.

Tickets for the play are available from any member of the theater group, and from the chamber of commerce, Derby's Music Store, KFLW and Bob's Town and Country Jewelers.

Manicure your hands often... never do them at the last minute. A frequent professional manicure will do wonders in helping you with the between time pick-ups. For those special occasions try some of the gay, glittering nail polishes such as gold, silvers, platinum and frosted. Also gold-flecked clear either alone or over your favorite color will be startling. To minimize knuckle wrinkles rub hand cream over them and they will look smoother all evening... cover freckles or spots with cover-up spot stick and blend edges.

Americanism Meeting Topic

A patriotic theme highlighted the Nov. 11, Veterans Day, meeting of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club in the city library auditorium.

Mrs. J. A. Nixon gave the invocation in memory of that momentous day in November of 1918.

Mrs. Ray Keessling was the soloist, accompanied by Marie Obenchain, who also announced the Klamath Community Symphony concert to be held in the Mills School auditorium on Dec. 3. The Library Club is one of the sponsors of this group.

Mrs. George Blanas, program chairman, introduced Gene Favell, who gave an interesting talk on Americanism.

Several members expressed a desire to form a study group under the direction of Mrs. Frank Kahl, education chairman.

A donation was sent to CARE through the efforts of Mrs. John Ashley, international relations chairman.

Mrs. L. B. Bartholomew and Mrs. A. O. Roenicke were hostesses for the meeting. Mrs. Fred Kelsay, tea chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Richard Hessig and Mrs. Lola Van Scoyk.
