They called George Halas old-fashioned; there were many who said the parade had passed him by and that he hadn't kept pace with the swiftly advancing times in pro football; they said he couldn't win again.

Yet here is 63-year-old "Papa Bear" on the verge of becoming the most successful coach in any era of pro football.

He coached winners during the National Football League's

"Gaslight Era" of Ernie Nevers and Jim Thorpe; he had winners during the transitional T-formation days of Sid Luckman and Sammy Baugh; and now he's headed for a winner in the modern highly specialized era of Jimmy Brown, Y.A. Tittle and Johnny Unitas.

Papa's Bears, using his "old-fashioned" techniques of ball-control and defense, destroyed the proud Green Bay Packers, 26-7, Sunday and virtually assured the NFL of a new champion. Four weeks still remain in the season but the Bears are in command with a 9-1 record and a one-game lead over the Packers in the Western Division.

The New York Giants also assumed the undisputed lead in the Eastern Division of the league when they clobbered the San Francisco Forty Niners, 48-14, while the St. Louis Cardinals upset the Cleveland Browns, 20-14. The Giants, with an 8-2 record, now hold a one-game lead over deadlocked Cleveland and St. Louis.

In Sunday's other games, the Pittsburgh Steelers remained in the running with a 34-23 win over the Washington Redskins; the Los Angeles Rams upset the Detroit Lions, 28-21; the Baltimore Colts edged the Minnesota Vikings, 37-24, and the Dallas Cowboys beat the Philadelphia Eagles, 27-20.

The Bears won the NFL's biggest battle of 1963 by beating the Packers at their own game—a crushing ground attack and an unyielding defense. Those were the weapons the Packers had used to win three straight Western titles and the last two NFL playoff games.

Sunday the Bears were supreme right from the opening minutes and by a more convincing margin than their 10-3 win over the Packers on the opening Sunday of the season. A sellout crowd of 49,166 watched the game at Chicago.

Quarterback Billy Wade completed only 6 of 14 passes, but the Chicago ground forces of Willie Galimore, Joe Marconi and Rick Casares ground out 248 rushing yards. Galimore's 79 yards were eight more than the entire Green Bay haul of 71.

Roger LeClerc kicked four field goals of 29, 46, 19 and 35 yards; Galimore ran 27 yards for one touchdown and Wade carried five yards for another; and the Chicago defense intercepted five passes and recovered two Green Bay fumbles.

While injured Bart Starr sat on the sidelines, John Roach handled the Green Bay quarterback job for the first three quarters and Zeke Bratkowski for the final period. The Packers' lone score came on an 11-yard run by Tom Moore late in the game.

At New York, a crowd of 62,982 watched Y.A. Tittle recover from a shaky first period to throw four touchdown passes in a rout of the Forty Niners. Phil King and Joe Morrison combined to gain 199 rushing yards and carried the load until Tittle uncranked his arm.

King raced 50 yards on a draw play for the Giants' first touchdown; Morrison caught two of Tittle's scoring passes; and Frank Gifford also grabbed two TD tosses, one from rookie Glynn Griffing. Tittle's passes gained 264 yards. Abe Woodson ran back a kickoff 99 yards for San Francisco.

Charley Johnson threw two scoring passes and gained 274 air yards for the Cards in the win that knocked Cleveland out of a tie for first place. Johnson passed 41 yards to Sonny Randle and 19 yards to Bill Triplett for the score that eventually proved the game-winner.

Cleveland's Jimmy Brown had the consolation of adding an NFL record. He raced 59 yards for the Browns' first score in a 154-yard rushing haul that made him pro football's leading all-time ground-gainer by all methods (runs, pass-catches and kick returns). His 11,353-yard total topped Olie Matson's 11,317.

WOODSON OUTFRONS FIELD—The New York Giants whipped the San Francisco 49ers Sunday 48 to 14, but the victors came away from the game with a healthy respect for the open field running of Abe Woodson of San Francisco. The only time that they kicked the ball to Woodson, he ran it back 99 yards for a touchdown. Here, the whole Giant team, led by Dick Lynch (22), Ed Dove (48) and Aaron Thomas (38) chase Woodson all the way to the goal line. Former 49er Y. A. Tittle paced the Giant win with four touchdown tosses. —UPI Telephoto

Tobin Rote's first season in the American Football League is approaching history-making proportions.

The durable Rote, a veteran of 14 pro seasons, can become the first player to direct championship teams in the AFL and the National Football League.

Rote tossed a go-ahead 17-yard touchdown pass to Lance Alworth in the third period Sunday en route to forging San Diego's 23-13 victory over Buffalo.

The triumph enabled the Chargers to take a two-game lead over Oakland in the Western Division.

The Boston Patriots missed an opportunity to gain ground on idle Houston in the Eastern Division when they tied Kansas City, 24-24, and the New York Jets surprised the Denver Broncos, 14-9, in other Sunday encounters.

Rote achieved the first half of his possible pro double in 1957 when he led Detroit to a conference playoff win over San Francisco and then quarterbacked the Lions to a 59-14 victory over Cleveland in that year's NFL title game.

Against Buffalo Sunday, Rote completed 10 of 22 passes and dealt a crushing blow to the Bills' Eastern hopes, Keith Lincoln's 54-yard touchdown runs and field goals of 39, 15 and 41 yards by George Blair kept San Diego's record intact against Eastern teams this season.

The Bills tallied on Cookie Gilchrist's one-yard plunge and field goals of 27 and 9 yards by Max Yoho.

Boston deadlocked Buffalo at 5-5-1 for second place behind Houston as the Patriots tied Kansas City. A 23-yard pass from Eddie Wilson to fullback Curtis McClinton with six minutes remaining enabled the Chiefs to gain the tie.

Wilson, starting his first game as Len Dawson's quarterback replacement, had completed only eight of 21 passes going into the game. But he successfully engineered an aerial barrage of 20 completions in 32 attempts for 234 yards and two touchdowns.

UCLA Scrambles Battle For Bid To Rose Bowl

By United Press International

What had been an orderly Big Six race degenerated into a panic today with the Washington Huskies apparently far from cinches to reach the Rose Bowl.

The damage was done last Saturday by the pea-green Huskies, 14-0, in one of the big upsets of the season and made a mess out of the Big Six standings.

The damage was done last Saturday by the pea-green Huskies, 14-0, in one of the big upsets of the season and made a mess out of the Big Six standings.

Highlights of those games:

Dale Ford, usually a member of the defensive platoon, took over as quarterback and led Washington State to its breeze through fumbling Stanford. Ford connected on seven of 12 passes for 117 yards while pacing a team that enjoyed a 25-0 lead before Stanford scored.

A 33-yard touchdown run by Tom Relles got California into the game after Utah had taken a 15-0 lead. Then Tom Blanchfield helped the Bears win by going 14 and 32 yards for touchdowns while Craig Morton passed 22 yards to Loren Hawley who scored another.

Bob Berry hit on a 29 yard TD pass, his third of the day, to H. D. Murphy with 11 seconds left in the game for Oregon's 28-22 win over Indiana. It marked the Ducks' first victory against Big Ten opposition in eight tries.

Should aroused Washington State—which has a 1-0 conference mark but only is 3-5 for the season—hand the Huskies another upset, the Trojans of Southern California conceivably could wind up back in the Rose Bowl.

Trojans Have A Chance

Although trounced, 22-7 by Washington this season, USC now trails the Huskies by a half-game in the Big Six. Another Washington loss and a Southern California win over UCLA would put USC on top in the final standings.

The Trojans, for the record, played Oregon State last Friday night in a non-league tilt and downed the Beavers 23-22 on touchdowns by Mike Garrett and Willie Brown.

What happened on the same gridiron the next day was most unexpected. UCLA, a 13-point underdog, contained the terrific line smashes of fullback Junior Coffey and won the game on a pair of touchdown passes to sophomore Byron Nelson. Not to be confused with the mighty golfer, Nelson tallied on tosses of eight and four yards from Larry Zeno and Steve Sindell.

A pair of powerful attacks made things fairly easy for the goalies in the Western Hockey League Sunday night—and the net-tenders swept away what few threats did develop to chalk up shutouts.

The cellar-dwelling Vancouver Canucks fired a constant barrage on Los Angeles to defeat the Blades, 3-0, and Seattle outrushed the Portland Buckaroos for a 2-0 victory.

"Everything fell into place," coach Bill Barnes of the Bruins said after getting down from the team's shoulders. It was only the Bruins' second win in nine contests.

The win gave them second place in the conference with a 4-1 record and an 8-1 for the season.

Lewis and Clark dethroned Linfield 21-7 for its only loss.

Pacific captured fourth spot in the conference by defeating College of Idaho 17-0 at Forest Grove.

Both netmen also did an outstanding job at Portland. Claude Dufour of Seattle turned away only 18 shots for his shutout, while Jean Marie Cossette got Portland's only two goals past Don Head, who blocked 34 shots by the Totems.

Seattle's victory moved the Totems to within one point of the league-leading San Francisco Seals in the standings. There are no games scheduled for tonight.

Boxing Writers' Poll Backs Peralta Win

NEW YORK (UPI)—The lively light heavyweight division continues to command fistic attention this week, with contenders Mauro Mina of Peru and Allen Thomas of Chicago slated for a nationally televised 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

It was in a similar Garden TV fight last Friday that light-heavy contender Gregorio Peralta of Argentina and Wayne Thornton of Fresno, Calif., staged a terrific battle from which Peralta emerged with an unpopular split decision.

However, the Peralta decision was upheld 11-3-1 by an official ringside poll of boxing writers. And the fight was so thrilling that matchmaker Teddy Brenner is trying to make a return bout for Dec. 13.

low-hitting, and hitting on the breaks — after referee Jaimie Valencia raised Filipino Elorde's arm in victory.

Police drew their guns in the ring and protected Alotey from the mob.

Also on Saturday, former welterweight and five-time middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson knocked out Belgian middleweight champion Emile Sarens in the eighth round at Brussels.

And at Dortmund, Germany, Saturday night, southpaw Gustav (Bubi) Scholz of Germany outpointed Chic Calderwood of Scotland, British Empire light heavyweight champion, before 10,000 in the Westfalenhalle.
