Don't Give Up Lead

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
The contract bridge summary recently published by Albert Morehead follows: "If you have a choice of plays in order to establish a trick or tricks you should play so as to keep the opponent who can make a destructive lead from getting in."

Today's hand as played by George Raape of New York illustrates this type of play. He won the opening club lead with dummy's queen and promptly led a low heart toward his own hand. East played the four and George played the nine. He was afraid of a spade lead from East and was going to avoid letting him get in.

West was in with the jack and led his ten of clubs. He wasn't going to let George make his king of spades.

Now George played out the rest of the hearts. He discarded his three of spades after the queen dropped. Then he cashed his high diamonds and his king of clubs and wound up by throwing poor West in with the nine spot.

By this time everyone was down to three cards. West held the high club and the ace-queen of spades, whereupon George was unkind enough to throw him in with the club.

West was forced to lead a spade after all, and George wound up with an overtrick.

Q-CARD Sends

Q-The bidding has been:
South West North East
1 ♣ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
2 ♥ Pass 2 N.T. Pass
3 ♣ Pass 3 N.T. Pass

You, South, hold:
♠ A 2 ♠ K J 5 ♣ A Q J 8 7
What do you do now?

A—Pass. Your partner is showing no interest in your suits. He has bid diamonds and you have the ace of spades to help stop that suit. The no-trump game should be easy.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding three no-trump your partner has gone to four clubs over your three clubs. What do you do now?

NEW PINE CREEK — The annual Eastside Grange bazaar will be held at the grange hall on Nov. 30, it was announced at the Saturday evening grange meeting by Mrs. Ethyl Cundiff, president of the Home Ec Club.

She said all committees were appointed for the various booths at the club meeting last Thursday and that posters would be circulated within a week to announce the various attractions. Fancy work will be featured.

In other grange business, four demit cards were granted to the Don Baty family which is now living in Central Valley, Calif. The Batys will transfer their membership to the Central Valley Grange.

Firemen Plan To Repair Toys

MERRILL — At the October meeting of the Merrill Fire Department, plans were made to collect and repair toys for needy children in the Merrill area for Christmas. Harold Carlson and Jim Shuck are heading the toy committee.

Anyone who has toys to contribute to the project may contact the committee or any member of the fire department. It is requested that donations be made as soon as possible to give the men sufficient time to make necessary repairs.
