

New Index Will Cover Cradle To Grave Costs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Labor Department will check prices from the cradle to the grave for its streamlined cost-of-living index that will appear next February.

The costs of funerals—a controversial national topic—will be calculated for the first time in the computing average expenses of the city-dwelling wage earner.

Labor Department officials said investigators would check the price of a complete funeral with undertakers in 50 cities. Their findings on funerals will not be listed separately by the government but will be blended

Ceramics Talk Slated Tonight

Dr. Leo Karczag will speak on "Ceramics as a Hobby and a Profession" at the Klamath Art Association's meeting today at 7:45 p.m., at the gallery, 120 Riverside.

Besides having studied under a Swedish teacher, Dr. Karczag was enrolled for three courses in ceramics at the University of Hawaii this past summer. Examples of his works will be displayed.

The meeting is open to the public.

Arsonist Seen At Jersey Fire

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — Police today hunted a convicted arsonist seen near the Surfside Hotel less than an hour after fire swept the building, killing 25 elderly persons.

Det. Capt. William Rickert, chief of the city's arson squad, said the suspect moved from his known address but still was believed to be in the city.

"I'm hoping to have him in custody today," Rickert said.

He said the man, whose identity was withheld, boarded a bus just 2½ blocks from the Surfside Hotel about 40 minutes after the first alarm was sounded.

The bus driver recognized the man as a "known arsonist" and told Raymond Stark, superintendent of the Atlantic City Transit Lines. Stark notified authorities.

State Woman Dies In Hawaii

HONOLULU (UPI) — An autopsy was ordered for a 63-year-old Oregon woman who died early Wednesday in a hotel in Hilo, Hawaii.

The dead woman was identified as Mrs. Florence Thrane of Route 1, Hood River.

She checked in Tuesday at the Naniloa hotel with her husband, Marcus, their son, Marcus, Jr., and a companion, Mrs. Edna W. Sutford of Portland.

Mrs. Sutford, who shared a room with Mrs. Thrane, said the woman fell out of bed shortly before midnight and died shortly thereafter.

Thrane said his wife had been ill for some time.

Chiloquin Man Faces Charges

Charles Hood Jr., 33, of Chiloquin was arrested in a Klamath Avenue tavern Tuesday evening and charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

A police officer said he spotted Hood "staggering" into the bar at Eighth Street and Klamath Avenue and followed him in to arrest him for drunkenness.

The officer said that after placing Hood under arrest he searched the man and found a straight razor in his left coat pocket. Therefore, the policeman reported, Hood was additionally charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

COMBS GETS AWARD

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gov. Bert Combs of Kentucky was among six persons named Thursday as winners of the second annual Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation awards for outstanding contributions in the field of mental retardation.

Besides Combs, Sen. Lester Hill, D-Ala., and Rep. John E. Fogarty, D-R.I., also were cited for leadership in the field. Winners of the service awards were Dr. Grover Francis Powers, professor emeritus of pediatrics at Yale, and Dr. Robert P. L. Lafon, professor of neuropsychiatry at the medical school of the University of Montpellier, France. The scientific award went to Dr. Lionel S. Penrose, professor of eugenics, University College, London.

Congo Police Seize Third Russian; Fate Of First Two Still Unknown

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — Congo police seized a third Russian today in apparent retaliation for suspected Soviet support of subversives seeking to overthrow the pro-Western government of Premier Cyrille Adoula.

Police dragged a Russian journalist out of his bed and took him into custody. The action followed the arrest Tuesday of two Soviet diplomats who are still being held.

The arrested diplomats also were manhandled by Congolese police when they refused to permit security officers to search their briefcases.

The fate of the diplomats, Boris Voronin and Yuri Maikotnykh, remained unknown. Voronin was described as an embassy counselor and Maikotnykh as a press attache.

There has been no official word on the incident involving the diplomats from the Congolese government for more than 36 hours despite a stiff protest by the Soviet Union. The diplomats were taken into custody by Congolese state police.

Well informed diplomatic sources in Leopoldville said the Congolese government may soon declare most Russian and Czech diplomatic personnel in the capital "persona non grata." They said it was unlikely the Congolese government would break off diplomatic relations, but that it probably would permit the two Communist countries to leave a skeleton staff in Leopoldville to handle embassy affairs.

The Soviet journalist detained today was identified as Benik Beknazar - Yuzbashev, 35, who arrived in the Congo a month ago to open a bureau for the Communist news agency Novosti in Leopoldville.

There was speculation the Russian journalist would be questioned about any possible Communist links to opposition Congolese elements.

The Congolese government has hinted that Communist embassies in Leopoldville have supported subversive activities aimed at overthrowing the pro-Western government of Premier Cyrille Adoula.

The government's Radio Congo reported Wednesday that "documents of the utmost importance" had been confiscated from foreign diplomats suspected of subversive activities against the Congo. But it did not name them or give their nationalities.
