Among the past potentates of Hillah Temple present for the affair were Chet Hubbard, standing above with Mrs. Hubbard, who came from Medford for the evening. Seated are two other past potentates, George Hillis and Mrs. Hillis, left, and Don Kenyon and Mrs. Kenyon, right.

Klamath Falls Shriners gathered Nov. 9 in the Klamath Auditorium to serve as hosts to the annual dinner dance. Honored guest at the "Hi-Lites" was Hillah Temple potentate Lynn Newbry of Talent, standing left above with Mrs. Newbry and Lloyd Griggs of Cottage Grove, member of the Divan. Al Nyback, president of the local Shrine Club, is seated between his daughter, Mrs. Monte Voight, left, and Mrs. Lloyd Griggs.

Wilson Wiley, general chairman, stands in the picture at right behind Mrs. Wiley, right, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Aldrich, also committee members. Others on the committee included Joe Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Milne and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Drew.

A social hour preceded the dinner dance. Music was played by Baldy's Band.

At left is an overall picture showing the outstanding decorations used to set the stage for the glittering evening. A lighted Shrine emblem outlined the head table and votive lights in branch candelabra lighted smaller side tables, all set beneath a ceiling of streamers and center lights which were given a chandelier-type dress for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Alley are pictured below.
