Stephanie Walker Weds M. R. Pickett

Stephanie Deanne Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen R. Walker, became the bride of Lt. Michael Raymond Pickett on Nov. 3 at the Kingsley Field Chapel. Decorations for the 2 o'clock double ring ceremony officiated by the Rev. Eugene Van Beveren were yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in candelabra.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pickett, Richmond, Ind., who were present for the ceremony. Mrs. Ronald Ormsby was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white brocade fashioned with boat neck, elbow length sleeves and bell skirt with wide floor length looped sash. A beaded pillbox held the elbow length illusion veil. The bridal bouquet was a colonial arrangement of white roses and ivy.

Mrs. Carl Davidson, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. The bride's two sisters, Ruth Walker and Melissa Walker, were her bridesmaids. The three attendants were dressed alike in gowns similar to the bride's, made of tangerine brocade. On their heads were small brocade pill box hats with self roses and short veils. Each carried a bouquet of talisman roses and ivy.

Lt. Carl Davidson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man, and Lt. Carl Paladino was groomsmen. Both are of Kingsley Field. Ushers were brothers of the bride, Brian Walker and Ralph Walker.

The reception was held following the ceremony at the Kingsley Field Officers Club. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Lynn Arnold and punch by Mrs. Terry Lepper. Presiding at the coffee services were Mrs. John Lehto, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. C. R. Canine.
