

Nancy Moehl, Klamath Falls, is among 68 Linfield College students participating in the year-long child study program of the Linfield Education Department.

Students in the program all expect to become public school teachers after graduation. The college students make case studies, prepare test results, and record anecdotal cards on the children they study.

Plans are now underway for Southern Oregon College's 1964 Skiasta which has been tentatively scheduled for Feb. 26 and 29. On the Skiasta committee, Chubbin Spero, this city, has been appointed secretary. The affair will be held either at Mt. Ashland or Mt. Shasta.

Fourteen Southern Oregon College undergraduates have been selected to have their names included in the 1963-64 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Among those selected for this honor are James L. Long, a senior in general studies (science-mathematics) from Malin, who is student body president, past president of President's Club, a member of Triangle Club and served on numerous committees.

Also selected is Chubbin Mae Spero, a senior in secondary education from Klamath Falls, who is a member of Phi Beta Lambda, Sigma Epsilon Pi, Freshman Orientation Committee, Business Club secretary and Associated Students of Southern Oregon College representative.

PROJECT: DECORATIONS — Mrs. Quinn Hawley, left, Mrs. Edward Livingston, center, and Mrs. Mario Martin work with juniper, cones and gold paint to create decorations for the AAUW Christmas party on Dec. 4. When completed, green tapers and green Christmas balls will accent the gold juniper for table centerpieces and the same combination will be hung as swags for the walls on the ballroom at the Winema Hotel.

AAUW Plan Yule Party

The annual AAUW Christmas party will be held Wednesday, Dec. 4, in the ballroom of the Winema Hotel. The festivities will begin at 6:30 p.m. with a social hour, and the buffet dinner will follow at 7:30 p.m.

Chairman of the party is Mrs. Jennings B. Johnson Jr., assisted by Mrs. Robert J. Grady, Mrs. Quinn L. Hawley, Mrs. Edward G. Livingston, Mrs. Mario E. Martin and Mrs. George E. Alotrico. The committee will serve as hostess for the evening and preside over the punch table.

The toastmistress will be Mariou O'Connor, president of the Klamath Falls Chapter of AAUW, who will give a brief talk on this year's Christmas gift project, the Hillcrest Home for Girls in Salem. Each member will bring an unwrapped gift of clothing, cosmetics, books, or jewelry which will be sent to the home for distribution on Christmas Day.

Entertainment will be provided by the Madrigal Choir of Sacred Heart Academy, under the direction of Sister M. Faustina, and violinist Patricia Isensee, an AAUW member and concert mistress in the Klamath Community Symphony Orchestra. She will be accompanied by Marie Obenchain.

Another AAUW member, Mrs. William Bradshaw, who is active in local little theatre productions, will present a humorous interpretative reading to conclude the program.

Selections to be sung by the choir include Maria Walks Among the Thorns, a German carol; Fred Waring's arrangement of Stille Nacht; Gloria, a Christmas Alleluia; Carol of the Russian Children; Mister Santa; and an Appalachian carol, Jesus, Jesus Rest Your Head.

Violin numbers by Patricia Isensee will be Adoration by Felix Borowski, German Dance by Von Dittersdorf, and What Child is This by Anon.

The AAUW Christmas party is the single function staged each year which is open only to members of the organization.

SORORITY PROJECT
DUNSMUIR — Xi Zeta Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority is gathering broken and discarded toys which will be renewed and distributed as "extra" toys to large families at Christmas time.

The latest social event of the chapter was a progressive dinner for members and their husbands. Mrs. Harry Marsh, Mrs. James Periera and Mrs. George Harrison were hostesses for the party courses.
