

GOLDENWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. Guy Emerson Bellant, former Klamath Falls residents now living in Portland, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Nov. 10.

Party Fetes Golden Pair

A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Guy Emerson Bellant on their golden wedding anniversary was an event of Nov. 10 in Portland at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Cooper. Mr. and Mrs. Bellant resided in Klamath Falls from 1932 to 1959 when he retired as a conductor for the Great Northern Railway. Since that time they have made their home in Portland.

The Bellants were married Nov. 10, 1913, in Fairchild, Wis. Their children include Mrs. Esther Sevcik, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Gordon West, Lawrence E. Bellant, all of Portland; Raymond E. Bellant, Albany, Ga., and Guy E. Bellant Jr., Okinawa. There are 13 grandchildren.

Following the reception, a dinner at Obie's Restaurant was served to approximately 60 relatives and friends to climax the anniversary celebration. Guests from Klamath Falls included Mrs. Bellant's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Westin; her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Pettis, and a niece, Mrs. Jo Lambertson and her son, David.

Pair Recite Nuptial Vows

Mrs. Bessie Smith, Klamath Falls, and William P. Morande, Malin, were united in marriage in an Oct. 5 double ring ceremony at the First Christian Church. The Rev. Robert L. John officiated. Fall flowers and tapers in four candelabra decorated for the 8 p.m. ceremony.

Mrs. Robert L. John was the organist and Mrs. Alita Leggett, the soloist.

The bride wore a two-piece beige silk shantung dress with matching accessories. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a crescent arrangement of yellow roses and stephanotis with center corsage of phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Ralph Hill, matron of honor, was dressed in a light blue tulle dress with overlay of lace. Her accessories were blue. Her bouquet was a combination of carnations, pompons in fall shades and natural wheat.

Fred Battis was best man and Terry Battis seated the guests who were members of the two families.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Agnes Drazil of Malin, wore for the occasion a black and white checked tulle dress with matching accessories. Her coronation candy sale and a rummage sale recently and with the proceeds will help a needy family at Christmas.

The girls also continue to remember their adopted grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Horn, who is in a rest home at Fairview, with cards and gifts.

DECORATIONS IN THE MAKING — Crepe paper streamers being cut by these girls will be used to fashion the red and pink background theme for the annual Fall Fantasy of Bethel 61, Job's Daughters, Nov. 30 in the Willard Hotel. Music for the semi-formal dance will be provided by The Tikis. Seated are Jane Neece, left, and Annette Fredrickson. Standing, left to right, are Cheryl Eccles, Suana Whytal and Sally Hanville.

Theta Rho Club Meets

Theta Theta Rho Girls Club No. 8 met last week and held initiation for two candidates, Lynda Cone and Kathy Stearns. At this meeting, Mrs. Helen Wheeler, Sutherland, a member of the joint youth committee, made her official visit. Following her talk she was presented a tribute and gift from the club.

Several members of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge 104 were also present. The club members staged a rental sale and a rummage sale recently and with the proceeds will help a needy family at Christmas.

The girls also continue to remember their adopted grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Horn, who is in a rest home at Fairview, with cards and gifts.

sage was of yellow roses.

The wedding reception was held at Molatore's Restaurant.

The newlyweds will make their home in Malin. The new Mrs. Morande is employed in the general administrative office of the city hall. Her husband is an employee of Lovness Lumber Company in Malin.

Special guests were Ralph Hill, Virginia Battis and Mrs. Mike Holland.

DINING OUT

CHICAGO (UPI) — Special occasions are a frequent reason for dining out, according to a survey by General Foods.

Results showed that 57 per cent of those interviewed said they like to visit a restaurant on a wedding anniversary, 44 per cent on a spouse's birthday, and 39 per cent on Mother's Day.
