

BETROTHAL TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lewis, this city, announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Ronald D. Markham, Stockton, Calif., at a recent reception in their home. Their wedding will take place in July of next year. The bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mrs. Julia T. Markham and the late Louis D. Markham of Stockton.

BRIDE-ELECT — Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stough announce the engagement of their daughter, Glenda Louise, to Richard Ivan Lehrman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard I. Lehrman. Both families reside in Klamath Falls. The wedding will take place Dec. 21 in Mt. Laki Community Church. The future bride is a graduate of Henley High School and her fiancé of Klamath Union High School. He will be graduated in December from Oregon Technical Institute.

Bride-To-Be Is Honored

ALTURAS — Three Alturas girls were home from college Saturday, Nov. 9, to honor Judy Larson with a miscellaneous shower at the Ralph Bowman home. Co-hostesses of the lovely affair that brought together nearly 50 friends of the young bride-to-be were Pat McCuniff, Bonnie Hickerson and Yvonne

Bowman. The four girls have been friends through their school days in Alturas.

Judy is to be married to Richard Phillips of Alturas Saturday, Nov. 30, at the Alturas Federated Church. She was given a bridge luncheon and shower in October by Mrs. Walter Gysin, Mrs. Herman Weber, Mrs. Steve Slinkard and Mrs. Jerome Hoxey at the Hoxey home.

NEAT TREAT

A room looks neater if dirt and finger smudges are washed off the walls, areas around door-knobs and light switches. You can keep suds from smearing walls or woodwork when you sponge a light switch plate. Cut out a heavy cardboard frame for the switch plate and hold it in place when cleaning. Be sure power is off.

Officials Visit Aux.

DUNSMUIR — District officials were guests at a recent initiation meeting of the Dunsmuir Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, No. 4718, at the VFW Hall.

District President Flora Ellis, Weaverville, was the guest speaker. Other dignitaries present included Mrs. Gloria Moulton, district color bearer, Redding, and Lester Burnall, district commander, Weaverville.

The current project of the Dunsmuir VFW auxiliary is accumulation of articles for a gift box for Camp White veterans.

GUEST OF HONOR — In honor of her 85th birthday, Mrs. Inga Dusenberry was honored at a dinner Nov. 6 in Bonanza by her nephew, Agnar Jordanger.

First Lady Is Nominated

Mrs. Mark O. Hatfield, wife of the governor of Oregon, has been recently honored by the Millinery Institute of America by nominating her as one of the "best-hatted" women of the year.

Each year the Millinery Institute of America presents seven Golden Hat Awards, one each in that many categories.

Mrs. Hatfield is nominated in the Public Affairs category along with Edna F. Kelly, U.S. delegate to the United Nations; Marietta Tree of the United Nations; Olveta Culp Hobby, publisher of the Houston Post, and Mrs. Richard Nixon, wife of the former vice president of the United States.

The six other categories are theatre, films, television, classical music, popular music and society.

Quota Club

Quota Club of Klamath County has been holding regular Tuesday luncheon meetings each week at Molator's Restaurant.

At the Nov. 19 meeting, David Card, local attorney, spoke to the group on the importance of wills for all families, with or without children.

The group also enjoyed the company of several guests, Mrs. Mary House, Mrs. Doris Argel-singer, Mrs. Vera Durant, Mrs. Pansy Boone, Mrs. Ann Steers, Mrs. Marian Linville and Mrs. Venice Dryden.

Recently the club enjoyed a potluck dinner at the home of Esther Newell on the Lakeview Highway.

Golden Hat Awards will be announced at the semi-annual millinery fashion show-brunch to be held in the Royal Box, Americana Hotel in New York City on Jan. 5, 1964, when National Press Week opens.

Birthday Is Observed

BONANZA — Agnar Jordanger entertained with a dinner at the Bonanza Cafe on Nov. 6, honoring his aunt, Mrs. Inga Dusenberry, on her 85th birthday. The two fall flower arrangements on the dining table were later presented to Mrs. Dusenberry and to Mrs. Frank Brown, who was celebrating her birthday on that date also.

A pretty white cake was decorated with yellow roses and "Happy Birthday Auntie" in yellow icing.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Dusenberry, Agnar Jordanger, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jordanger and Kimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Jake Werner and Karen, Mrs. Barbara Baird, Mrs. Bon Tyree, Mrs. Dick Bolens and Steve and Mr. and Mrs. John Brown.

A social evening followed the dinner.

Chapel Rites Unite Couple

Buna Nicks of Ashland and Ober C. Brown, Fort Klamath, were married Oct. 26 at Parks Wedding Chapel in Reno.

Wedding attendants for the couple were the bridegroom's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Morstad of Klamath Falls.

The bride chose a gold metallic dress and brown accessories for the ceremony. Mrs. Morstad wore a dress in old rose shade.

After a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe the newlyweds returned to Ashland where they are residing at 122 Laurel Street. The new Mrs. Brown is owner-operator of Nickie's Beauty Salon. Her husband is woods boss for the Bill Wampler Company of Chiloquin and is presently working at Medicine Lake.
