WASHINGTON (UPI)—With tears streaming down his face, Rep. John W. Byrnes stood before his colleagues Thursday to "swear before my God and this House" that no conflict of interest was involved in his dealings with a Milwaukee insurance company.

At the end of his speech, his colleagues, some visibly touched, stood and applauded. The Wisconsin Republican, a potential favorite son presiden-

Senators Do Slow Burn Over Call Girl Charge

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate scheduled debate Friday on a housekeeping money bill, but the burning issue was call girls and a charge that at least one senator keeps a couple on his payroll.

It was the senators who were burning. The target of their ire was Rep. Tom Steed, D-Okla., who made the call girl charge in connection with the $100 million legislative appropriation bill.

Steed, annoyed by the Senate's stand against free mailing privileges for congressmen, told a newsman a few weeks ago that the Senate had some privileges of its own. He mentioned that he knew of two call girls on an unspecified senator's payroll.

Senators appeared annoyed, about the views of Steed and his House colleagues on the "junk" mail issue as well as the call girl allegation. Prospects were that the senators would send the money bill back to a Senate-House Conference Committee where Steed heads the House delegation.

Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen, Ill., told newsmen before the debate began that Steed's remark was a "slur on every woman employed by the Senate." Dirksen, a somewhat florid wordsmith, referred to Steed last week as "the white charger from Oklahoma."

Steed told UPI he had volunteered to quit as head of House conferees after Dirksen's statement. But he said Rep. Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., doughy chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, vetoed any such action.

Dirksen was reported to have advised House leaders subsequently that there would be a discussion on the matter on the Senate floor.

Blanket Thieves Given Quarters In Warm Cell

MOUNT SHASTA — A sudden drop in temperature Monday evening is thought to have been a motive in a petty theft the following morning at Howard Priddy's Das Alpenhaus Inn in Mount Shasta.

On Tuesday when guests, James Calvin of Los Angeles and Julius Ray Slevy of Colorado Springs, awoke, they saw the terrain covered with snow and getting deeper by the minute. Each lifted a blanket from his bed before checking out, then departed — heading south.

As the blankets were recently purchased and somewhat expensive, the matter was turned over to the law rather than written off. The boys were quickly apprehended by their license number and brought be-

Minor Blast Hurts Trio

Three workmen were slightly injured from a minor explosion that occurred as they were purging the pipelines of a diesel oil tank at the Asphalt Paving Company, near the new OTI campus, about 9 a.m. Thursday, the Suburban Fire Department has reported.

The injured who sustained flash burns on their faces and hands were Ray Byrnes, 3320 Quarry Street; Bob Milton, 2709 Kane Street; Gus Gegas, 3336 Quarry Street. The workmen were not hospitalized and returned to work immediately after the incident.

Firemen believe the explosion resulted when oil vapors came in contact with a hot fuel tank.

Home Here Looted Of Jewelry

The home of a Klamath Falls teacher was burglarized Thursday night and a quantity of jewelry taken.

Truman Johnson, 419 Delta Street, told police he and his wife left the house at 7:10 p.m. for a meeting and returned at 11:40 p.m. to find two bedrooms of the house ransacked.

He said both doors of the house had been locked when he left, but police believe the burglar gained entry by using a skeleton key on the back door.

Taken from the two bedrooms were a diamond ring valued at $150, a wedding band valued at $25, an opal ring, a jewel box, two women's watches valued at $35 and $15, 10 to 15 necklaces valued at $30, a gold necklace valued at $25, and two boxes of 22 cartridges.

The next Farm Bureau meeting will be held on Dec. 18. There will be a discussion of the state convention in Salem which was attended by Lane and several other members.

U.S. Okays 'Chicken War' Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A basis for settlement of the U.S.-common market "chicken war" has been reached with American acceptance Thursday of the findings by a panel of trade experts.

The panel, established by the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), estimated that the United States lost $26 million a year in its exports to the common market because of the market countries' prohibitive duty on poultry imports.

Christian A. Herter, the President's special representative for trade negotiations, said in a statement that the United States will now proceed with plans to increase American tariffs on selected items equivalent to $26 million worth of common market imports into this country.

Noting that the tariff experts' estimate of the losses to the United States were $20 million less U.S. estimates, Herter said:

"It is a judgment rendered by a panel of distinguished individuals who are thoroughly familiar with GATT practices and procedures and it will therefore be accepted by the United States in good faith."

The strongest point of their partnership is accurate bidding. Today's hand shows them at their best. Anyone can reach a minor suit slam with their cards, but when this hand came up in the Philadelphia regional they were the only couple to bid it. A few pairs played a club or diamond game, but most people reached three no-trump and promptly went down one trick.

The club opening, diamond response and club rebid were normal. Peggy's two no-trump rebid was also normal, although most players jumped to three no-trump with her cards. Peggy felt that such a jump should indicate better stuff in the majors and she sure was right.

Charley's bid of three diamonds told Peggy that at least one major would be wide open so she went to four clubs.

Charley bid four spades. He saw slam possibilities and had nothing to lose. Peggy surely would not pass.

The four spade bid gave Peggy a chance for a fine deduction. Charley had bid three suits. Surely he would not have shown the ace of spades if he held two losing hearts. As for spade losers, Peggy had that five card diamond suit, so Peggy closed the bidding at six clubs.

Meters By P.O. To Be Extended

City Manager Robert Kyle indicated today that the city was going to modify the parking meters in the immediate vicinity of the temporary post office on Klamath Avenue to make them 24-minute meters instead of 12 minutes.

"We've found that with the Christmas rush coming up," Kyle said, "12 minutes is just not time enough, in many cases, to transact postal business."

He estimated that the reworking of the meters would be completed sometime Friday.
