

READY TO HELP — These officers of Klamath Falls Lodge No. 1247 BPOE are busy making arrangements for the Charity Ball Friday night, Dec. 6. Dancing will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Elks Temple. Part of the proceeds will go to help fill Santa's Pantry for the Christmas baskets that the Elks Lodge prepare each year for the less fortunate. Left to right are Bill Carter, treasurer; Joe Victor, esquire; Paul Whitman, chaplain; Bob Craig, exalted ruler; Walter Sadorek, leading knight; and Oscar DeNault, loyal knight.

Federal Funds Sought For Addition To School

The Klamath County School District is seeking $94,277.65 in federal funds for construction of a four-classroom addition to the Falcon Heights School.

A resolution adopted by the County School Board authorizes Superintendent of Schools Cliff Robinson to file an application with the U.S. commissioner of education requesting the United States government to aid in constructing the addition. The addition has been estimated to cost $94,277.65 and the application will be filed for that amount.

The money will be sought under Public Law 815. The board is seeking to add four classrooms to the school and the addition will include equipment, paved play area and sidewalks.

Robinson was also authorized to provide the federal government with the necessary documents to support the application.

When Buick builds a LeSabre... Buick builds a high-priced car, and puts a low price on it.

Lots of cars are in the LeSabre's price class, but that's where the resemblance ends. For impressive Buick performance and new gas economy? No. And who else gives you 15-inch wheels, flared aluminum front brakes, extra cushioning for middle-seat travelers, and separate heat ducts and controls for the rear seat? Right again. Nobody in LeSabre's field but LeSabre. If all this makes you think a LeSabre would look awfully nice in your garage, you should see how nicely it fits a budget. You know who to see about it, of course: your Buick dealer. Who else? Above all, it's a Buick.

No Play Sometimes

By OSWALD JACOBY

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

With certain card combinations there is no right play. You just have to guess. For one such combination there are probably five or six where there is a right play and maybe two or three wrong plays.

South's jump to four hearts was quite sound and if West had opened anything but a trump South should have had very little trouble with his contract, but opponents aren't always cooperative. West did open the deuce of trumps.

South won in dummy and promptly led a spade to his king. West grabbed his ace and led a second trump. He got in again to lead a third trump and South wound up losing three spades and a club, his contract and his partner's esteem.

It seems that trick had found a way to go wrong at South one. He should have won the first trick in his own hand and led a spade toward dummy's jack. Once South made that play the defense would have been helpless. If West rose with the queen there would have been no need to ruff a spade. South would have developed a sure spade trick while if West played low dummy's jack would have been a winner.

Of course, South pointed out that the lead toward his jack would not have done him any good if East had the queen of spades, but in that case there was no winning play at South's disposal. With the cards placed as they were the lead toward dummy had to win.

Damage Light As Autos Hit

Two automobiles collided while negotiating turns at Bristol Avenue and Summers Lane about 8 a.m., Thursday, resulting in minor damage to the vehicles and no injuries to the motorists. Oregon State Police have reported.

Cited for making an improper left turn was Mrs. Fred A. Schumann, 3351 Crest Street, who was turning from Bristol Avenue onto Summers Lane when the car she was operating struck a vehicle driven by Harold J. Daniels, 4238 Bristol. The latter was turning onto Bristol from Summers Lane at the time of the accident, police said.

Congress Returns To Busy Schedule

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress swung back into its legislative business today from the tragedy-marred weekend of President Kennedy's assassination.

But the Senate and House began only two days of work before recessing for the Thanksgiving holidays, and their legislative goals remained unchanged pending word from President Johnson.

That word is expected Wednesday when the new President will address a joint session of Congress at 12:30 p.m. EST. The general expectation is that he will plea for an end to "hate" talk and embrace the Kennedy program in a general way.

The Senate is expected to defeat today or Wednesday a measure by Rep. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., that might doom the late President's proposal to sell surplus American wheat to Russia.

By a vote of 8 to 7, the Senate Banking Committee Monday recommended against passage of the measure but sent it to the floor. It would prohibit the government from underwriting loans for the expected $250 million grain deal.

The Soviet Union wants to buy the wheat for 25 per cent down with 18 months to pay the balance. Commercial banks are reported unwilling to extend such credit without government guarantee.

Few legislators claimed to be able to read the thoughts of the new Johnson administration and without such foresight, the House is set to clean up work it expected to do before Dec. 20 and adjourn.

That work started today with the scheduling of action on a so-called continuing resolution, which would authorize through December Treasury disbursements for the eight agencies and programs whose funds for the 1963-64 fiscal year have not been appropriated.

Recreation Program Evaluated

Two representatives of the Oregon Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation were in Klamath Falls last week to evaluate the city Parks and Recreation Department.

Similar reports are being studied by the association in preparation for the presentation of the association's annual award to one department.

Inspecting the Klamath Falls department were Dr. Lynn Rodney, chairman of the recreation management curriculum, University of Oregon; and Edward Slezak, associate professor, chairman of the education recreation curriculum, Oregon State University.

All appropriation bills except foreign aid have passed the House, but seven others—Agriculture, State, Justice, Commerce, independent offices, legislative, District of Columbia, public works and military construction—still require Senate or other action.

The foreign aid money bill is hanging fire until the Senate and House authorization bills for the program and the Peace Corps are completed. The foreign aid money issue may be the last big flap of the session.

Tax Drive Expected As Before

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate veterans felt today there would be no slackening under President Johnson of the drive for congressional passage of the biggest tax cut program in history.

The $11 billion tax reduction bill, passed Sept. 25 by the House, is stalled in the Senate Finance Committee until next year.

At the very minimum, Senate observers expect Johnson to urge the tax-writing panel to catch up on the few days it has lost and finish public hearings on the "new frontier" bill before Congress quits this year.

"He's a get-it-done sort of fellow," said Sen. Russell B. Long, La., who holds a key spot as second-ranking Democrat on the finance group.

"I expect Johnson to lay an ambitious program before Congress Wednesday. I suppose he will want the Kennedy program passed. My guess is that he is going to keep us here and ask us to work."

This doesn't mean the Senate will pass tax cuts this year for every American taxpayer and corporation. Backers of the tax bill, unable to blast it out of the committee headed by Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., abandoned hope weeks ago for final action this session.

It does mean that Johnson, a master practitioner of the "art of the possible" when he was Senate Democratic leader, may persuade Byrd to complete as much work on the bill as possible before the 1964 election year.

Cambodia Linked With China

TOKYO (UPI) — Cambodia, which renounced all United States aid, has signed an airlines service agreement with Communist China, according to a Peking broadcast by the official New China News Agency (NCNA).

The Communist report said the agreement was signed in Phnom Penh Monday following negotiations which began two weeks ago. It was effective immediately, the broadcast said.

The agreement will give Chinese aircraft direct access to neutral Cambodia, which has a key location in troubled Southeast Asia, directly south of Laos between Thailand and Viet Nam.

Cambodian chief of state Prince Norodom Sihanouk renounced all U.S. economic and military aid last week, charging that the United States was backing a Cambodian rebel group operating out of South Viet Nam. The aid had totaled more than $30 million this year.

He has denied that he plans to replace American aid with help from Red China. A statement from Cambodia last week said aid would be received from France.

Mikoyan Carries Message To LBJ From Khrushchev

MOSCOW (UPI) — Anastas Mikoyan, Soviet first deputy premier, will use his current Washington trip to give President Johnson an official message from Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, informed sources said today.

Diplomats speculated that Khrushchev may be seeking a meeting with Johnson to size up the new President.

Apparent apprehension of the Kremlin toward the future policy of the United States has emerged clearly in statements

Connally Views TV

DALLAS (UPI) — Gov. John B. Connally, wounded when President Kennedy was assassinated, sat up in bed Monday and watched the martyred president's funeral on television.

It was a personal loss for Connally, who did not know that Kennedy was dead until the following day. Connally was a friend of the Chief Executive and had served as his first secretary of the Navy.

The governor sent his 17-year-old son John Jr. to represent him at the funeral. His wife, Nellie, stayed with him at the hospital.

Connally was rapidly recovering and Dr. Thom Shires, chief surgeon at Parkland Memorial Hospital, said he is in excellent condition.

Shotgun Blast Hurts Youths

ST HELENS (UPI) — Four young persons were struck but not seriously injured by shotgun pellets Sunday night on a farm near Warren, Sheriff Roy Wilburn said today.

A sheriff said Roy Buck, who lives at the farm, reported he had been bothered recently by persons fooling around his barn. The sheriff quoted Buck as saying he fired from a car with a shotgun.

Sherriff Wilburn said a group of young persons in a convertible told him they had gone to the residence to look for a friend but left after deciding they did not know anyone there. No charges had been filed.

GOP Must Reappraise 1964 Campaign Plans

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican leaders began taking a wary look at President Johnson today to see how his policies might affect their campaign and presidential choice in 1964.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, who is not an announced candidate, is still judged the man in front in terms of potential delegate strength at the Republican National Convention.

He has said he would make a decision in January whether to become a candidate for the presidential nomination. He now may delay that decision because of reappraisals coming up inside the GOP.

The Republicans must begin to function under a new set of rules because they must prepare to campaign against Johnson instead of the late President Kennedy.

Political Truce

While the Johnson administration was being launched, however, some Republican leaders were willing to declare a political truce to extend beyond the Christmas holidays.

If the Goldwater drive should fizzle, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov.

William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania will get much attention as possibilities and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York can expect more.

There is feeling evident in Republican circles here that another man spoken of as a possibility, Gov. George Romney of Michigan, was badly hurt when his Republican dominated state legislature junked his tax program.

In any case, the GOP will watch the Johnson program unfold, beginning with his speech to a joint session of Congress Wednesday, and carry on a continuing re-examination of their own campaign preparations.

South Is Power
A typical appraisal recognizes that the South is at least one of the Goldwater bases of power—both for national convention delegates and for electoral votes in the 1964 presidential election.
