OVER THE GARDEN GATE

JUNIPER GARDEN CLUB

The Juniper Garden Club held its silver tea and table setting contest on Nov. 16 at the Shasta Grange Hall. Participation by garden clubs in the Klamath District was gratifying as this is the first time an event of this type has been held locally.

Mrs. Lola Van Schoeck was in charge of the tea table, assisted by Mrs. Wallace Uerlings. Presidents of district clubs poured during the afternoon.

Mrs. Maryva Ambuhl, vice president of the State Federation, Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer and Mrs. Theodore Fish of Tulelake acted as judges and the following awards were presented:

Section for club entries — A Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner table setting: 1st, Juniper Garden Club; 2nd, Mt. Laki Garden Club, and 3rd, Tulelake Garden Club.

Section for individual entries — Dinner table: 1st, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings; 2nd, Mrs. B. C. Johnson; 3rd, Mrs. David Goehring. Buffet: 1st, Mrs. Chester Main; 2nd, Mrs. Dick Cary. Tea Table: 1st, Mrs. Opal Ferguson; 2nd, Mrs. Chester Main; 3rd, Mrs. W. S. Meier. Breakfast or brunch: 1st, Mrs. Scott McKendree; 2nd, Mrs. William North; 3rd, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings. The "Best of Show" went to Mrs. Scott McKendree of Juniper Garden Club.

Attend Installation

Mrs. J. C. Stevenson has returned from Oakland where she was present for the installation of her daughter, Mrs. Zerline Wray, as worthy matron of Lake Merritt Chapter OES. Her husband, Russell Wray, was installed as worthy patron. Also present for the event were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Noakes, Macdonald, Calif., sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Wray, and Mrs. Roy Pierce, 76, of Oakland, Mrs. Wray's aunt.

The honored couple's niece and nephew, Carol Ann and Jamie Stevenson, were escorts for the ceremony. Larry L. Wray Jr. presented the gavel made of Oregon myrtle wood to his grandparents.

Mrs. Earl Jones and Robert Heath were host and hostess at the beautifully appointed reception that followed the installation.

For her appearance Mrs. Wray, born and reared in Klamath County, chose a pale pink, floor-length formal of pure silk. Carol Ann, Modesto, Calif., 18, wore white embroidered nylon with graduated ruffles from waist to floor.

Mrs. J. C. Stevenson and the late Mr. Stevenson were pioneer ranchers in Klamath County and near Tulelake. Mrs. Stevenson now makes her home at 6122 Hilliard Avenue.

WOM Meet

The Merrill Chapter No. 18, Women of the Moose, met Nov. 19 with 15 members present. Senior Regent Liz Slezak presided.

Anna Hartlerode reported an enjoyable time at the Academy of Friendship meeting held recently at her home.

Committee reports were heard and Evelyn King was awarded the special prize.

Announcement was made of the Christmas party which will start with a potluck supper at the Moose Home for members and their families on Dec. 17. This will be followed by a gift exchange for the women at the recreation hall preceding the regular meeting.

Refreshments were served to the men and women of the Moose by the library committee.

The next regular meeting will be Dec. 3 with the social service committee in charge of the program. Officers are requested to wear formal for the initiation ceremony.

Increased leisure time and higher standards of living encourage the pursuit of a musical hobby.
