

Dallas Principal Denies Minister's Charge That 4th Graders Cheered

DALLAS (UPI) — An elementary school principal Wednesday denied nationally televised charges by a local minister who said fourth graders "cheered" when they heard President Kennedy was assassinated.

H. G. Williams said there was no announcement about the shooting or death of the President to the youngsters.

He said an announcement was read over a public address system instructing the students to go home immediately, but not telling them why.

Williams said the children may have cheered at the announcement to go home, like normal youngsters would. Classes were dismissed because of the assassination. Police today guarded the home of the Rev. William A. Holmes, the pastor who made the accusation. He and his wife went to an unsecured place after threatening telephone calls were received.

A fourth grade teacher who said she understood University Park Elementary School was the one Rev. Holmes had in mind, denied children there cheered at the President's death.

"I am chairman of fourth grades at the school," Mrs. Genevieve Cleveland said. "And we had no such thing in any of the classes."
