ALVAS C. ELLIOTT

Eagle Meet Honors A. C. Elliott

LAKEVIEW—About 160 visitors, including state and national officers, registered for the mid-winter conference of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Goose Lake Aerie 2183, held at the lodge rooms here Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 16-17. General chairman for the program was Harold Langslet, secretary of the local lodge.

The meetings opened with registration at 12 noon on Saturday, followed by an auxiliary executive board meeting and a report by the committee on ritual rules for the state convention. The events that followed included the state hearing aid trust fund trustees meeting; men's executive board meeting; civic service award banquet; joint state aerie and auxiliary executive board meeting for the purpose of signing state convention contracts; and dance and entertainment at the aerie hall.

On Sunday the conference opened with a breakfast served at the hall. Following were the men's ritual clinic; auxiliary panel discussion for ritual and drill team judges; men's leadership clinic for aerie officers and membership chairmen; women's open discussion for general questions on ritual competition; men's parliamentarian clinic; lunch at the aerie hall; and a joint meteting witht introduction of grand lodge representatives and state officers.

Alvas C. "Buck" Elliott of Lakeview was presented with the civic award for outstanding community service by The Goose Lake Aerie, highlighting the mid-winter area conference.

A secret committee of the lodge had made the selection, but the announcement was not made until banquet time. The announcement was made by Mayor Lane Thornton, with whom Elliott has been associated on the town council for several years.

Elliott was born Feb. 25, 1907, at Eldorado Springs, Mo. Before coming to Lakeview in the late 1920s, the family resided at Buhl, Idaho, and he attended Northwest Nazarine College at Nampa.

At Lakeview he was first engaged in logging with his uncle, George Elliott, and in 1934 was logging for Hamaker and Hild. In 1935 he started work as bartender for Tom Sullivan at what is now the Round-up Tavern, and continued there until the business was sold about 1944.

During the war he also worked nights at the American Box Company moulding plant, and since leaving the tavern has continued full time at the moulding plant, now American Forest Products. He has been plant superintendent for more than eight years.

On Oct. 28, 1934, he was married to Josephine Arzner and they have one son, Alvas Jr., one grandson, Charles, and one branddaughter, Susan.

He has been a member of the Lakeview Volunteer Fire Department for 28 years and serves as captain, and a member of the Lake County Disaster Unit since it was started about 1950, serving as president for the past two years. He was appointed to the town council April 12, 1955, to succeed Joe Cooper, and served until October, 1963, when he resigned. Most of the time he was president of the council and served on all committees.

He was a Boy Scout cubmaster for three years and still gives first aid training to Boy Scouts each year. He has been a Red Cross first aid instructor for about 13 years and trained many classes of adults and young people during that time.
