

Installation Slated For Grange Officers

New officers for all granges in Klamath County will be installed Dec. 8 at the Midland Grange Hall.

BIG WINNER
LAS CRUCES, N.M. (UPI)—Warren Woodson, head coach at New Mexico State, is the number one winner among active college football coaches with career total of 206 wins, 93 losses and 18 ties.

This was announced last week at a meeting of the Midland Grange. It was further announced that 23 members of the Midland Grange traveled to Portland to take the Seventh Degree in the National Grange. In all, 51 grange members from Klamath County attended the Portland session.

The Midland Grange's Christmas program will be held Dec. 22, preceding a dinner. Home Economics Club chairman Alice Hoover reported the next H.E.C. meeting and Christmas party would be held at the home of Minnie Andrieu on Lower Klamath Road Dec. 17 at 1 p.m.

Legislative Committee chairman James Flowers reported that a grange resolution is pending regarding the proposed state sales tax.

Youth chairman Virginia Scala reported the youth will hold a dance Nov. 29 at 8 p.m. in the Midland Grange Hall.

It was announced that Homer Styles of the Shasta View Grange and Olga Bradshaw of the Merrill Grange have been appointed grange insurance agents for Klamath County.

James Flowers presented a program on a quiz on grange dues and past grange masters. Rub Andrieu gave a Thanksgiving reading. The next regular meeting of the Midland Grange will be held Dec. 4.

CHRISTMAS PROMOTION — Three billboards appealing for support of The Salvation Army's Christmas program have been donated to the installation in this area by Claude Chase, left, owner of the United Outdoor Advertising Company. Capt. Dale Johnson, right, local commander, said this is the fifth Christmas season that member firms of the Outdoor Advertising Association of America have given billboard space to The Salvation Army's holiday fund raising campaign. This poster, on Klamath Avenue between Ninth and Tenth streets, carries a full color photo of a Salvation Army lassie, the familiar Red Shield of the Army, and the simple message, "Share With Others."

Lakeview To Host Summer Range Tour

LAKEVIEW — On returning from the meeting in Portland last week of the Pacific Northwest Section, Society of Range Management, Bill Moser, county extension agent, reported that the summer range tour of the group would be held here June 18-19.

It is expected that some 100 men and their wives will attend the meeting from the region that is made up of British Columbia, Washington and Oregon. The program has not yet been set up.

Management, and Mr. and Mrs. Rube Long of Silver Lake, Mrs. Rouse also accompanied her husband.

Simpson, supervisor of the Fremont Forest, was one of the speakers on the program, talking on "Range Management — Its Place in the Laminating Act." George Lea, district manager for the BLM, was chairman of a panel discussion on the selection and use of range management systems.

Widow Illustrates Diploma Need

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: Please keep encouraging girls as well as boys to get a high school diploma and then go on and get some sort of training which will enable them to earn a living later in life if they have to.

I know it all. Nobody could tell me anything. My husband was 22 and had a college degree. I was beautiful and sweet and he didn't think it was important for me to stay in high school and get my diploma. Why should I have to know anything? He would take care of me for the rest of my life! So, my heavy-hearted father walked me down the aisle and I was married at 17.

We had three children in six years. I devoted myself to my family. My husband went to night school and got a master's degree in business administration. Strange that he appreciated the value of education for himself—but not for me.

Five weeks ago my husband dropped dead of a heart attack at the age of 42. He left $15,000 in insurance and a $20,000 mortgage on our home, plus some big bills. I have three children to send to college within the next five years. I must go to work but I'm not trained for anything. I realize now as never before the necessity of preparing for the future, since none of us knows what it may bring.

Please print this letter as a warning from someone who had to learn the hard way. —SAD SANDRA for your letter. I hope the thousands of young girls see it and take the hint.

Dear Sandra: Many thanks

Dear Ann Landers: I work in a plant which has an unattended newsstand. It is the habit of certain employees to help themselves to the newspaper which prints your column. They take it into the cafeteria and read for about 10 minutes before the work day begins.

When they put the paper back, it usually has doughnut grease, breadcrumbs or coffee stains on it. Poor clumps (like me) who pay have to read a crumpled, pawed-over paper.

It would not upset me so if these people were destitute and couldn't afford the few pennies. But as is usually the case, the ones who have the most money are the cheapest.

I am writing in the hope that you will print my letter so the people involved will see how petty this practice looks to others.—PAYING CUSTOMER

Dear Customer: There will always be people who want something for nothing. For them there is no cure. They can't be shamed, cajoled or chided into changing their ways, so don't try.

Surely all the papers aren't panned over, so why not take yours from the bottom of the pile?

Dear Ann Landers: If a girl slaps a boy's face, for no reason whatever, is the boy justified in slapping her back?

Several of us teenagers are waiting for your answer because it happened to one of the greatest kids in our crowd and we want to know if what he did was right. Thank you. —JASPER, IND.

Dear Jasper: There's a reason for everything. The fact that you don't know the reason doesn't mean there is none.

The boy who got a clonk in the chops may or may not have done a little something to earn it. If he was absolutely innocent then the girl is an erratic impulsive loon.

A boy who hits a girl for any reason whatever puts himself squarely in her class. The better approach is to take her straight home and lose her phone number.

Ann Landers frank and informative new book, "Teenagers and Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
