Legislators Will Return Monday To Try To Settle Boardman Issue

SALEM (UPI) —The Oregon Legislature returns to the Capitol Building Monday to take up the politically explosive Boardman controversy.

The all-Republican state land board, and the Democratic Senate and House leaders all have urged approval of special legislation to clear technical clouds on the state's title to the land so Boeing's attorneys can give their final endorsement to the project.

The $4.6 million, 77-year lease between the state and Boeing for the 100,000-acre space age industrial park in northeastern Oregon already has been signed.

The state cannot back out. Boeing has until Dec. 15 to decide if it wants to honor the document.

If special legislation asked by Gov. Mark Hatfield is enacted, Boeing's attorneys supposedly would be required to certify that the state has authority to lease the lands — and Boeing would no longer be able to withdraw from the contract.

It's another in a series of crises that have plagued the project since it was started three years ago.

The 1961 Legislature appropriated nearly $1 million. Another $522,000 is needed now.

Hatfield proposed shifting the project from the land board to the common school fund. Lawmakers proposed shifting it instead to the financially independent Veterans' Affairs agency.

Howard Morgan, Ex-Oregon Public Utility Commissioner, former Federal Power Commissioner, and possible 1966 Democratic gubernatorial candidate, blasted the project as "lopsided ...one-sided," and charged "it puts the state flat on its back for a period of 77 years."

The polish which Hatfield had worked so hard to apply to the project began to tarnish.

Lawmakers read the bill again, and talked at having to ratify all the deals made to create the park.

Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton said "a grave question exists as to the constitutionality" of the proposed bill.

Two northeastern Oregon legislators, Rep. Jack L. Smith, D-Condon, whose district includes the Boardman project, and Rep. Clinton P. Haight, D-Baker, announced at a Portland press conference Tuesday they would oppose the project.

Warne Nunn, Hatfield's executive assistant, termed their announcement "political claptrap, and added "if these obstructionists were sincere they would have raised these questions two and one-half years ago."

Hatfield continues to express complete enthusiasm for the project.

His colleagues on the land board, Secretary of State Howell Appling Jr., and Treasurer Howard Belton, have been less enthusiastic, but say it's too late now to back out.

Senate President Ben Musa and House Speaker Clarence Barton — both Democrats—continue to endorse the project.

It seems likely they have already polled the House and Senate and know they have the needed votes.

It also can be expected the Democrats will make sure the issue is kept alive. If the Boardman deal goes through and does not immediately become a dynamic industrial site throbbing with activity—which it won't—Democrats can use it politically as a whipping boy.

However, if the legislature does not approve the project, the Republicans will be able to point to its defeat—and claim the state was deprived of its greatest industrial opportunity.

It would be unrealistic to expect the Democrats to give the Republicans such an issue.

Assassination Fails To Alter Southern Segregation Views

ATLANTA (UPI) — President Kennedy's assassination will change neither the drive for Negro rights nor the views of Southern segregationists.

This was the consensus of a South-wide survey conducted by United Press International.

In the South, as in the rest of the country, the tragic events of the past weekend first brought shock, then grief and then a quiet assessment of what's to come.

Many Southerners think there will be a change in the impetus from Washington for civil rights and watch President Johnson's administration for indications of this.

But Negro leaders vowed there would be no let-up in their drive against racial discrimination.

"Time is Past"

"The time is past when Negro protests were a momentary emotional phenomena . . ," said integration leader Martin Luther King Jr.

Florida NAACP Field Secretary Robert Saunders of Tampa echoed these sentiments:

"We can not sit back and wait. They (whites) may get the picture we are not going to push now."

Saunders said that Johnson's Southern background might mean that he will not push as hard for civil rights as President Kennedy, but added: "My idea is that he is aware of the (racial problem and knows it is a world problem. I would hope so."

King said he was "deeply encouraged" that President Johnson "gave the civil rights bill such a prominent place" in his first address as President.

He sent the President a telegram Wednesday expressing "my deep appreciation to you for this heroic and courageous affirmation of our democratic ideals. . ."

Room For Question

In Washington, the Rev. Walt E. Auntroy, a director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) which King heads, said there is "room for question and room for doubt" about Johnson's commitment to civil rights even though he has spoken out forcefully and tried hard to halt racial discrimination in employment.

Alabama's segregationist Gov. George Wallace issued public statement denying reports that President Kennedy's death caused him to change his views on segregation. "I have not altered my position at all," he said.

Interviews of dozens of persons and a sampling of Southern editorial comment indicate that while emotions were deeply stirred, opinions on the racial issue are still the same and the battle is still on.

Dummy Takes Ball

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

South's four and five no-trump bids represented a determined effort to get a grand slam, but when North showed only one king South decided to settle for what he thought would be a cinch little slam.

One look at dummy showed South that even that cinch little slam might require a lot of play.

Of course, if spades were to break 3-3 South would have 12 easy tricks. Suppose they didn't?

South considered playing two rounds of trumps and then going after spades. If the spades were 3-3 or the man with the long spades was long in trumps also that play would succeed.

How about trying some sort of a squeeze? It might work easily. There were threat cards in three suits. Then South saw the best line of play. The hand was just about perfect for a dummy reversal provided trumps would break 3-2.

He ducked the first club, won the second, entered the dummy with the ace of diamonds, ruffed his last club with the ace of trumps, reentered dummy with the king of diamonds, ruffed a diamond with the king of trumps, played a low trump to dummy's 10 and cashed the nine of hearts. South ruffed dummy's last diamond with his own last trump and went over to dummy with the queen of spades.

This allowed him to discard his last low spade on dummy's queen of trumps and make the last trick with his ace and king of spades.

NATIONAL FOREST TIMBER FOR SALE
Glades Well

Oral auction bids will be received by the Forest Supervisor, or his authorized representative at the office of the Forest Supervisor, Lakeview, Oregon, beginning at 10:30 a.m. December 30, 1963 for all merchantable timber marked or designated for cutting on an area embracing 3,590 acres, more or less, within sections 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, T. 27 S., R. 13 E.; Sec. 35, T. 27 S., R. 12 E.; Secs. 1 & 2, T. 28 S., R. 12 E. W.M. surveyed, in the Fremont National Forest, Oregon. The estimated volumes of live and recently dead (sound sapwood) timber are: 3,750 M board feet of ponderosa pine. The minimum acceptable bid per M board feet is as follows: Ponderosa pine $20.95. This includes the following rates, per M board feet for stumpage including deposit for sale area betterment, $2.00 base rate plus an additional $15.30 for ponderosa pine and $7.75 for slash disposal for all species. The stumpage rates payable for each species will be increased by the amortization rate in effect for that species when the unamortized estimated cost of the main haul roads has been amortized by timber scaled. The unamortized estimated cost is $15,274.67. Amortization rates are: Ponderosa pine, $3.12 per M board feet. Amortization of estimated main haul road costs is computed on 80 percent of the estimated timber volume. The purchaser may request that the contract provide for more rapid amortization of the estimated cost of roads which must be constructed before normal logging operations will be possible. In addition there is within the sale area an unestimated volume of older dead (unsound sapwood) all species logs which will be paid for at $1.00 per M board feet which includes required deposit for sale area betterment, plus $0.00 for slash disposal. The prices bid for stumpage for live and recently dead (sound sapwood) timber shall be considered as tentative rates subject to quarterly calendar adjustment upward or downward by 0.5 of the difference between the average of the Western Pine Association Lumber Price Indices as calculated by the Forest Service at the end of each calendar quarter, and the following base indices: Ponderosa pine, $6.21. Such adjustments in the price for stumpage shall be applicable to timber scaled during the calendar quarter for which the adjustment is computed. In no event, however, shall the payment rates for each quarter be less than the base rates as stated above. When the adjusted rates by species are lower than the base rates, the difference between the total dollar value of timber cut at adjusted rates and at base rates will be recorded for each species. The stumpage rates for any species will not be increased above the base rate until the subsequent adjusted rates above base rates develop an accumulated total dollar value in excess of the recorded accumulated difference for all species. Sealed bids will be publicly opened and posted at Lakeview, Oregon, at 10:30 a.m. on December 30, 1963. All those who submitted a satisfactory sealed bid will be permitted immediately to continue auction bidding. A money order, bank draft, cashier's, or certified check in the sum of $14,300.00 must accompany each bid, to be applied to the purchase price, refunded, or retained for application to any claim for damages, according to the conditions of sale. If requested by the purchaser, contract terms will permit felling of timber in advance of payment up to the value of the performance bond. If an oral bid is declared to be high at the closing of the auction, the bidder must immediately confirm the oral bid by submitting it in writing on a Forest Service bid form. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved. Forest Service bid forms for use in submitting sealed bids and full information concerning the timber, the conditions of sale and the submission of bids, should be obtained from the District Ranger, Silver Lake, Oregon or the Forest Supervisor, Lakeview, Oregon before bids are submitted.
