

Symphony Given Name

The name of the Klamath Community Symphony has been changed to the "Klamath Symphony" by a vote of the board of directors at their last meeting. This change was made to prevent further confusion with the Klamath Community Concert Association. Separate tickets are required for the Klamath Symphony concerts and will cost $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

The symphony is sponsored by service clubs and professional clubs of the Klamath area. The board of directors is made up of representatives of these groups.

Present board officers include Quinn Hawley, chairman; Mrs. George Blanas, secretary, and Mrs. Mary Bothwell, treasurer.

Residents of the Klamath Basin are reminded of the first concert of the Klamath Symphony to be presented on Tuesday, Dec. 3, at Mills School Auditorium. The program begins at 8 p.m.

Tickets are sold through the sponsoring groups AAUW, Quota Club, Soroptimist Club, Business and Professional Women's Club, Woman's Library Club, Klamath Falls Lions Club, Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club and the Linkville Kiwanis Club.

Tickets are also available at

BAZAAR WORK

BONANZA — Bonanza Women's Club met at the library Nov. 19 for an all-day work meeting to finish up articles for the annual bazaar to be held Dec. 7. Mrs. John Brown is general chairman. Pixie dolls, tea towels and aprons were finished and boxes were covered with Christmas paper for bazaar articles and for the homemade candy which will be made all day Dec. 5. There will also be a day for making Christmas arrangements and wreaths. Articles for the white elephant sale were gift wrapped.

There will be a food sale in connection with the bazaar with Mrs. Mike Ketcham and Mrs. Harold Williams in charge.

Derby's Music Store, Bowden's Music Store, Chamber of Commerce and from Mary Bothwell at First Federal Savings and Loan.

Under the direction of Norman Poulshock, the symphony is now rehearsing the program which will include parts of Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite and the Overture to Mozart's opera, Don Giovanni. Other numbers will be works of Bizet, Hindemith and German. The choir is now rehearsing "In Praise of Music" by Hindemith as a closing number.

Final rehearsals for both choir and symphony will be held on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 1, and Monday evening, Dec. 2.

SANTA'S HELPERS — These Lady Elks, wives of the officers, are busy planning the decorations for the Elk's Charity Ball. This gala event will be held Friday, Dec. 6, at the Elk's Temple from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Proceeds will go toward the purchase of Christmas baskets for the needy and other charities sponsored by the Elk's Lodge. Left to right are Beverly Evans, Louise DeNault, Eleanor Victor, Ramona Carter and Sharon Badorek.

Eulalona DAR

Eulalona Chapter, DAR, met in November in the parlors of the First Methodist Church. Dessert was served by Mrs. Alfred Coddington, Mrs. Julian Ager, Mrs. Jack Nixon and Mrs. L. H. Stone.

Mrs. Will Wood, regent, presided at the meeting. The invocation was given by Mrs. Julian Ager and Mrs. Roland Wright led the Pledge of Allegiance.

It was announced that Mrs. William Bullard had become a new member.

The annual candy sale was opened with Mrs. Alfred Coddington in charge.

Mrs. Raymond Hall announced a need among the Celilo Indian women and children for clothing of any kind. Suitable items are to be brought to the next meeting.

Rules for the annual essay contest were discussed and plans were formulated by Mrs. L. H. Stone, chairman of history awards.

Mrs. C. K. Wells, defense chairman, gave her report which included a notation that no one should salute the flag of the United States with a gloved hand.

Changes in the by-laws were read and approved. Mrs. Julian Ager was chairman of this committee.

There is a need for genealogical and cemetery records. Such may be given to Mrs. Floyd Ryser or Pat McVey.

For the program, a panel discussion was introduced by Mrs. Dick Henzel. The panel was composed of Mrs. Bert Thomas, Mrs. James Barnes, Mrs. Julian Ager, Mrs. Roland Wright and Mrs. A. O. Roenicke, who acted as moderator. The panel topic was DAR activities.

Sojourners

The annual couples party of the Sojourners Club was an event of Nov. 9 at the Yacht Club. A large crowd enjoyed the social hour, potluck dinner and evening of dancing and card playing.

On Nov. 13 members attended the regular club meeting at the Willard Hotel. Hostesses were Mrs. Otto Biber and Mrs. H. H. Ogle.

There was one first-time guest, Mildred Dean, and two third-time guests who are now members, Margaret Gregg and Virginia Turner.
