Collins-Gard Vows Recited

Joy Gard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Gard, Baldwin Park, Calif., former Chiloquin residents, and Warren Reese Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Collins, San Gabriel, were married Nov. 9 at St. Mark's Methodist Church in Los Angeles. Dr. Thomas Wyatt officiated.

The wedding reception followed in Fellowship Hall of the church. The bridal pair visited Grand Canyon and Carlsbad Caverns on their wedding trip before returning to their new home in San Gabriel.

The new Mrs. Collins is a graduate of Chiloquin High School and Northwestern School of Commerce in Portland.

Clifford Gard gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of Italian bombazine fashioned with long sleeves and full skirt with bustle back held by three roses. Sequins and pearls trimmed the scalloped neck. A pearl and sequin crown held the fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Her going away outfit was a chocolate brown knit suit worn with beige accessories and the bridal orchid.

Mrs. Melvin Stewart, Klamath Falls, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Marilyn Burnett and Edith Woodward, Alhambra, Calif., Joanne Goldsmith, Portland, the bride's niece, and Wanda Gard, Anderson, also a niece.

Another niece of the bride, Diane Goldsmith, Portland, was flower girl, and twin nephews of the bride, Danny and Dennis Gard, were ring bearers.

Kenneth Wooley, Alhambra, was best man and ushers were Dale Collins, Terrance Collins, Randy Gard and Clifford Gard.

Also present for the ceremony were Melvin Stewart and Richard Tyler, both of Klamath Falls.

No matter how much care you have invested in your hair, your hands, your make-up and even your gown and figure can all be lost by your bearing. A graceful carriage and movement flatter your figure and whittles pounds from your appearance besides being more beautiful. Remember proper carriage is not something you can turn on for an evening out, but must be practiced as part of your everyday routine. DON'T stand with a thrust-out chest or droopy head. Chest and pelvis should be square over each other. Walk with legs that swing from the hips, walk with a slight spring and not too long steps.

Family Notes
Early Holiday

Sunday, Nov. 17, became an early Thanksgiving Day for the William Creswells who were hosts to their son and daughter and their families at a turkey dinner, complete with all the trimmings of the holiday season.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Croll and their four children, Jamie, Leslie, Laura and Robbie, were visiting for a few days homeward bound to Kamloops, British Columbia, after more than a year spent in Europe and the British Isles. Dr. Croll was taking advanced courses in London.

On their return, the Crolls traveled across the southern part of the United States.

The early Thanksgiving dinner party also included Dr. and Mrs. James Creswell and their children, Megan, James, Andrew and Bill Jr., who reside in Klamath Falls.

Dropping in for an afternoon visit were Mr. and Mrs. William Weitkamp of Tulelake, long time friends of the Creswell family.
