Grant, North Salem Battle To Co-Championship

Vikings Gain Deadlock On Last-Minute Drive

PORTLAND (UPI) — Disappointed North Salem and Grant reigned as Oregon high school class A-1 football co-champions today after battling to a 7-7 tie here Friday night.

"It just leaves me with a hollow feeling," North Salem Coach Spike Hillstrom said after the hard-fought game. "The kids feel the same way."

"We can still say we haven't been beaten but the kids are disappointed and I am too," Grant Coach Frank Buckiewicz said. "They'll get over it quick, though, when they realize that they didn't get beaten either."

The Portland Interscholastic League champion Generals rolled up a 11-0-1 record and the Valley League champion Vikings posted a 7-1-2 mark for the season.

The Generals moved 77 yards in 15 plays for their score.

"It sure was a game of halves," Hillstrom said. "We told the kids at the half they would have to clinch up their belts and they came back and did a great job."

North Controlled Ball

"The difference was ball control by North Salem in the second half," Buckiewicz said. "North Salem got in a position where it could run the ball on fourth down against us."

Allison's touchdown came on a fourth down play after the Vikings made first downs the three previous times on fourth down plays.

"Give them credit," Buckiewicz added. "They wanted that touchdown and they came and got it."

North Salem held an edge in statistics. The Vikings were ahead 10-8 in first downs and 102-120 in total yards, 121-111 by rushing and 41-9 by passing.

In the first half, Grant held a 6-2 edge in first downs and a 79-47 edge in total yards.

Vikings Score Late

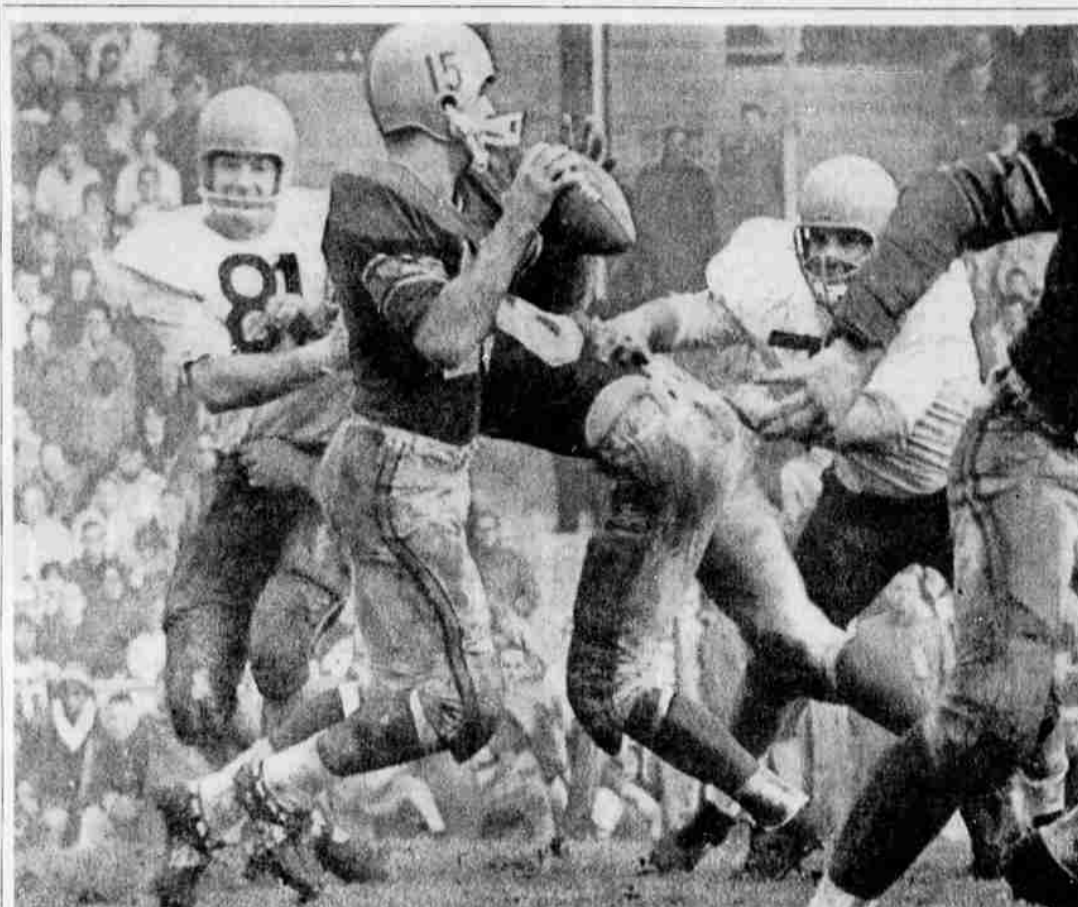

North Salem, which lost to Medford in the finals of the playoffs last year, tied the score with 29 seconds left in the game on a one-yard touchdown run by halfback Rod Allison and an extra point kick by quarterback Gib Gilmore.

The Vikings marched 63 yards in 21 plays for their touchdown.

Grant scored its points in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown run by halfback Pete Carson and an extra point kick by Tom Summers.

Scoring:
Gr — Carson 1 run (Summers kick)
NS — Allison 1 run (Gilmore kick)

North Salem 0 0 0 7-7
Grant 0 7 0 0-7

DEADLY OFFENSE — Oregon's Bob Berry (15) steps back to fire another pass in Civil War action between the Webfoots and the Oregon State Beavers Saturday at Eugene. Bob Berry Paces Ducks; Subs In Clutch Action

EUGENE (UPI) — Oregon, paced by the offensive talents of quarterback Bob Berry and the pass interceptions of halfback H. D. Murphy, crushed Oregon State 31-14 Saturday in the 67th renewal of the Far West's oldest football rivalry.

It was the first Oregon victory in five years over its Civil War rival.

Berry, a junior from San Jose, Calif., passed for two touchdowns and directed the Oregon offense with the poise of a professional.

He completed 18 of 26 passes for 249 yards.

Murphy, a baseball outfielder, intercepted two passes headed for Oregon State's great end, Vern Burke, late in the first half. Both led to Oregon touchdowns.

Murphy also hauled down one of Berry's scoring passes, a 29-yarder in the third period that put Oregon ahead 31-0.

Berry's other touchdown aerial was a five-yarder to end Corky Sullivan.

Fullback Lu Bain got the other two touchdowns for the Ducks on runs of four and 13 yards.

Sophomore Herm Meister, who had played in only one other college game, kicked a 22-yard field goal to open the scoring and added four straight extra points.

Meister's father, Herm Sr., once was an assistant coach for Oregon mentor Len Casanova at Santa Clara.

Oregon State made only four first downs in the first three periods but rallied behind third string sophomore quarterback Marv Crowston to score twice in the final period against Oregon reserves.

Halfback Bob Watkins got one of them on a 6-yard run and Crowston the other on a three-yard run.

Oregon played without per-

It also was one of the Ducks' most impressive wins ever over the Beavers. Oregon defeated Oregon State 20-0 in 1955 but aside from that it was back in 1899 when Oregon won 38-0 that the Webfoots have won so one sided.

The decision left Oregon with a 7-3 record for the season and Oregon State with a 5-5 mark.

Berry's two touchdowns passes Saturday tied him with Oregon State's Gordon Queen for national leadership at 16.

Oregon intercepted four of Queen's passes and the two second period steals by Murphy broke the game wide open.

It was Oregon's 31st victory to 27 for Oregon State. There have been nine ties.

Tennis Ace Advances

MELBOURNE (UPI) — Dennis Ralston slammed his way into the quarterfinals of the Victorian Lawn Tennis championships Saturday and U. S. Davis Cup teammate Marty Riessen also advanced, but rusty Frank Froehling was ousted by unknown Australian Paul Hearn-

Ralston, of Bakersfield, Calif., blasted Aussie southpaw Owen Davidson off the court in 50 minutes, 6-1, 6-4, 6-1. Ralston, who has won one tournament and reached the finals of another since arriving in Australia early this month, had no trouble with Davidson.

A second-round bye coupled with Saturday's victory put Ralston into the round of eight.

Phoenix, Jefferson Capture State Titles

By United Press International

Phoenix rolled over North Catholic 13-0 in the finals of the Oregon High School Class A-2 football playoffs at Ashland Saturday and fullback Bob Kins sparked Jefferson to a 14-0 win over favored Maupin in the B-2 title game at Maupin.

Jim Consruck scored on a four-yard run in the second period and Dick Williams tallied on a two-yard run in the third period for Phoenix. Consruck ran for an extra point after his touchdown.

Phoenix held a 23-10 edge in first downs and a 120-188 margin in total yardage.

All of the winner's yardage came on the ground. The losers gained 94 yards by rushing and 84 by passing.

Phoenix intercepted three passes.

North Catholic was able to get inside the Phoenix 20-yard line only once.

Pro Teams Hold Draft

NEW YORK (UPI)—Quarterback Jack Concannon of Boston College was made the No. 1 choice in the American Football League draft by the Boston Patriots Saturday following a last-minute deal designed to keep him from going to the rival National League.

The start of the draft meeting was delayed for a half-hour while president Bill Sullivan and coach Mike Holovac conferred with their counterparts on the Denver Broncos, Cal Kumz Jr. and Jack Faulkner, about a deal.

Denver, which was to have selected first, gave up that privilege to Boston in exchange for the Patriots' first and third-round drafting opportunities and a player to be determined later.

The Patriots immediately drafted the 6-foot-3, 195-pound concannon, a running quarterback who ranks fourth in total offense among major college players with 1,513 yards.

JETS ACTIVATE END

NEW YORK (UPI) — Defensive end Pete Perreault was activated from the "taxi" squad Saturday by the New York Jets for their American Football League game Sunday with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Prep District Change Due; 'B' Plan Fails

PORTLAND (UPI)—The Oregon School Activities Association's redistricting committee was ordered Friday to prepare a new plan for dividing high schools for athletic competition.

The action by the OSAA's Delegate Assembly grew out of a proposed constitutional amendment which would have raised the maximum enrollment for a class B school from 150 to 200.

The redistricting committee is scheduled to report back at a special meeting in April.

In other business, the OSAA rescinded the full membership granted last fall to MacLaren School for Boys.

Warne Empey, supervisor of education at MacLaren, asked that the school be admitted to

Aggies Lose To Sooners

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI)—Fabulous Jim Grisham scored four touchdowns and gained 213 yards in a dazzling display of power running Saturday to lead Oklahoma past Oklahoma State, 34-10, in the season's finale for both teams.

Grisham, a 211-pound junior fullback from Olney, Tex., set an all-time Oklahoma one-game rushing record with his savage line plunges. Three of his scores came on one-yard smashes and the fourth on a 29-yard sprint.

National AAU Titles Taken By Oregonians

NEW YORK (UPI) — Three Oregon competitors won national titles in AAU Junior Olympics, track and field meets held last summer that organization announced Friday.

Larry Strutz of Tigard won the 220-yard dash title with a time of 21.9 and tied with Mark Dillingham of Orosi, Calif., for first in the 100-yard dash in 10.0. Strutz competed in the 14 and 15 year old division.

Joan Heeter of Corvallis broke a national record in the same age group with a shot put throw of 39½ and Cheryl Hathaway of Independence tied Diana Paschal, Oakland, Calif., for first in the 50-yard hurdles with a time of 7.3 seconds.

Among other Oregon youths who finished high nationally were:

Mike Crumican, Roseburg, senior division, second in the 800 at 1:58.7 and fourth in the mile at 4:29.4; Elliott Lewis, Colton, senior division, third in high jump at 6-4; Milwaukie's mile relay team with a time of 3:31.7 in the senior division; Larry Sangaras, Newport, junior division, fourth in high jump at 5-11½; David Oldfield, Corvallis, midget division, tied for third in 50-yard dash at 6.5.

In girls' competition, Rexi Nicholson, Roseburg, tied for third in 50-yard low hurdles, senior division, with a time of 7.4; Shawn Gaddy, Hood River, and Lesley Smith, Roseburg, tied for third and fifth, respectively, in hurdles, intermediate division, with times of 7.5 and 7.7; Sybil Jernstedt, Hood River, tied for fifth in 50-yard dash, junior division, in 6.5, and Candy Fowler, The Dalles, tied for third in 50-yard dash, midget division, in 6.6.

Owl Outlook

By Wanda Burleson

The OTI Owls have a tradition of producing extraordinary wrestling squads. In previous years the mile high campus has been represented by teams that have ranked high in Northwest circles. The 1963-64 season promises to be just as momentous as the past seasons.

Wrestling tutor Howard Morris has assembled a grappling squad of 29 athletes who promise to again keep OTI on top in this winter sport.

The nucleus of the squad will be the four returning lettermen. The Owls will have one defending OCC champion, Veryl Miller, Miller, a 167-pound sophomore from Burns, will be a definite strong point for Oregon Tech. He is also a state A-2 champion from Burns. Hank Isenhart, another veteran, will be aiming for his first OCC championship. In the past two attempts the 137 lb. Isenhart has placed third and second. A junior from Langlois, Isenhart is also a former state champion and won last season's Most Inspirational Wrestler award. Another experienced grappler from Burns is 157 lb. John Norton. Norton, also an OCC runner-up, will be out to better his '62-'63 mark and bring home another conference win. The remaining wrestler with the advantage of college experience is Don Branch. Branch, a 147 soph, is a one-year letterman.

To boost the squad's victory chance, Morris has collected an admirable group of fresh, included in this category is Mike Bildersback, a 167-pound wrestler, who was a state champion at North Eugene High. Football star Jack Kutter will fill the heavyweight role. Kutter (230)

Huskies Take Rose Bowl Berth; Tribe Downs California

VW Led By Coffey

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Big Six football conference Saturday night selected the University of Washington to meet Illinois in the Rose Bowl classic at Pasadena on New Year's Day.

Tom Hamilton, executive director of the Athletic Association of Western Universities (Big Six), announced the selection of the Huskies after receiving telegraphed votes from the schools in the conference.

SEATTLE (UPI) — All coast fullback Junior Coffey hauled over for two touchdowns Saturday to lead Washington to a 16-0 victory over Washington State, giving the Huskies undisputed possession of the Big Six championship, and make them the likely West Coast representative in the Rose Bowl.

Coffey, who had been demoted to the second string after a disappointing performance against UCLA two weeks ago, scored on a four-yard plunge in the second period and a three-yard smash in the final quarter.

Washington got its last two points on the last play of the game when Cougar quarterback Dave Mathieson was tackled in the end zone by Washington tackle Chuck Bond for a safety.

A homecoming crowd of 56,000, the largest of the season, saw an annual grudge battle that was dominated by Washington State in the first period. The Cougars drove to the Husky four but Washington threw their cross-state rivals back and took over on the Husky five.

That was the only serious WSU threat of the game.

Washington coach Jim Owens put in his "second" string, which was composed of most of his standouts throughout the season, in the second period. That team then marched 69 yards in 13 plays for the first Washington score. The same lineup was in the game in the fourth period when the second Husky touchdown came and also was responsible for the safety.

The game wound up in a comedy of errors. Coffey was sparking a drive which penetrated to the WSU one. Coffey had packed the ball seven out of nine plays to that point, and then he fumbled.

Washington State's Clarence Williams scooped up the ball on his own three and raced 97 yards for nothing. The ball had been whistled dead.

On the next play Mathieson was tackled in the end zone as the final gun sounded.

Washington 0 7 0 7-16

Scoring:
Wash.—Coffey four run (Norton kick)
Wash.—Coffey three run (Norton kick)

Wash.—Safety Mathieson tackled in end zone.

Rally Gives Indians Win

STANFORD (UPI) — Kicking specialist Brady Beck booted field goals from 36, 48 and 46 yards Saturday to give Stanford a come-from-behind 28-17 victory over California in the 66th renewal of the West's "Big Game" of college football.

With Stanford trailing 15-17 going into the final quarter, Beck came off the bench to split the standards with a 48-yard field goal that put the Indians in front 18-17 with 12 minutes to play.

The Indians scored a touchdown immediately after on a fumble recovery and then Beck came in four minutes before the end of the game to kick another 46-yard field goal.

The 192-pound junior had kept Stanford in the running during the first half. After California had taken a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on Tom Blanchfield's 37-yard field goal, Beck came in to kick a 36-yarder and the score was 3-3 at the intermission.

The victory Saturday evened the series at 28 wins each with 19 ties in a competition that goes back to 1892.

Stanford, a two-point pregame favorite, finished up the year with a 3-7 record, while California finished 4-5-1.

With a crowd of 82,000 cheering him on, Stanford's Steve Thurlow ripped the California line at will during the second half. The Indians went ahead when they got the ball on the California five after a bad pass from center, Thurlow ran it in for the touchdown.

A two-point try after touchdown failed. California then went ahead on a seven-yard touchdown romp by Jim Blakey with Blanchfield's point after, making the score 10-9. The Bears upped their lead to 17-9 when Blanchfield returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown.

Stanford 0 3 12 13-28
California 3 0 14 0-17

Troy Belts UCLA, 26-6

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — University of Southern California demonstrated its worth as a Rose Bowl bid contender Saturday by pounding out a 26-6 victory over UCLA before 82,469 fans in their traditional cross-town football encounter.

With both teams in the running for the New Year's Day game, the Trojans proved too deep in manpower for the Bruins, who two weeks ago registered by dumping Washington.

Superbly guided by quarterback Pete Beathard, Southern California scored in every period. Beathard had a direct hand in the first two touchdowns, passing six yards to Hal Bedsole for the initial score and rushing over the second touchdown from two yards out.

Tigers Edge Kansas, 9-7

LAWRENCE, Kan. (UPI) — Junior halfback Bill Leistritz kicked a 22-yard field goal in the fourth period Saturday to go with Vince Turner's 102-yard yard ramble after a fumble recovery to give Missouri a 9-7 triumph over Kansas in the season finale for both teams.

Leistritz escaped being the goat in the Big Eight Conference battle with his game-winning field goal. He missed the conversion after senior halfback Turner's fantastic first-quarter touchdown.

TCU Stops SMU, 22-15

FORT WORTH (UPI) — Penalty-ridden Texas Christian converted two fumble recoveries into touchdowns Saturday and rode the second one to a final-minute 22-15 victory over Southern Methodist in an error-packed Southwest Conference tilt.

The ball changed hands six times on fumbles and Southern Methodist turned in two end zone interceptions to go with three fumble recoveries of its own, but that wasn't enough to offset the belated grinding ground attack that enabled TCU to smash 27 yards for the winning touchdown with 2:12 left on the clock.

Marvin Chipman, a reserve halfback, skipped the final six yards for the winning score, then grabbed a basket pass from Randy Howard for a two-point conversion that put the game out of reach.
