WALL STREET

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks backed and filled their way to small gains in fairly active trading today.

Electronics showed several good gainers including IBM, RCA, Beckman, Motorola, Control Data, Zenith and Minneapolis-Honeywell.

Steels made fairly good progress with Lukens, Jones & Laughlin, Youngstown Steel Door and Republic taking most of the credit. Motors were easier with Chrysler off substantially and American Motors off a fraction.

Du Pont moved up smartly in the chemicals followed by Union Carbide, Allied Chemical and Celanese. Standard of Jersey, Skelly, Amercard and Gulf also fared well.

IMPORTS MINKS

MOSCOW (UPI) — Moscow Radio reported Saturday the Soviet Union has imported 2,000 minks from the United States.

TEXAN IN THE WHITE HOUSE (1)

Lyndon Baines Johnson was born August 27, 1908, in a farmhouse near Stonewall, Tex., son of Samuel Ealy Johnson Jr., a school teacher and Texas legislator, and Rebekah Baines Johnson. His grandfather, a Confederate veteran, predicted young Lyndon would be a U.S. Senator some day.

Johnson attended public school and after graduating in 1924, took a $1-a-day job on a road-building gang. Wanderlust led him to California, where he worked in the Imperial Valley. He returned to Texas and road labor, but eventually determined to go to college, entering Southwest Texas State Teachers College in San Marcos in 1927.

KFPA Begins Cutting Yule Trees For Schools

Klamath Forest Protective Association employees began cutting Christmas trees Monday morning which will be donated to schools throughout the county. George Wardell, KFPA supervisor, has disclosed.

Wardell said that requests for approximately 200 trees had been received from the superintendent's office of Klamath Falls Public Schools and requests for a similar number of trees was expected within the next few days from the county schools.

He added that individual schools will be notified by KFPA as the trees become available.

The annual tree donation program is sponsored jointly by KFPA and the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company, which donates trees growing on company lands. KFPA employees cut the trees and return them to the association headquarters at the Weed-Ashland Highway Junction where they are picked up by representatives of the various schools.

The number of trees requested by each of the city schools follows:

Conger, 13; Fairview, 18; Fremont, 18; Mills, 24; Lucile O'Neill, 12; Pelican, 13; Ponderosa, 3; Riverside, 11; Rossveld, 25; Klamath Union HS, 31; and Sacred Heart, 18.

Mrs. Lear Succumbs

Mrs. Inger O. Lear, a former resident of Klamath Falls, recently of Ashland, died Nov. 27 after a lingering illness. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond officiated at the funeral services Nov. 30 in the chapel of the Ashland Mortuary and during final rites in Mountain View Cemetery.

Mrs. Lear was born Nov. 9, 1877, near Clarkfield, Minn. She was married Dec. 6, 1904, at Deer Lodge, Mont., to Ben L. Lear, who died Nov. 18, 1962.

She lived in Deer Lodge until 1916 when the family moved to Scooby, Mont. In 1923 they came to Klamath Falls where Mr. Lear was associated with the Golden Rule Store. They remained here until 1933 when they retired to a farm near Rogue River. They later moved to Ashland.

She was a lifetime member of the Christian Church and a member of the Eastern Star.

Survivors include two sons, James N. Lear, Klamath Falls, Ben L. Lear Jr., Medford; two sisters, Mrs. Susie Hiemark, Honolulu, Hawaii, Mrs. Edna Hiemark, Clarkfield, Minn.; three brothers, Hans Aanes, P.M., Collins, Colo., Bertram Aanes, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and Harold Aanes, Minneapolis, Minn.; four grandchildren and nieces and nephews.

Thieves Rustle Many Potatoes

The theft of 10 tons of potatoes from three Southern Pacific Railroad boxcars was reported to Klamath Falls police Friday.

Southern Pacific said the potatoes were taken between Wednesday and Friday while the unlocked cars were parked on the tracks near the Great Northern offices.

The White Rose potatoes were in 200 burlap bags, each weighing 100 pounds.

Value of the missing spuds was listed at $700.

Oregon Avenue House Robbed

Two books of trading stamps, a watch, two flashlights, two pairs of binoculars and several keys were taken from an Oregon Avenue home Friday.

The occupant, George Zumburn, 105 W. Oregon Avenue, told police the burglary occurred between noon and 9 p.m. Friday while he was away from the house. Entry was gained by smashing open a door.

Total value of the stolen items was estimated at $115.

Hunt Report

TULELAKE — Only fair hunting was reported for the last week on the Tulelake and Lower Klamath wildlife refuges by the Tulelake Growers Association which tallies bird population and weather conditions.

As of Nov. 30, the count included 239,730 ducks, 27,010 geese, 1,050 swan and 9,000 coots.

Man Evades Police Hunt

An 18-year-old Chilquin man who was accused of nearly running down a city street department flagman Friday evening is being sought by city police for escaping from the city jail while being booked late Friday night.

Sought is Robert Dumont, who, police said, ran out the back door of the jail while he was being booked, jumped into his 1961 automobile and drove off.

Flagman Gerald Ward told police Dumont turned from Alameda Avenue onto Esplanade and failed to heed his red light at Esplanade and Wall. He said Dumont roared past him and he had to jump out of the way to avoid being hit. Dumont's car, he said, knocked the signal light from his hand.

Later Friday evening, Dumont's car was spotted parked on South Seventh Street and he was arrested by a city policeman in a nearby tavern.

Dumont was taken to city jail for booking. Police said he was in the booking room, when he suddenly burst through the rear door, jumped into his car and drove off.

Bend Justice Assigned Here

Circuit Judge Robert H. Foley of Bend has been assigned by Chief Justice William M. McAllister of the Oregon State Supreme Court to preside on the bench of Klamath County Circuit Court No. 1 from Dec. 13 through Dec. 21, the county clerk's office has reported.

Judge Foley will sit on the bench in place of Klamath County Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg, who has been ailing since October.

Police Probe Arson Attempt

City police are investigating an apparent attempted arson at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, 805 High Street, Friday afternoon.

One wall of a prayer room was scorched by the small fire and evidence indicated it was set purposely.

COURT TO MEET

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court meets today to hand down opinions and do the other work it postponed last Monday because of the assassination of President Kennedy.

Then, the justices will take one more week for opinion-writing before starting the single week of arguments scheduled for December.

On Dec. 9 the court will hear the challenge to the recent reapportionment of the Delaware Legislature. Cases from New York, Alabama, Virginia and Maryland have already been heard. But opinions are not expected soon.

You are cordially invited to come to our Holiday House Dec. 1 thru Dec. 8, 3:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. So. 6th and 430 Main.

Burglars Strike Area; Five Places Ransacked

Burglars looted more than $1,000 in money and property in five burglaries and one case of larceny from a vehicle reported in the county during the week-end, Oregon State Police reported Monday.

It was the greatest number of burglaries reported in the South Suburban area during any two-day period since the first week in September, when two supply houses, a grocery, and two county schools were burglarized of some $1,000 in cash and merchandise.

Two of the burglaries occurred late Friday or early Saturday morning and included a break-in at the Klamath Gun Club, where thieves stole nine and a half cases of shotgun shells valued at $425. In addition the burglars escaped with five three-pumped cans of gun powder, 4,000 federal primers, one 12-pound can of gun powder, a number of cigarette lighters and two hunting knives. The theft was reported by Rod Smith of the gun club about 4 p.m. Saturday.

Burglarized at approximately the same time was the Midland Tavern, where thieves battered in the rear door of the establishment, entered the building, and escaped with a cash register containing $175 in coins and currency.

Late Saturday night or early Sunday morning, burglars climbed through a vent on the roof of Roberts Hardware Store at the Town and Country Shopping Center and entered the establishment and the adjoining office of Walter H. Fleet, public accountant.

The thieves removed $160 from the till of the hardware store but apparently took nothing from the accountant's office.

In one of the remaining two incidents, Walter French of 4715 Anderson Avenue told police that two automobile rims and tires were stolen from his garage sometime after 11 p.m. Sunday.

At approximately 11:30 p.m. the same evening, a thief entered an automobile on the Lucky Lanes parking lot and escaped with a red floor mat from the front section of the car, a white bowling bag and bowling ball, grey bowling shoes, and several coats marked with the name "Irene." The name of the owner of the car is not available at this time, police said.

2 Injured In Mishap

Two Klamath Falls women were slightly injured Saturday morning in a two-car collision on Main Street, near the East Main Street intersection.

Police said Mary Swartsheer and Nellie McNeil suffered minor cuts and bruises when a car driven by Arnold McNeil turned into another auto.

Officers cited McNeil, 50, of 1345 Lakeview Avenue, for making a right turn from the wrong lane. Police said he was driving east on Main in the left lane and attempted to turn into a service station. In doing so, officers reported, he turned his car into another auto also being driven east on Main in the right lane by Louis Logston, 24, 3544 Lakeport Boulevard. Logston's two passengers were unhurt.

The collision occurred at 12:30 a.m.

Pupils Get Eye Check

The Women's Auxiliary of the Klamath Falls Lions Club has completed a Tele-Binocular test for 309 freshmen in Klamath Union High School and 50 freshmen at Sacred Heart Academy.

The test is an approved initial eye test given to determine sight irregularities, frequently not known to children or their parents.

Then professional examinations were given by two Klamath Falls optometrists who suggested that 241 notices be sent to parents by the school nurses, suggesting treatment.

The testing is one of the annual service projects of the Klamath Falls Lions Club Auxiliary. The members also purchase eye glasses for children whose parents are unable financially to do so. Anyone interested in the service may call the school nurse to discuss eligibility.

Jails Poor

Merrill, poor, "dirty, cold and uninhabitable." The jail had been painted but refuse was noted on the floor and cobwebs were present on the ceiling. The toilets were dirty, the mattresses without covers and there was no sink.

Malin, fair, "the beds were covered but the toilet facilities were unsanitary." The grand jury reported that the jail had not been used since the previous inspection last June.

Bonanza, poor, "the buildings, beds, and toilets are badly in need of renovating."

Bly, "jail locked, deputies out of town."

Chiloquin, fair, "mattresses not covered and in soiled condition, shower cluttered. The toilets and wash basins were not clean but the chief of police plans improvement in the jail's condition."

Klamath Juvenile Home, "clean and well cared for."

Klamath Falls City Jail, "the jail was clean and the cells freshly painted. The mattresses were not all covered but the general sanitation of the jail was excellent."

Klamath County Jail, "the sanitation was adequate. Most of the cells were neat and clean."

Stolen Car Recovered

A 1961 hardtop coupe stolen early Sunday morning in Klamath Falls was later found by the owner parked off the old Lake of the Woods Road near the Geary Canal.

The auto had been vandalized and the transmission was stolen. Its owner, Kenneth Mills, 1544 Lakeview Avenue, told police the car was stolen from in front of his home shortly after midnight Sunday. He said he had removed the radiator hose and drained the radiator and the battery was dead.

Police believe the car was towed or pushed away. Officers followed a trail of water through city streets, but lost the trail when it ran out.

Nearly 12 hours later, Mills recovered the car on the old Lake of the Woods Road.

Gun Stolen

Wayne Thomson, 2025 Holabird Avenue, reported to police that a .22-calibre semi-automatic pistol and a watch were stolen from his house.

Thomson said the thefts occurred either Thursday or Friday. He discovered them Friday. No signs of forced entry into the house could be found.
