

UCLA Coach Indicates Illinois Should Be Rose Bowl Favorite

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Football coaches, generally speaking, are muggumps—they act on a non-controversial fence—but at least coach Bill Barnes hints that Illinois should be favored over Washington in the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena New Year's day.

Barnes, whose UCLA team beat Washington and lost to Illinois, would not make a definite pick.

The Bruin coach, however, made a few revealing remarks at a meeting of the Southern California Football Writers Association Monday.

UCLA lost to Illinois 18-12 early in the season and upset Washington 14-0 two weeks ago. Questioned about the Illini, Barnes opined:

"They're a much better team than they're given credit for."

Illinois has big backs and fast ones. Jim Grabowski and Sam Price—and fine linebackers, Dick Butkus and Don Hanson, Illinois has a good-sized team. You're not going to run over them very much. You can throw on them a little bit. If they have a weakness—it was they played—that's what it was."

Then in a reference to Washington coach, Jim Owens, Barnes said:

"I don't think this is the best team Jim has brought down here."

As a member in good standing of the coaches' mutual admiration protective society, Barnes hastened to add:

"Washington will bring down a team well prepared."

A somewhat mournful coach John McKay of the University of Southern California also spoke at the writer's meeting.

McKay said with a wry smile that the big mistake during the season was losing to Washington. This was the only Trojan loss in the Big Six.

"We could have finished the season 9-1 and we wouldn't have gotten the Rose Bowl bid," he said, "as long as that loss was to Washington."

The Trojans had an over-all 7-3 record for the season. McKay disclosed that his No. 1 quarterback Pete Beathard was "not 100 per cent for most of the season" and couldn't practice. Beathard was hampered first by a groin injury, then by a bad ankle, and then by a torn cartilage in his back.

"Maybe I should have held Beathard out more," said McKay. "He was not at 100 per cent during much of the season. He could not practice because of his injuries."

Coast League Branches Out To Become 12-Team Circuit

By HAL WOOD UPI Sports Writer

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—The Pacific Coast League, heading for an apparent rendezvous with the Atlantic Coast, will operate as a 12-team league next year, stretching from Hawaii to Indianapolis—and the International League will work with only eight teams.

"That was the situation today after months of verbal fireworks between the majors and the minors as they fought to keep each league as a 10-team loop."

"But the majors would not come through with the $78,000 to $80,000 we needed for travel money if we stayed as a 10-team league with Indianapolis and Little Rock in it," said International League president Tommy Richardson. "So we just had to reduce."

Richardson admitted that the new Pacific Coast League will probably operate without help from the majors.

The travel distance from Hawaii to Indianapolis is in the neighborhood of 4,800 miles. But the PCL will be divided into two divisions and there will be only one visit from each team into the other division each season.

The International League now will operate with Syracuse, Toronto, Buffalo, Jacksonville, Richmond, Atlanta, Columbus and Rochester. Its season will open April 22 and close Sept. 11 with a 154-game schedule.

"We have extended an invitation to the Pacific Coast League for a Junior World Series," said Richardson.

The PCL will operate with Little Rock, Indianapolis, Denver, Salt Lake City, Oklahoma City and Dallas in the Eastern Division. In the Western will be Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane, Hawaii, San Diego and Portland. The PCL schedule has not yet been drawn up.

The Pacific Coast League had originally hoped to operate as a 10-team league.

"But we couldn't leave a city like Indianapolis, which has been in organized baseball 75 years, sitting out in the cold," said Roy Ryan, general manager of the Tacoma club.

Donnie Bush, president of the Indianapolis club, told Dewey Soriano, PCL president, his club was glad to be in the Pacific loop—although earlier there had been some talk that the team would drop out of baseball rather than play with the Western teams.

"We're glad to be in a league where we're wanted," Bush told Soriano.

Little Rock, according to Richardson, was the only city in the International League to make money last year—clearing around $50,000.

Richardson said that his team was willing to operate either as an eight-team or 10-team league—but not as a 10-team circuit.

"But Oklahoma City was in the American Association in 1962, in the PCL in 1963 and was starting to wonder where they were if they moved to the International League," said Richardson. The other team would have been Dallas.

There is some talk that if Portland is unable to come up with a major league tie-up within the next few days it may drop out of organized baseball. If that comes around, then there is some belief that Tulsa may move over from the Texas League—as that circuit right now is a seven-team loop.

SF Selects 5 Pitchers In Draft

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants plucked five young pitchers out of the minor leagues Monday during wheeling and dealing at the big major-minor league meeting here.

They purchased the young hurlers for the $8,000 price-tag put on veterans, but did lose a couple of players from their Tacoma club at this price. The Giants also lost a couple of first year men at the $8,000 level.

Here are the Giant purchases:—Frank Kasheta, 21, drafted from Boston Red Sox chain. He was 4-7 at Reading of the Eastern League last season.

—Richard Bosman, 19, reliever, at Kingsport in the Appalachian League last year with a 3-3 mark.

—Richard Sparks, 21, was 6-4 at Clinton of the Midwest League last year. He struck out 74 in 86 innings, but walked 85.

—Bill Wade, 19, 2-3 at Gastonia in the Carolina League last year.

—Joe McKirahan, the only southpaw. He was at Waterloo, Iowa, last year.

Tacoma pitchers Wayne Schurr and Danny Rivas were purchased by the Chicago Cubs and Los Angeles Angels respectively.

The New York Yankees bought George Shoemaker, a pitcher, and the Philadelphia Phils bought Chris Harbeson, a catcher. Both were going to be given a shot with Tacoma this season by the Giants.

"Big O" Leads League With Scoring Effort

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sicely Oscar Robertson, the "Mr. Complete" of the National Basketball A Association, has grabbed the league's scoring lead but his long-time adversary, Jerry West, is right behind.

Cincinnati's Robertson, who has played in three more games than West, has scored 691 points for an average of 27.6 per contest. West, meanwhile, has played in 22 games and has 636 points for a 28.9 average.

Chamberlain, who hit 18 straight shots last week, is the field goal percentage leader with a 32.6 mark. Sam Jones leads in free throw percentage with 62 of 72 for 86.1. Jerry Lucas is the rebounding leader with a 17.1 average in 23 games.

has the best per game average (32.2), but has scored 611 points in 19 games. Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles is the other member of the top five with 525 points for a 23.9 average.

Robertson, who battled West for scoring honors when they were in college, also leads the NBA in assists with a 9.6 average.

Chamberlain, who hit 18 straight shots last week, is the field goal percentage leader with a 32.6 mark. Sam Jones leads in free throw percentage with 62 of 72 for 86.1. Jerry Lucas is the rebounding leader with a 17.1 average in 23 games.
