

EASY ENTERTAINING — This elegant and colorful Chicken and Broccoli Casserole has creamy smooth canned chicken gravy as the magic ingredient. Sherry and cheese add extra tang. To complement the dish, serve individual molded salads of cranberries, apples and walnuts.

Casserole Delicious Dish

"Come for supper." What friend doesn't warm to an invitation such as this? With cool weather ahead, menu planning ceases to be such a problem, and even the most elegant tasting meals can be practically effortless. Entertaining at supper is such a nice way to host your friends.

Canned gravies make the advance preparation so easy that any homemaker can be as relaxed as her guests. Canned chicken gravy, creamy smooth and chicken-y good, is the heart of this Chicken and Broccoli Casserole. Cubed cooked chicken, noodles, cheese, and sherry join the canned chicken gravy. For color and the taste bonus, cooked broccoli spears are included—the stems diced and the flowerets saved for a colorful topping.

Serve this delicious and colorful casserole in an elegant setting. Mate it with individual molded salads of cranberries, apples, and walnuts. Pass a tray of tiny buttery biscuits, and finish with a slice of your favorite pie and cups of coffee.

CHICKEN AND BROCCOLI CASSEROLE

- 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) chicken gravy
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 cup shredded process American cheese
- 1 tablespoon sherry or other dry white wine (optional)
- 1/4 teaspoon chervil
- 1 package (10 ounces) frozen broccoli spears, cooked and drained
- 2 cups cooked noodles
- 1 cup cubed cooked chicken

In saucepan, heat gravy, milk, and chervil until cheese melts. Dice broccoli stems saving flowerets. In 1 1/2-quart casserole, combine gravy mixture, noodles, chicken, and broccoli stems. Top with flowerets pressing lightly into casserole. Sprinkle with remaining cheese. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes. Makes three to four servings.

Soup News

For a lunch that's sure to please serve this tasty soup. In saucepan, stir a can condensed Cheddar cheese soup until smooth. Gradually blend in 1 soup can water; add 1/2 cup chopped cooked broccoli. Heat, stirring now and then. Garnish with crumbled cooked bacon. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

A hearty soup can be the main dish for supper. Try this combination: Combine a can frozen condensed cream of potato soup, 1 soup can milk, and 1/4 teaspoon caraway seed. Heat until soup is thawed, stirring now and then. Add 1/2 cup sliced cooked Brussels sprouts; heat a few minutes longer. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Next time you serve canned condensed vegetable bean soup prepared with a soup can of water, add a teaspoon of sherry just before serving. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

Canned noodle dry soup mix takes on an Oriental air prepared this way. Stir the soup mix into 4 cups boiling water. Partially cover; simmer 7 minutes, stirring now and then. Add 1 tablespoon orange juice, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, and 1/2 teaspoon ginger. Simmer a few minutes longer. Garnish each serving with chopped watercress. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Here's a praise-worthy new dip for your next party. In saucepan, slightly mash a 1-pound can barbecue beans; blend in a 2-ounce package of cream cheese (softened), 1 teaspoon chili powder, and 1/2 teaspoon each lemon juice and Worcestershire. Heat, stirring now and then. Serve with potato chips or crackers. Makes 2 cups spicy dip!

That enthusiastic junior homemaker in the kitchen will find this supper dish a great addition to her files. In saucepan, heat two 10 1/2-ounce cans chicken a la king. Meanwhile, empty a 2 1/2-ounce can potato sticks into a shallow pan and heat at 350 degrees F. for a few minutes. Serve a la king over potato sticks to 6 people.

Late suppers are sophisticated ways to entertain... and so easy with a recipe like this one. Cook 4 slices bacon until crisp; remove from pan. Pour off oil but 2 tablespoons drippings. Blend 2 tablespoons flour into drippings; slowly add a 12-ounce can V-8, stirring constantly until thickened. Add 2 cups shredded process cheese and continue to cook over low heat until cheese is melted. Serve on buttered toast, garnish with bacon, to 4.

Baked frozen individual apple pies are a delicious conclusion to lunches or dinners, especially when garnished like this. Combine 1/2 cup cottage cheese and 1 tablespoon frozen concentrated orange juice. Beat until smooth in electric blender. Spread on 2 or 3 baked pies and top with toasted chopped almonds.
