Strike Benefit Hearings Recess After Two Days

PORTLAND (UPI) — Attorneys for two lumber unions and the Big Six timber firms ended the second day of unemployment benefit hearings in a hassle here Wednesday.

Referee M. F. McFarland gaveled the session into recess and excused Scott Witt, national labor relations manager for Weyerhaeuser Co. from the stand while Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union attorney George Toulouse was still trying to question him.

McFarland, chief appeals referee for the Oregon Department of Employment, and his Washington counterpart are hearing appeals by some 7,100 loggers and mill workers who were denied unemployment benefits in last summer's Northwest lumber strike.

Both states have laws preventing participants in an active labor dispute from collecting benefits.

Four attorneys representing the LSW and the International Woodworkers of America have implied that U.S. Plywood Corp. and St. Regis Paper Co. were struck last June 5 for reasons other than the collapse of labor negotiations.

Bomb Threat

HERMISTON (UPI) — Police searched through Hermiston High School Wednesday after a woman telephoned a radio station and said a bomb would go off at 1 p.m. Classes were dismissed. No bomb was found.

Dead Kennedy Children Buried With Father

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy returned to a darkened hillside in Arlington National Cemetery Wednesday night to bury the bodies of her two dead children at their father's side.

In a brief and moving ceremony, lighted by the eternal flame at the head of Kennedy's grave, two white caskets were placed beside the slain President.

One contained the body of Patrick Bouvier Kennedy who died last Aug. 9 in the second day of his life. The other contained a sister who was stillborn Aug. 23, 1956.

White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said Mrs. Kennedy was accompanied by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, his brother, Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., and the former First Lady's sister, Princess Lee Radziwill.

Mrs. Kennedy knelt in prayer at the graveside ceremony conducted by the Most Rev. Philip Hannan, auxiliary bishop of Washington. She remained composed throughout the reinterment.

Intones 148th Psalm

The two small caskets were placed on either side of the President. Bishop Hannan intoned the words of the 148th Psalm.

The Lord's Prayer was said, and the caskets, sprinkled with holy water, were lowered into the grave.

Under the doctrine of the Roman Catholic Church, children, untainted by sin, go directly to heaven after baptism.

When the ceremony was over the members of the family left the cemetery immediately. The gates were patrolled by an extra guard of military police to keep the service private.

Salinger said the bodies of the two children were accompanied to Washington aboard the Kennedy family plane by Sen. Edward Kennedy.

Patrick Bouvier Kennedy had been buried at the Kennedy family plot in Brookline, Mass. His sister was buried at Newport, R. I.

Plans Kept Secret

The plans for the burial were a closely-guarded secret. The statement on the move came from Salinger, who said he was acting at the request of Mrs. Kennedy.

Little had been known about the stillborn Kennedy baby and it was not general knowledge that it had been a girl.

It was her wish that the President be buried in Arlington Cemetery. Some members of the Kennedy family had argued in favor of the family plot at Brookline.

Trial Dates Scheduled For Month

The docket of trials for December in Klamath County Circuit Court has been made up.

One case, that of Marie Barkley, accused of assault with a dangerous weapon, was resolved Wednesday with Miss Barkley's acquittal.

The next trial is slated to begin Monday when Charles Francis Clubb faces a charge of burglary. The case of Charles Byrd, accused of assault with a dangerous weapon, is to follow.

There will be a brief recess of court for the circuit court judges' meeting in Portland Dec. 13 and 14.

Dec. 16, Ray Walsh is slated to be tried on a charge of forgery, and the murder trial of Archibald Foster is scheduled to being that same day.

Frances Colleen Crume and Darlene Sanchez will be tried on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon Dec. 18 and Theodore Brumnond is scheduled to go on trial Dec. 23 for obtaining meny and property by false pretenses.

AMA Approves Smoking Study

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—The American Medical Association (AMA) voted Wednesday for an all-out study to determine which human ailments, if any, are caused or made worse by smoking.

The vote, by the AMA House of Delegates, came on the last day of the organization's 17th clinical meeting and followed a report on the smoking problem which covered a three-year study of more than 442,000 men.

Youth Nabbed For Shoplifting

A 14-year-old Klamath Falls boy was arrested as a shoplifter Wednesday afternoon in the Market Basket, South Sixth and Shasta Way.

Police said the boy stole a pair of pliers. He was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Court Picks Attorney For Naylor

TULELAKE — The preliminary hearing in the Modoc County Justice Court of the Alturas Judicial District, scheduled for Dec. 4, for John G. Naylor of Newell, has been postponed until Thursday, Dec. 12.

Naylor, 22, is held in the Modoc County Jail at Alturas on six charges of child molestation and one of statutory rape allegedly involving two young girls, 11 and 8 years old.

The hearing was postponed when Naylor, a resident of the Newell area for about five years, was unable to retain counsel. Attorney V. Dean Close, was appointed by the court to represent him.

Naylor, the father of a 1-year-old daughter, was arrested Nov. 18 by Sheriff Deputy Marion Thompson on a complaint of the mother of one of the children involved.

Disfrict Attorney Robert Barclay will prosecute.

Brazil Senators Duel, Colleague Killed

BRASILIA (UPI)—Two senators staged a frontier-style gunfight Wednesday on the floor of Brazil's streamlined upper house, fatally wounding a third legislator.

Sens. Arnon De Melo and Silvestre P. Gois Montero, the pistol-packing principals in the impromptu duel, escaped injury. Sen. Jose Cairalli was hit by a .45-caliber slug and died in a hospital a short time later.

Senate President Auro M. De Andrade adjourned the session and turned the two principals over to military authorities pending a decision on what action to take against them. The Senate was expected to expel both men.

The shooting climaxed a long-time political feud between Melo and Gois. The two men drew guns on each other during a senate debate, but it was not clear just what it was that set them off.

The shooting caused pandemonium in the senate, and it was difficult to determine exactly what happened.
