

Sacred Heart Seeking Better League Finish, With Three Top Veterans Back

By BILL GOULD
Herald and News Sports Editor
(This is the third in a series of articles outlining Rogue Valley League basketball prospects.)

An equally long season may be in store for the Sacred Heart Trojans in Rogue Valley basketball play.

Ross Carriaga's Trojans, winless through the recently concluded Friday, December 6, 1963 cluded grid season, found the going rough in the A-2 circles. The smallest school in the Rogue circuit, Sacred Heart found its biggest problem in being swamped by numbers.

"I just don't know what to expect," offers Carriaga in his first year at the Trojan helm. "If the league's as tough as in football, we may be in for another long season."

However, one thing which will help is the fact the other teams can play only five men at a time also, and at least in basketball we won't be 'out-basketed'."

The Trojans of 1962-63 went through a winless league campaign residing in the basement with a 0-14 record and posted an overall season mark of 3-16.

Potentially, the Trojans could better this year.

The Trojans have the tenth ranked league score returning in 6-1 senior Pete Krok. A fine ball player of whom Carriaga says "... a real hard driver, with good moves."

average of 12.6. He's a two-year veteran who goes either at forward or guard.

Another two-year man figured to help the Trojan cause is senior guard Marv Davis, standing 5-7.

Davis hit for 84 points in 11 games for a 7.6 average last year, with his good outside work.

The Trojans counted a total turnout of 20 for the varsity ranks, with six lettermen in this number.

VanCamp, a other forward veteran who stands 5-10 and a senior and Mike McNeary (5-7), a junior guard.

Additional help from the junior varsity ranks comes from 6-2 sophomore George Schwartz at center and guard Larry Wilkenson, a junior standing 5-9.

The Trojans will run from a high and low post, with a pattern offense and man-to-man defense employed for the most part.

"Naturally, we will adjust both offense and defense according to the type of team we're facing."

The Trojans open the new campaign Tuesday night at KU facing the Pelecan junior varsity and hosting league action Jan. 10 beginning Eagle Point.

'Spoiler' Lions Try Cleveland Browns Next

By United Press International
The Detroit Lions, until recently the biggest disappointment of the National Football League season, suddenly have become the bogey-men of both conference races.

The Lions, who complicated matters in their own Western Division by playing a Thanksgiving Day tie with the Green Bay Packers, could make things rough for the Cleveland Browns in the Eastern Division Sunday at Detroit.

And on the final Sunday of the regular season, the Lions have a date with the Chicago Bears.

The Bears actually could clinch the Western title this weekend, but they would need help from the Los Angeles Rams.

Los Angeles, which has won five of its last seven games, takes on Green Bay Saturday afternoon in a nationally televised game from the West Coast.

Should the Rams upset the Packers, the Bears could win the Western title by beating the San Francisco Forty Niners in Chicago on Sunday. Chicago leads the division with a record of nine victories, one defeat and two ties; Green Bay has nine wins, two losses and one tie.

In the Eastern Division, where the New York Giants are at home against the Washington Redskins and the St. Louis Cardinals entertain the Philadelphia Eagles, the race could have one, two or three leaders by Sunday.

New York and Cleveland are tied with 9-3 records; St. Louis is close behind with 8-4. A Giants victory coupled with a Cleveland loss at Detroit would assure New York of at least a tie for first place at the close of the regular season. However, setbacks by the Giants and Browns coupled with a Cardinals' victory would put all three clubs back into a tie.

In the Dallas Cowboys (3-9) are at home against the Pittsburgh Steelers (6-3-3) and the Baltimore Colts (6-6) play at home against the Minnesota Vikings (4-7-1).

UBC Next For Beavers

By United Press International
Oregon State and the University of Portland, both unbeaten after the first weekend of the collegiate basketball season, put their records on the line tonight and Saturday night.

The Beavers face University of British Columbia tonight and Washington Saturday night at Gill Coliseum in Corvallis, while Portland plays a two-night stand at San Jose State.

Oregon, which lost two games to Stanford last weekend, is idle until Monday, when it takes on Washington at Eugene.

Oregon State is expected to have an easy time with UBC tonight, but Washington showed its ability by whipping Texas Western in an opener last weekend. Steve Wilson, 6-7, is the big gun in the Huskies' attack.

Seven-foot Muel Counts scored 62 points in two games last weekend as the Beavers collected two wins over Washington State. He will be joined in the starting lineup by Jim Jarvis, Frank Peters, Scott Eaton and probably Dave Fox.
