

Klamath Man Charged In Theft Of 25 Trees

A 30-year-old Klamath Falls man was arrested by an agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation Thursday in connection with the theft of 25 Christmas trees from the Klamath Ranger District of the Winema National Forest, an agent of the Portland office of the FBI has reported.

The accused is Gordon C. McKay, 1901 Homedale Road, who was arraigned before U.S. Commissioner David R. Vandenberg Jr. Thursday afternoon and was remanded to the Klamath County sheriff pending his release upon payment of $250 bail. McKay will be brought to trial in a Portland federal court on a charge of stealing government property.

A spokesman for the national forest said that U.S. Forest Service patrolmen observed red tracks in the Klamath District last Tuesday and traced them to McKay, who was in the process of cutting the trees.

Bats can avoid flying into obstacles in the dark because they can hear echoes of the sounds as they bounce off objects. These creatures can hear high-pitched sound waves of about 90,000 vibrations per second.

Christine Keeler Draws Prison Term

LONDON (UPI) — Christine Keeler, the call girl who almost toppled the British government, was sentenced today to nine months in prison for perjury and to six months for conspiracy to obstruct justice. The terms will run concurrently.

The red-haired, 21-year-old Miss Keeler whose affairs with former War Minister John Profumo and one-time Soviet intelligence agent Capt. Eugene Ivanov set off Britain's sex scandal, had pleaded guilty to a charge of perjury and a one count of obstructing justice.

Her pleas and the sentence came on the second day of her trial for lying about the beating she received last April. She had said Negro jazz singer Aloysius "Lucky" Gordon, one of her boyfriends, had beaten her. Her roommate and housekeeper said the same thing, and Gordon went to jail. But the new evidence freed him and she was indicted.

At today's proceedings her roommate, Paula Hamilton-Marshall, was sentenced to six months for perjury and three months for conspiracy to obstruct justice—with both terms also to run concurrently.

Mrs. Olive Brooker, the housekeeper, was conditionally discharged.

Last April, Miss Keeler was beaten in the apartment she shared with Mrs. Hamilton-Marshall and Mrs. Brooker, 56. Both entered similar guilty pleas today.

The crown charged that Miss Keeler and the other two women testified in Gordon's trial that Gordon had beaten Miss Keeler, when actually they knew another man had given her the beating some hours before.

Evidence at the preliminary hearing indicated Miss Keeler had tired of Gordon and when he showed up that night decided to pin the guilt for the attack on him to get him out of the way.
