Thompson, Julie Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote and Kathy Chilcote. In back, from the left, Mr. and Mrs. Hale Thompson (Ruth Chilcote), Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chilcote and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chilcote. The Thompsons reside in Eugene, the other families reside in Klamath Falls.

SHORT CUT
Use your dryer to freshen dusty draperies, slip covers and bedspreads for an easy holiday cleaning. They probably don't need washing and the dryer will tumble out the dust and fluff them. Use the "no heat" setting if your dryer has

one. If your dryer doesn't have a "no heat" cycle, you can use the last five minutes of a dry ing cycle. Put in only one big item at a time so it has plenty of room to tumble.

Toastmistress Meet Scheduled

Ewauna Toastmistress Club will hold its last meeting for the year 1963 Dec. 8, at 7:30 p.m. at the Winema Hotel. Orientation class convenes at 7 p.m. just preceding the regular meeting.

Dorothy Hearon will lead the flag salute to be followed by inspiration prepared by Irene Payne. Ellen Shunn will present the lexicology lesson and Lillian Hill will serve as grammarian. Timer, Millie Swisher, will employ the new timing method throughout the meeting.

Topicmistress, Rowena McDonald, will present each speaker with a topic for the two-minute impromptu talks.

President, Beverly Ellis, will conduct election of officers during the business portion of the meeting. These officers will be installed Jan. 3, 1964. Their term of office extends through June, 1964.

Marion Miller as toastmistress for the evening will introduce the program: a prepared speech by Lois Jacob; an educational feature "How to Make Announcements" by Margaret Davies, Irene Payne and Dorothy Hearon; a workshop "The Voice is You" by Ramona Smith. General evaluator will be Becky Campbell.

Woodcraft Lodge Meets

Neighbors of Woodcraft met Nov. 3 for a birthday dinner at Harold's followed by a regular meeting in the KC Hall with Thelma Roller presiding.

Willan Morache was presented the mother of the year gift by Verna Wenner and Vivian Floetke.

Songs were sung by Eleanor Cook and Barbara Adams.

Thimble Club hostesses were Gertrude Huff and Angelia Malani at the home of Susie Harris.

The lodge met again on Nov. 18 with presentation of pins the highlight of the meeting.

Effie Redkey received a 50-year pin and Bertha Hewitt, one for 39 years. Thirty five year pins were awarded to Martha Gilchrist, Emma Miller, Willan Morache, Mildred Smith and Elsie Ramsey.

These honored members were led to the camp fire and given their pins by Neva Hayes and Susie Harris.

Present for the meeting especially for the pin ceremony was Mabel Mathney of Eugene.

Refreshments were served by the committee composed of Maude Holmes, Eva Young, Lois Gray and Jennie Charles.

On Nov. 21 members of the Thimble Club met for a pot-luck lunch at the home of Elva Weaver.

A letter was read from Willan Morache thanking the lodge for the honors bestowed on her.
