BAPTIZED — Word has been received in Merrill that on Oct. 6, Gregory Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilson, Stephen, Minn., was baptized in the First Lutheran Church by Pastor Lane Darrington. Sponsors, in absentia, were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Turner of Malin. The young lad is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Rosco Barkhurst, Merrill.

Lorna Pratt Recent Bride

Lorna L. Pratt became the bride of Corbyn Roche Pomeroy Jr. on Nov. 3 at First Church of God in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Charles T. Buckle. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. G. H. Bushman, Portland, and L. C. Pratt of this city, who gave her in marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Ford, this city, are parents of the bridegroom. Ann Ackerman was organist. Soloist was Jerre Oliver.

For her wedding the bride chose a ballerina gown of white brocade in rose pattern fashioned with V neckline and three quarter sleeves. A pearl crown held the shoulder veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Cathy Johnson, maid of honor, was dressed in a blue wool sheath with white accessories. Her bouquet was of pink carnations. Donald A. Rider was best man and ushers were James L. Pratt and Charles Ford Jr. Mrs. Bushman wore for her daughter's wedding a blue ensemble with orchid corsage. Mrs. Ford was dressed in lavender with white accessories and a complementary orchid corsage.

The wedding reception was held in Youth Hall of the church. Helen Schreiner served the cake and Melba Cox presided at the coffee service. The new Mrs. Pomeroy's going away outfit was a blue sheath with black accessories. The newlyweds are at home at 1224 Monclair Street. Both are graduates of Klamath Union High School. Mrs. Pomeroy is employed by Pacific Finance Company. Her husband is a member of the Naval Reserve and is an employee of Klamath Hardwoods.

Dinner Staged

The Women's Missionary Society of Immanuel Baptist Church recently staged a foreign dish progressive dinner, starting with appetizers at the home of Helen Dorch. These appetizers were ones originated in the old country. Next the group went to Ann Luquers' for saigns representing Italy, Switzerland and Hawaii. The main courses were served at the Alloway home, and included Italian spaghetti, Italian eggplant, Hungarian meat balls, Chinese chow mein, spice island tea and homemade breads. The dinner was followed by the regular meeting at the church. Ruby Alloway, in charge of the program, presented four high school girls who narrated slides from Thailand and explained exhibits from New Guinea. The program was followed by devotions by Mrs. E. V. Zell and the business meeting. Concluding the evening was the dessert, a choice of Lemon Bisque from France, Cheesecake (German), Hawaiian Delight or German Chocolate cake.
