

Carol Kelso of Lakeview, junior at Southern Oregon College, is one of 14 students there who has been selected for mention in the 1963-64 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. She is president of Robes, secretary of the SOC band, secretary of the Associated Women Students, vice president of Susanna Homes Hall, a member of the dormitory disciplinary board, Tri Zeta, and recipient of the residence hall citizenship award.

Nancy Galloway, Lakeview, sophomore at Southern Oregon College, was one of the princesses at the recent homecoming ceremonies there.

Mary Lee Scoville, Lakeview, a junior at Oregon State University, has won a music scholarship for the study of organ music. The winners were presented in public recital when the awards were made.

Paul McCormick, junior in range management at Oregon State University, has been tapped for membership in Alpha Zeta, agriculture honorary. Choice of members is based on scholarship, character and leadership.

James Griener of Adel, sophomore at the University of Oregon, had the male lead in the play "Lady in the Dark," produced by the theater group on the campus.

Holiday fun for the family starts with a Magnavox Organ and goes on... and on... and on... and on...

Just imagine yourself playing Christmas carols on Christmas morning with the family singing along. You can, if you hurry and order your new Magnavox organ now. Then, using the A-B-C Record Plan, you can learn to play right in your own home, on the Magnavox organ you choose. You'll be surprised how easy it is! All this year-round enjoyment can be yours—including the well-known Magnavox quality—for as little as $495.*

Other visitors were Bill Van Cleve, associate guardian Bethel 47, Lakeview; Mrs. Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian; Arlene Ruteschell, past queen, Bethel 182, Crescent City; Nellie Nicol, past guardian; Bethel 6, and Queen Sally Hanville and her officers of Bethel 61. Queen Laurie Bruns urged all members to be present for the next meeting which will be election of officers.

Manzanita OES Meets

Friendship night at the regular meeting of Manzanita Chapter No. 172, of the Eastern Star, Wednesday, Nov. 13, was a gathering of many members and visitors.

The entrance of the officers was very impressive with carrying pieces of white styrofoam stars centered with nosegays of red roses.

A welcome poem, "The Garden of Friendship," the theme for the evening, was read by Worthy Matron Mary Jane Sabo.

Escorted and introduced was Lorene McCollum, grand marshal of the Grand Chapter; Virginia Zumbum and Harold Rush, grand committee members; all worthy matrons from District 15 were present, Viola Pollard, Lakeview; Edyth Withers, Paisley; Mildred Dobry, Malin; Dorothea Kiest, Chiloquin; Carrie Rush and Orville Alley, worthy patron of Aloha Chapter, Klamath Falls.

Entertainment for the evening was vocal duets by Mr. and Mrs. William Davenport, accompanied by Mrs. James Shields. The chapter room and dining

LINT DISPENSER

Corduroys and blue jeans often collect lint during the washing. You can avoid this annoyance by adding half a cup of vinegar to the wash water.

Jerry Thomas Answers Your Insurance Questions

QUESTION: Is the breaking of windows and defacing of walls of a house while the owners are on vacation covered by the new Homeowners insurance?

ANSWER: Homeowners insurance is written in several ways but normally that would be part of the standard protection.
