

Friendship Court Meets

Friendship Court No. 11, Order of the Amaranth, held a stated meeting Nov. 21 in the Scottish Rite Temple.

The meeting opened in regular form with Velma Krauss, royal matron and Frank McCornack, royal patron, presiding.

Past Grand Royal Patron of Grand Court of Oregon, Jack Schulze, was escorted to the throne by Leona Angel and Martha Powell, marshals in the East and West, and was given the grand welcome.

Under the good of the order, the members participated in the obligation, under the directions of the royal patron.

All committee members present were given gifts of gold telephone date books and miniature hall point pens from the royal matron. An appropriate poem for each committee group was composed and read by the chairman of the entertainment committee, Jim Hunter.

It was announced by the royal matron at the next meeting, Dec. 18, there will be a Christmas tree, gift exchange and party. All members were invited.

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining hall. The tables were artistically decorated by Nellie Nicol and Lucille Wertz.

PARENTS PATRONS

FAIRHAVEN SCHOOL

In observance of National Education Week, Fred Taylor, principal, was the speaker at the November meeting of Fairhaven School Parents and Patrons. He extended a special invitation to parents to visit the classrooms of their children.

The Melody Mothers, led by Mrs. W. Don Miller and accompanied by Mrs. Anita Campbell, presented several numbers.

Mrs. Beverly Tucker, president of Melody Mothers, was introduced as the sister of Bob Jarschke, president of Parents and Patrons, who conducted the meeting.

The flag salute was led by Camp Fire Girls Marilyn Revis and Patty Lougee.

Mrs. Winona Leonard's fifth and sixth grade room won the room count.

Special prizes were awarded to Mrs. Mary Wagner, Mrs. Eulalie Whitlock, Mrs. Verna Fletcher and Mrs. Sara Mosely.

Refreshments were served by the fifth and sixth grade room mothers.

Yule Theme Of Club Meet

The Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club will meet Monday, Dec. 9, at 2 p.m. in the city library club rooms. Mrs. Phil Schroeder, president, has announced the program will be, appropriately, in the Christmas theme.

The "Christmas Story" will be related by Mrs. J. A. Nixon. The musical portion of the program will be under the direction of M. Dale Halleck of Klamath Union High School. He will introduce the KUHS String Orchestra, whose selections will be special arrangements of familiar Christmas carols. The Madrigal Singers will present several numbers including Fred Waring's arrangement of "Night Before Christmas."

Following the program, club officers will be hostesses at tea. A nominal charge will be made for non-members who are cordially invited to all club meetings.

Scarves as Gifts

Colorful silk and chiffon scarves will make perfect gifts this Christmas. They are fashion favorites this season on plain dresses and sweaters.

WINTER ROYALTY — Pretty Pam Conn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher Conn, wears the white crown of Snow Queen for the coming winter ski season. Queen Pam was chosen from among five candidates by members of the Alle Mage Ski Club at its Tuesday meeting. The four princesses of the Snow Court are Susan Drew, Ann Lindley, Linda Bonotto and Kathy Kuhlman. The five candidates were elected by the KUHS Ski Club. The Snow Queen and her court will preside over ski events here and will accompany local skiers on many out-of-town trips.

Quota Club

Quota Club of Klamath County met for a regular luncheon meeting Tuesday, Dec. 3, at Molatore's. President Vi Mitterling conducted a brief business meeting before turning the meeting over to the program chairman, Lorene Guyer.

Mrs. Guyer introduced Mrs. Margaret Freuer of Bonanza, well known to home extension and other groups for her talents in handwork and decoration ideas. On Tuesday, Mrs. Freuer brought all her equipment to demonstrate decorations for cakes and cookies suitable for the Christmas season as well as other occasions.

Among the sizeable crowd of members were two new Quotarians, Vera Durant and Marian Linville.

The annual club Christmas party will be an event of Monday, Dec. 9, at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Alice Vitus. Members will again this year bring toys which will be sent to the Salem School for the Hard of Hearing.

Assistance to the hard of hearing is one of the service projects of Quota International. Locally, Quota Club gives treatment and hearing aids to children when needed. In addition, at Christmas time the toys are sent to Salem.

Since no further meetings will be held in December, it was again decided that each member donate one luncheon charge which will be given to the local Christmas Bureau.

Prosperity OES Meets

MALIN—Mildred Dobry and Ivan Ottoman, worthy matron and patron, presided at the Nov. 14 meeting of Prosperity Chapter 169, Order of Eastern Star. Escorted and introduced were Goldia Robinson, member of the Estar Fund committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon; Worthy Matrons Viola Pollard, Oriental No. 5, Lakeview, and Ruth Rodenberger, Tulalake, and Worthy Patron Harry Eaton, Oriental No. 5.

Under good of the order, Goldia Robinson, who was making her official visit, thanked the lodge for the fine support of the Estar program. Estar represents Eastern Star training awards in religious leadership and at present three from this district are receiving aid through this program. She closed with a poem written by Leona Angel of Aloha Chapter.

The worthy patron called upon other guests to speak and introduced sideliners, Eva Houston, Henry and Hazel Bergstrom, Oriental No. 5.

Honored and thanked by the worthy matron for receiving their proficiency cards were Anna Fruits, Helen Derry and Patty Schmidt.

Escorted to the birthday box were Dorothy Hile and Helen Chatham.

Refreshments were served by Anne Fruits and Helen Chatham.

MALIN GARDEN CLUB

MALIN—Wednesday, Nov. 13, the Malin Garden Club members met at the Malin Community Hall, to make Della Robbia wreaths and other Christmas decorations.

Mrs. Lester Schreiner, vice president, presided in the short business session.

The club will again sponsor the Christmas tree lighting contest, "Christmas in Klamath Basin."
