

Family Weekly

DECEMBER 8, 1963

If you're looking for a bright gift idea this holiday season, why not plan on giving homemade sweets? Turn to recipes on page 12: CANDY FAVORITES

The Skiing Life

■ Half the fun of skiing (which is growing by leaps and bounds from California to the Carolinas) is not so much in knowing how to schuss down a slope as in dressing for it. And what a fresh palette of ski togs is being unveiled this season! (See page 10)

First of a Series on the Contenders for '64:

NELSON ROCKEFELLER—
The Women in His Life

Behind a Historic Medical Event:

My Boy's Arm Was Severed and Reattached—
But He Wouldn't Cry!
By MRS. EVERETT KNOWLES

What Happened to MILTON BERLE?

