OTI Opens Home Court Campaign Hosting Strong Pacific Badgers

It's the Pacific University Badgers visiting Oregon Tech Friday and Saturday nights as Jim Partlow's Owls open the home basketball season.

Danny French's Badgers, co-favorite with the defending champion Lewis & Clark Pioneers for the Northwest Conference title, opened the new campaign last Thursday night at home hosting the Owls in the opening clash of the NAIA Tip-Off Tournament and handed the visitors a 92-61 lacing.

Despite the one-sidedness of the contest, the Owls gave indication of greatness in the first half of the fray before the superior experience of the Badgers won out.

A pair of all-Northwest Conference performers will be seen in action for the Badgers in 6-0 Leon Johnson and 6-3 Ken Alcorn. The Badgers are minus just one member of last year's second place NWC team.

Johnson and Alcorn both did well against the Owls in the Tip-Off meeting, with Johnson blasting Oregon Tech with a 26-point performance and Alcorn adding 12.

In this contest, the Owls led the Badgers until some three minutes left in the first half and were down by 10 points at 42-32 at the intermission.

However, in the second half the Badgers exploded for 50 points while the Owls were hitting for 29 and this was the difference.

The work of diminutive back court ace Ralph Anderson, a 5-4 ball-hawking freshman from Willows, Calif., was impressive in the previous meeting with the Badgers.

Anderson and former Crater star Mike Glines both collected 11 points for the Owls while the Oregon Tech scoring was paced by Mike Westin of Newport with 13.

Showing well in other Tip-Off games and figured to see much action against the Badgers were Rich Lyons, Chuck Hawkins and Larkin Wade.

Lyons hit for just seven points against the Badgers, but came back for 20 points against Portland State and 21 against Oregon College and ended the three game session with a 16 point per game average and a total of 38 rebounds.

Hawkins did well in the rebounding figures, ending the tournament with a total of 19.

Glines ended the three-game session with a per game average of 14 points, while Anderson compiled an average of 9.3.

A tentative starting lineup for the Badgers would put Johnson and Alcorn at the forwards; 6-3 transfer from Oregon Vince Hayes at center and former North Bend Bulldog Mike Payne and Springfield's Fred Willis at the guards.

The Oregon Tech head man expects to go with Anderson and Glines at guards; 6-4 Hawkins at center and Lyons (6-1) and Larkin Wade (6-2) at the forwards.

In preliminary action Friday night the Owl junior varsity team will face the Kingsley Air Base five and Saturday night the junior varsity will host the Sprague River Ducks—the National American Indian champs of 1962.

OWL SPEEDSTER — Diminutive backcourt man Ralph Anderson, a 5-4 freshman from Willows, Calif., will be seen in action for the Oregon Tech Owls Friday and Saturday night as Jim Partlow's five opens the home season against the Pacific Badgers. Anderson made his initial start last weekend in the annual Tip-Off Tournament and rapidly became the "darling" of the crowds with his speed and deception.

Pinson On Stand

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — Prosecuting attorneys today begin cross examination of Cincinnati Reds outfielder Vada Pinson, accused of assaulting a newspaper sports writer during a late - season scuffle in the Reds' clubhouse.

The assault and battery charge, carrying a maximum penalty of six months in jail and a $200 fine, was filed against Pinson Sept. 4 by Earl Lawson, baseball writer for the Cincinnati Post and Times-Star.

The pair clashed in the clubhouse after a night game with the Philadelphia Phillies when Pinson approached Lawson to discuss the writer's Sept. 3 column in which he said Pinson's "stubborn refusal" to bunt was hurting his batting average.

Both Pinson and teammate Frank Robinson testified before a nine-woman, three-man jury Wednesday that Pinson was holding Lawson in an effort to discuss the article when Lawson pulled away, causing his shirt to rip.

"The words 'stubborn refusal' caused me some concern and I wanted to talk about it," Pinson said. But the centerfielder denied using force or trying to harm Lawson.

Lawson testified that he emerged from Reds Manager Fred Hutchinson's office and found "pinson blocking my path. He was standing there, his legs spread apart, a newspaper clipping in his hand."

All three witnesses—Lawson, Pinson and Robinson—told the jury that the writer then said, "Vada, don't touch me or there'll be a lot of trouble."

Lawson said Pinson grabbed him by the shirt, causing it to tear, and then shoved him against the wall. "I bounced off the wall, slid around it and went into Hutchinson's office and called police," he added.

The real beauty of it is what's inside. A taste preferred by far to that of any other whiskey. Give Seagram's 7 Crown and be Sure.

Cotton In Kayo Win

BELLINGHAM (UPI)—Eddie Cotton of Seattle, No. 1 ranked light heavyweight contender by the World Boxing Association, Wednesday scored a second round technical knockout here over Don Bale of New York.

Referee Terry Cassidy stopped the fight at 2:27 of the round. Bale had taken an automatic eight count after a whistling left uppercut to the jaw.

When the fight was resumed, Cotton unloaded a hard left to the jaw and a solid shot to the body and Cassidy ruled a technical knockout.

Bale weighed 174 while Cotton came in at 177.

Cotton, 36, now has won 49 of 64 fights, including a recent decision over Henry Hank.
